

JIM REDWINE

CREAM FROM THE DAIRY BOWL

"Good Weather Indicates Record Crowd." That's what the local rag prognosticated.

Boy! Did Mother Nature show them a thing or two! Just between you and us, we believe thae she has a personal grudge against Dairy Bowl Inc. Last year she cast millions of tiny ice cubes upon Holt-Moffitt Park, freezing players and fans alike. This year, getting even cuter, she unzipped every rain cloud in the heavens, letting their liquid contents drench some 3,500 fans and change a nice solid field into an ocean of quicksand.

Despite her seeming dislike for them, the Dairy Bowl committee is planning a bigger and better bowl for '49.

LOCAL LADS LAUDED

Coaches Jimmy Maus and Harold Bowen had themselves a fine football season. Their Jackets won 7; lost 1; and tied 1. If you need further proof, let's look at the individual honors bestowed on their charges:

1. Billy Eanes was selected for the third straight year on the G. D. N. All-State team. To top this off, he received and accepted a bid to play in the annual Shrine Bowl.

2. Three Jacket stalwarts, Ralph Craver, Fred Dbey, and Bob Kepley, went to the Optimist Bowl in High Point. All three played bang-up ball for Maus' West team.

3. Harold (Watch My Smoke Next Year) Carter, "Cootie" White, Fred Dobey, and Ralph Craver received honorable mention in the Daily News All-State.

That's a fine record for any man's ball club!

WANT LAUNDRY DONE?

If you're looking for Coaches Jimmy Maus or Harold Bowen, chances are you'll find them down in the home economics room making like Beulah, the washerwoman. They have a brand-new "Bendix," too. So you're doubtful? Look on the fence behind the school any bright and sunny day.

HATS OFF!

Quoted below is a letter received by the assistant sports editor from Bob Hendricks, student body president of L.H.S. last year, now a freshman at U.N.C.

Many thanks, Bob, for your thoughtfulness and these pleasing remarks.
U.N.C., December 6, 1948.

An open letter to the coaches and football team of L.H.S.

It is altogether fitting and proper that after a highly successful season culminating in a Lexington victory over Tech High of Charlotte in the third annual Dairy Bowl, that recognition be made of your meritorious achievement.

Although just an alumnus of Lexington High School, I would like to take this opportunity to express my congratulations, to both coaches and players, for the glory they have achieved on the gridiron during the past season. Your attainments on the football field not only show the football power of the team, but also exemplify the indomitable spirit that emanates from Lexington High School.

My heartiest congratulations to Coach Maus and the Yellowjackets, from the lowliest scrub to the most publicized player, for a season that will be long remembered by all Lexington alumni.

In closing, permit me to say to the student body, "Although we can't all be great athletes, we can be good sports."

Sincerely,

BOB HENDRICKS,
U.N.C., Chapel Hill, North Carolina

ODDS AND ENDS

We understand that Bill Doyle, this year's Shrine Bowl coach, doesn't think much of the smaller (anything below AA) schools, their players, or their choaches. That is too bad, because we (in Lexington) think we can give any ball club in the state a helluva fight! (Even his almighty Bulldogs!)

Kelly Beck, who was an L.H.S. student last year, played in the Optimist Bowl against Coach Maus' team. (We won't mention the part he played in beating the West.)

You can't say the Optimist Bowl wasn't rough; even the band members were getting injured! One member fell (a big brass horn on top of him) and had to be carried off the field. Yep, it was brutal.

Somebody said Coach Maus was in line for a coaching job in the Shrine Bowl next year.—It's about time!

Here, to the tune of "We're Loyal," we'll bid Old Man Football farewell—until next year. While we're at it, let's warn him that we're aiming for the South Piedmont Conference Championship with both barrels.

"Ah, parting is such sweet sorrow." (Sniff-sniff!)

Basketball Schedule

Jan. 7—Barium at Barium, 7:00.
Jan. 11—Statesville at Lexington, 7:30.
Jan. 14—Children's Home at Lexington, 7:00.
Jan. 18—Mooresville at Lexington, 7:00.
Jan. 21—Mills Home at Mills Home, 7:00.
Jan. 25—Statesville at Statesville, 7:30.
Jan. 28—Barium at Lexington, 7:00.

Feb. 1—Thomasville at Thomasville, 7:15.
Feb. 4—Mills Home at Lexington, 7:00.
Feb. 8—Concord at Concord, 7:30.
Feb. 11—Children's Home at Children's Home, 7:30.
Feb. 18—Mooresville at Mooresville, 7:00.
Feb. 22—Concord at Lexington, 7:30.
Feb. 25—Thomasville at Lexington, 7:15.

We take this opportunity to thank you for letting us serve—and to wish you all a Merry Christmas, a Joyous New Year!

THE BIBLE DEPARTMENT

E. & E. CREDIT CLOTHING
COMPANY

34 East First Avenue
Lexington Phone 2288

SMITH & FRITTS

CLOTHING
FOR MEN AND BOYS

THE JOHN K. HANKINS
STORE, Inc.

Shoes, Dry Goods and Ready-to-Wear

FRED THOMPSON, Inc.

"Styles for the Young Man"
Merry Christmas

RECORD HEADQUARTERS
ROBERTSON RADIO CO.

7 West First Avenue
Radio Sales and Service

Merry Christmas
And a Happy New Year
LANIER HARDWARE CO.

EFIRD'S
"The Store For Correct Merchandise for Less Money"
Wish All a
Merry Christmas

LEXINGTON DRUG COMPANY
LEXINGTON'S PRESCRIPTION DRUG STORE

Merry Christmas
from
CAROLINA SODA SHOP

SEASON'S GREETINGS
from
WESTERN AUTO
ASSOCIATE STORE

CROUSES SHOE REPAIR
"Where Shoes Are Correctly Repaired"
Wishes All
MERRY CHRISTMAS

Compliments of
NEW HOTEL LEXINGTON
PHONE 2737

PICKETT & GREEN
"The Shop For Men"
MERRY CHRISTMAS

FAMILY SHOE CENTER
LEXINGTON, N. C.
Do Your Christmas
Shopping Here

BOOTS SHOP
Ladies' Ready-to-Wear
PHONE 2610

ROYAL PURPLE
CLEANERS
"Quality With Service"
PHONE 491
Mr. and Mrs. John F. Raker

THE BEAUTIFUL NEW

Carolina

North Carolina's Finest Theatre

... to Mr. Andrews, Mr. Wike
and the entire faculty and student body we extend our heartiest thanks for your friendship and cooperation.

DAN W. AUSTELL, Mgr.