

When the Senior Class of 1948 files out of Lexington High School, among the group will be seven boys who for four years have helped spread Lexington's fame far and wide. Not since the teams of the early 40's has Lexington had such a fine crop of athletes. Two of their comrades preceded them by graduating at the end of the first semester. As they file out all Lexington pays tribute to her warrior

Coaches Maus and Gaddy will watch their first string line from end to end leave, and among them three of his backfield men.

One of these valuable men leaving is PETE CLARK, right end. Pete has played his end on the varsity squad for three years and has played the same number of years on the basketball team, and was a member of the baseball team one year. Pete is bound for the Hickory Hills and Lenoir-Rhyne College.

Right tackle, Benny Walser was co-captain this year and won many honors. He also played in the Shrine Bowl game. Benny played first string for three years in football, and one year basketball, taking many honors in this sport, too. Benny will be one of Coach Snavely's men next year and a good one, too.

Right guard was Charles "Peahead Price. "Peahead has played for four years, was a starter every year, and was co-captain one year. He was out for basketball three years and played first string for two of them. He has started as the second sacker on the baseball team for two years. "Pea-head" plans to follow in his brother's footsteps at Catawba.

Left guard JOHNY NEWELL came to L.H.S. and played first string football here for three years and was out for basketball for one year. Johnny will be singing, "Oh! Maryland, My Maryland!" at the University of Maryland next year.

Left tackle BILL BLALOCK, better known as "Bull," has played varsity of the best crowds yet to witness one football and tennis at L.H.S. for three of the locals' contests. years now and has been out for bas-ketball for three years also. Bill is another who plans to go to old U.N.C. next year.

Left end ZACKY TAYLOR was cocaptain this year and was one of Coach Maus' starters for one and onehalf years. He was out for basketball for two years also. Zack will go to the "Gamecocks" at the University of South Carolina next year.

The backs are: BILL COOK; Bill served one and one-half years on the varsity in football and has one varsity year of baseball to his credit. Cook as yet has no definite plans for the future. And PAUL "JAYBIRD" McCRARY; Jayb'rd has two years varsity baseball and football behind him and was a member of the basketball team for one year. Like Cook, McCrary has no definite plans for the future.

And last but by no means least, we have the two to graduation. They are the immortal SAM EVERHART and "STINKY" GIBSON, who have figured in Lexington's football teams for longer than even Mrs. Hedrick can remember. Sam may go to Western Carolina next year, but he has not altogether decided yet; and "Stinky" does not have the privilege to decide because he is in Uncle Sam's Army, and Uncle Sam does his thinking for him.

This does not include the numerous boys who also worked to put this team on the field, such as the sub-Cont. on Page 11, Col. 1

JACKETS BUMP T'VILLE 10-6

SPRING FOOTBALL PRACTICE HALTED

Due to the exceedingly warm weather, and what seemed to be lack of interest on the part of lower classmen, Coach Jimmy Maus called a halt to spring football drills after a three weeks' session. Though lack of recruits slowed down things considerably, those who reported were given work-outs daily in light equipment. South Piedmont Conference rulings do not allow heavy equipment drills in these practices, but much was ac-complished by the light workouts.

New recruits were taught fundamentals by Coach Maus and non-returning veterans of the 1947 team. Throughout the period class-room drills, which included moving pictures stressing blocking and defensive play, figured prominently.

NO GOLF; NO TENNIS

Though a tennis team in Lexington High School's sports has figured prominently for a number of years, it was abandoned this year due to the lack of a coach, players and scheduled games.

Golf, though dropped for a number of years, was resumed once more last year under the coaching of Mr. Hazel Gilstrap, who did not return to the L.H.S. faculty. As in tennis, golf was canceled due to the lack of a coach. However, it was not due to lack of interest or would-be players.

Young Dunlop White, eighth grader, was presented a huge trophy in assembly on Wednesday, May 19, as winner of the Junior Champion contest of the Municipal Golf Course here in Lexington. Gaither Walser, who is also an eighth grader in Lexington High, was presented the runner-up trophy.

Dugan Aycock, local pro, expressed his desire that more high school students would participate in the tournament next year.

Surely two eighth graders taking the championship over so many upperclassmen is a challenge to all the "would-be" golfers in the school. Re-
