Santa Claus is coming soon,
By the light of the silvery moon.
He'll bring good cheer
To far and near,
And most of all,
We hope he'll call on you.

To Everybody in L.H.S.

Merry Christmas

MISS McCRARY'S
ROOM 211

We wish you joy,
We wish you cheer
For Christmas comes
But once a year.

MISS CASPER'S
HOMEROOM

BETSY wishes you all to be happy,
"TEENY" wishes you days cold and snappy,
"JOANIE" hopes you get many nice
things,
AMELIA suggests, to the girls, a few diamond rings,
"HINGE" hopes you get lots of
nuts, fruit and candy,
MARY will share with you, when it snows, the sled she has handy.
To get the meaning of this rhyme,
which ain't so very clever,
It means only one little thing—

"We wish you the Merriest Christmas Ever!"

Merry Christmas
to
All the good-looking girls in
L. H. S.

"MILLIE" LEONARD
"SKIN" SMITH
HOYLE POTTS

The Biology Homeroom wishes all, and Miss Matthews Especially
A Very Merry Christmas

Compliments of
T. & I.
(MR. HARDEE'S SHOP)
