

LEXHIPEEPERS

By We I. U.

"If there comes a little thaw,
Still the air is chilled raw,
Here and there a patch of snow,
Dirtier than the ground below,
Dribble down a marsty flood,
Ankle-deep you stick in mud,
In the meadows while you sing,
This is Spring."

—C. P. Cranch

This poem expresses the way we feel about winter, and how we wish Spring would hurry!!

It looks like the couple of warm days gave some people the "spring fever."

For instance, it brought Joanne and Carroll back together and we are really proud of you!!!

Seen at the LEXHIPEP dance were loads of such as Martha and Jimmy, Zacky and Jane, Joanne and "Tubba," Martha and Bill, and "Peahead" and Mary Nell!!

All the girls were looking pretty and the boys were giving them that Valentine courtesies!!!

Jane Gordon received a box of Valentine candy from Bill (lucky stiff) so far as we know she's the only fortunate one!!

Well, this is really getting to be confusing. Mike went down to Carolina to the dances with Hubert, but the two nights of the Follies, she was seen with Bill Eanes and it's rumored that Bill and Sue are all off. We'll let you draw your own conclusions. (What's happened to "Rabbit" and Woody?)

We're really glad to see ever-loving gals get "fellows" back. In these days and times it isn't easy, with so many gals after the same man! We speak of none other than Peggy and Betty Anne. More power to you!!

Were you at the Follies? If you weren't you missed the best part of your life. It really was super-duper!!

We're glad to see Sunny get back in the swing of things again (and we don't mean the Follies); we mean with Barbara. Hang on, Barbara!!

The dance Saturday night really gave those gals a break. We're sorry we can't report on the after effects, but we'll tell you a little something about the before!!

Shirley Dabbs is going to get her man. She's got determination and here's to her!!

At the Valentine's dance the Senior boys took the freshmen girls for a spin, or was it visa versa??? Whatever, the boys really had some cute gals!! (One especially from Statesville.)

So you think L. H. S. has some jitterbugs? Well, if you ask us, Robbins School has us beat one hundred per cent!!

Another up-coming couple is J. L. and Carolyn, and who could find a better match!! Good looks and brains!!

Doug Craver has already refused ten girls; he says he's waiting for just the right one!! Who knows—it might be you!!

It's really getting serious with James Tate and his girl. They are constantly seen in the halls!!

An everlasting affair is Bob and "Teeny" (with the new look!!!!).

What happened to Mary Jane and all her beaus? We haven't seen her around much lately!!!

We'll see you again in the early Spring!!

Have you seen it? You couldn't have missed it and I do mean the Williams' new Buick and usually Tinker's behind the wheel. (Who could ask for more?)

The next sparkler will probably be on the hand of Jackie Trexler, put there by her better half, Herman Lofton!!

L. H. S. Debating Team Organized. Lexington's loss and Roanoke's gain! Charlie Williams spent last week end with Annetta. Absence makes the heart grow fonder.

Another wilted affair is Becky's and Pete's, but Bill J. has stepped into brighter things!!

As a peace treaty, Stinkey gave Betty Jo a box of candy. That's the kind of feller to have.

Loafing: Are you one of the many people who go up to Conrad's to listen to records? I don't blame ya. I'd go up there, too! Look who's in charge of the records.

Love Affairs: We really have some steady cases up here now, don't we? It must be wonderful, and if in doubt, ask Goo-Ball and Sue—they ought to know.

Question: Was your feller good to ya on Valentine's Day? Please bring me some candy if there's any left.

Bumps: These days one is liable to have his or her ups and downs since skates are back in style now!

Youth Canteen in Making. Richards and Mary Ella—That's enough!! Don't be so stubborn. Go ahead and kiss and make up. All your friends are betting on you two. Never say dreams don't come true. They do. Everybody in high school has dreamed of a Youth Center for so long, and now we've got one — thanks to Miss Holton and her Sociology Class.

Scottie is so happy lately. Lee has been home again.

"Pat," said Mr. Hardwicke in an arithmetic review, "how many make a million?"

And the experienced and realistic Pat promptly replied, "Very few."

Ruthie: "My dad."

Isabel: "What did he ever write?"

Ruthie: "Checks."—The Machohi.

Ever Constant, Ever True

A famous European king greatly admired a beautiful court lady. One day he asked her age. She replied, "Your majesty, I am 25."

Five years later he again put the same question to her. She again replied, "Your majesty, I am 25."

"See here," said the king, "you told me that five years ago."

"Certainly," she said. "I am not one of those ladies who say one thing one day and another the next." — The Scholastic Teacher.

"What's that new girl's name?"
"I've forgotten, but it begins with 'M'."

"Is it Mildred? Martha? Mary? Margaret?"

"No. I remember now. It's Emma."

Sheriff: "Did you catch the auto thief?"

Deputy: "No! He sure was a lucky bird. We had chased him only a mile when our 1,000 miles were up and we had to stop and change the oil."

"I hope you paid your taxes with a smile last week."

"I wanted to, but the man insisted on cash."

New neighbor: "It did at first, but now I don't care what happens to you."
