

A SAPP'S FIBBLES

By A SAPP

You can get the school girl complexion at any drug store, but you can't get the giggle and the wiggle.

Though often I stroll through the meadow,
The same thing will happen, I vow.
I'll scan the blue sky, when a lark sings above,
And step where there's been a cow!

Mrs. Sink: Herbert, didn't I hear the clock strike three when you came in?
Herbert: You did. It started to chime eleven, but I stopped it to keep it from awakening you.

Mr. Leonard's definition of inflation: Inflation means that instead of not having the money you haven't got, you have twice as much, but it's only worth a third of what you haven't got.

Work hard and save your money and when you are old you can have the things only young people can enjoy.

The average girl would rather have beauty than brains because the average man can see better than he can think.

Maybe women ain't perfect, but they're the best opposite sex we got.

Mary Jane: "Certainly was a cute fellow you were out with. Where'd he hail from?"

Amelia: "A 1950 convertible."

No woman is able to hold her own in the battle of tongues.

High heels were invented by a woman who had been kissed on the forehead.

Miss Matthews: "What is the most outstanding contribution chemistry has made to the world?"

Rufus: "Blondes."

Then there was the miser who kept calling his girl and asking her when she was free.

Nookie: I only go out with girls who wear glasses.

Freak: Why?

Nookie: I breathe on them, and they can't see what I'm doing.

Tact: The ability to describe others as they see themselves.

Her dress was like a barbed wire fence—enough to protect the property but not enough to spoil the view.

The most efficient labor-saving device is still money.

The difference between a man's sweetheart and his wife is about seven dollars per meal.

Willis: "Fifty per-cent of the women spend all their time trying to make a fool of some man."

Betty Carole: "Yeah, and the other 50 per-cent spend all their time trying to make a man out of some fool."

A woman is the one thing I am afraid of that I know won't hurt me.
