GIRLS WIN ONE!

Winter Olympics Take Over L.H.S.

While school was closed for a week and during the preceding week's snow, fairway 16 at the Country Club was the scene of the great winter Olympics in Lexington High School.

The first snow brought out great interest quickly when the amateur bobsled (one, two, and three men) tournament ruled supreme, and many got wet.

The results as announced by the chairman of the Olympics committee are as follows:

One man bobsled—Charles Price, who only spilled about a dozen times in as many minutes.

Two man bobsled—"Bubba" Gambrell and "Wit" Wood, who assumed a speed up to 1/2 mile per hour.

Three man bobsled team—Bob Bowers, "Stooge" Lanning, and Mickey Foster, who won a crushing victory with Mickey crushed in the middle.

Four man bobsled team—Benny Walser, Pete Clark, Zack Taylor, and J. L. Peeler, survived only after "Clem" got cut about the eye and Peeler bruised his settee.

Best free style glider—Sam Everhart, who will long carry the title "tall, dark and torn up," derived from his escapade of sliding down the icy hill on his nose.

Best Slider standing up (single)—Stinky Gibson, who stood up long enough to fall down again.

Best sliders standing up (couple)—Caspar Timberlake, Johnny Arnold originated this peculiar form of suicide.

Open class diving from sled—Termite Leonard did a two and a half jack knife from a standing position going down the hill.

Open 100 meter free style swimming—Jim Sicheloff who took his monthly bath for the next two years all in one night with his clothes on in the branch at the bottom of the hill.

Open 50 meter free style swimming—Charles Rothrock did the same only on a smaller scale

Open 100 meter women's free style swimming—Miss Philbeck did a beautiful dying duck into the branch and dripping icicles swore she didn't do it.

Craver New Starter

Lexington High's basketball team underwent a "shuffle" as "Tubba" Craver replaced Price in the lineup and took over the forward shot, and Harold Carter took his dangerous "set shot" to the guard post.

"Tubba" is a junior this year and shows promise of being one of the best players next year. He also is possessed with a fine "hook shot" with either hand that is equally dangerous. He has certainly proved himself, for he has been close to the top in points collected in every game he has started.

LEXINGTON LOSES FIRST DOUBLE HEADER

January 30, Lexington dropped her first doubleheader of the season in the Thomasville gym to the Tommies. The girls lost the opener, 26-17. The Tommies led at halftime, 21-7. Richey led the losers with 5, and Tew had 11 for the winners.

The Lexington boys lost their first game of the season by a 36-34 count. The locals were behind at half-time, 22-15. Walser hit for 15 to lead the scoring, and Harrington got 12 for the winners.

KANNAPOLIS DOWNS JACKETS TWICE

Kannapolis, Feb. 3.—Lexington dropped a dual contest to the Kannapolis "Little Wonders" with the girls falling 34-18 and the boys being defeated 32-20. Kale and Miller had 10 each for the winners, and Carpenter got 6 for the losers. Willeford led the Kannapolis five to victory with 10 points, and Walser got 9 for Lexington.

CHILDREN'S HOME TAKES TWO

Children's Home, Feb. 6.—Children's Home cagers took two victories over Lexington, the girls winning 39-20. McConnell led the Methodists to victory with 18 points, and Sink got 7 for Lexington.

In the main event the Children's Home boys won a narrow 26-32 decision. Smith hit the hoops for 16 to pace the Methodists, and Carter was next with 11.

ERLANGER TRIPS JACKETS

Lexington, Feb. 10.—Erlanger Y. M. C. A. team came from behind to edge the Yellowjackets by a 45-40 count. White led Erlanger to victory by looping in 18 markers, and Walser got 10 for the High's cause.

The losers led at half-time 20-14.

BOYS BOUNCE ALBEMARLE GIRLS LOSE

Lexington, Feb. 20.—Lexington and Albemarle split a pair of cage events with the girls taking a brutal 43-17 beating, and the boys being victorious with 40-34. Troutman collected 22 points in the "race against time" to take undisputed scoring honors. Richey and McCulloch got 5 each to lead the losers.

In the main event Carter led the locals to a 40-34 victory, by hitting the net for 12 points. Napier got 8 for the Bulldogs.

The winners were ahead at intermission, 22-14.

BOYS AVENGE THOMASVILLE DEFEAT

Lexington, Feb. 26.—The Thomasville girls took a close 24-22 win from the locals while the boys handed out a 38-28 licking to the Tommies to avenge the defeat suffered in their previous engagement.

Tew paced the Thomasville girls with 9 markers, and Richey got 13 for the losers. The locals were ahead at the end of the first semester, 14-10.

Walser sank 15 points to capture top scoring honors, and Huffman rang up 11 to poll the Tommies. Lexington was ahead of their arch rivals at half time, 19-9.

Scoring Parade

Walser and Carter are leading the Yellowjackets' scoring parade. The scoring is as follows up to the Thomasville game:

Name	Total Points
Walser	147
Carter	127
Grayson	76
Clark	60
Craver	39
Peeler	21
Price	10
Koontz	6
Crow	4

Girls Win First Game Of Season; Boys Avenge Loss

Lexington High School cagers took their first dual win of the season by twice dropping the strong Kannapolis cagers on the local court Wednesday afternoon, February 25.

In the opener the girls jumped to an early lead that they were able to keep throughout most of the contest, and maintained a half-time lead 14-11.

In the closing minutes the visitors began to cut down the lead and with the score in a 22-22 deadlock, both teams began to bang away at the basket unsuccessfully until Sink hit for a bucket to close the book with the local girls' first win 24-22.

Hardy of Kannapolis was high with 13 points, and Sink had 10 to lead the "Female Jackets".

The local boys evened the score with the "Little Wonders" by handing out a narrow 31-30 victory.

Both teams were throwing them high, wide and handsome, much to the delight of practically the whole student body.

Lexington was ahead after the first quarter 10-5 and was barely on top at half-time 16-14.

In the third period things began to get a little warmer with the locals still on top, 24-21.

With four minutes remaining, the visitors had only made good on one foul shot while the Yellowjackets had gone on to hang the 31st point on the board. But from then on the visiting cagers began to take over, but it was too late, as the game ended 31-30 for the Yellowjackets.

Grayson Injured

Jimmy Grayson, basketball captain and one of the team's best floor men, is temporarily out of action due to a broken hand, the result of an "unavoidable accident."

Jim says, "I'm out now, but 'I shall return.' I'll play in the tournament even if my hand is still broken."

According to the latest doctor's report, the hand is healing very nicely, and Jim's dream of playing in the tournament may still come true.

"Like family, like family" is Jim's motto, for at the present, his ambition is to play in the tournament at Winston-Salem like all his brothers and sisters have done before him, and Jim wants to keep the records clear.
