

In the spring a young man's fancy
Lightly turns, and turns and turns;
First it's me, and then it's you—
Gosh—you cant' tell for whom he yearns!

Here's some of the very best news that we two eavesdroppers have heard all year—"Fern" and "Brandon" are back together and we predict for good this time!

Nona Swaim, we hear, has been dating a cute boy from Linwood by the name of Bryce Kearns. This could be serious!?

From good news to bad. Mary Jane and "Dillon" have been on the outs lately, but we all know that it won't be for long. As they say, "True love never runs smooth."

These old couples are still hitting it off, though—Johnny Wilson and Jeanette Leonard, Barbara Young and Curtis Leonard, Janet and "Millie", Kirksey Sink and Ronnie, Marie Stokes and "Q", and Carlton Everhart and Nancy Foster.

Here's a new couple who looks mighty good together—Phyllis Breedon and Joe "Drums" Hooks. You two really make a cute couple!

"Whitt's" been keeping secrets, but we heard that she's been getting a lot of letters from a boy in the Air Force. Could this be why she's been so happy lately?

Who's this we've been seeing walking down Salisbury Street almost every night? We believe that it's Buddy Link and they say he's been to see Jo Anne Williams.

A cute new couple we've been seeing a lot of around the "Y" is Lee Phillips and Martha Sink. You're both as cute as can be!

What's this about Don Yates and Nora Albright? We hear that this is getting serious!

Since Foyle Wagner went to the Baptist Hospital in Winston to have a knee operation, a lot of his friends have been keeping the road hot between here and there. Some of them are Beryl Block, Eve Hargrave, Pat Raker, Sue Everhart, "Skin" Smith, Tommy Snyder, and twin brother, Hoyle.

Hilda Frazier, why don't you make up your mind between Jerry Perkins and this Clark fellow from Winston? It must be nice to have two such cute boys to choose between.

We hear that Nancy Lou Sechrest and Bill Everhart are going steady now. It's always nice to see two such cute folks get together.

What's this we hear about Clum Koontz and Patsy Leonard going to the lake a few week ends ago? Bet they had a good time!

Dermie Lohr and Barbara Hunt were seen at the show together not long ago. More power to you, Dermie; she's a mighty cute gal.

A romance that held over from basketball season is Freak's and Jean Temple's! We think that's mighty fine, you two, so just keep it up.

Sammy McBirde has been dating some cute girl that goes to Welcome High School a lot lately! Could it be love??

Well, Cloyd's happy again since his one and only is home! We're all mighty glad to have you back, Macky.

These triangles could get a guy down, but we doubt if it bothers Alice Bruton (lucky gal). Seems that she is the top of one and has Catfish Hayes and Thornton Brooks at ends!!

Bruce Hayes has been dating Rachel Fritts' little sister, Evelyn! What could be finer?

We hear that "Gernie" Moore is really giving the girls at the theater a fit or vice-versa! What say, Jo Ann Leonard, Carolyn Myers, and Sue Conrad?

Amelia and Hill and "Teen" and "Tim" had been on the outs lately, but they're all in now!! So, as the old saying says, "All's well that ends well."

You Ought to "No"

—Henrietta Bruton

The most puzzling question of life is: When should I say NO? Well, students, Professor Negative from the University of Accentuate the Positive is here with all the answers and all the reasons, too.

Problem	Answer	Reason
1. One triple-dip banana chocolate-nut sundae?	No	You wouldn't appreciate being called an old cow.
2. A date with the fellow (or gal) of best girl friend (or boy friend)?	No	No one looks good with his eyes scratched out.
3. Wonder if the old bus will make 100mph?	No	Telephone poles look better not decorated with Fords, Chevrolets, etc.
4. To go swimming next week end?	Maybe	But that water sure is mighty co-o-ld.
5. To cheat on that next exam?	No	Half a grade is better than no grade at all!
6. To tell Mr. Wike your idea of running a school	Risky	You might spend a few days at home against your will.
7. To throw "Will" Shakespeare and MACBETH and company in the river?	No	They might catch cold and die! (Goody-goody.) (After all, you need that diploma.)
8. "To be or not to be?"	Don't know	Ask Hamlet.
9. To kiss him on the first date?	Hum-m	It all depends!
10. To get married?	No(?)	No offers.
11. "To Celia"	Ben Jonson	How did that get in here?
12. To go to Washington? to New York?	Who knows!?!	Ask any senior.
13. To stop this?	Yes	It's about time.

What Would Happen if . . . ?

Mr. Clark quit teasing?
Dunlop pulled for Carolina?
The seniors didn't have to study MACBETH?
Joe Bafford didn't argue?
"Millie" made all A's?
School let out next week?
The LEXHIPEP failed to come out?
Herbert behaved in study hall?
All French students passed a test?
Miss Jones taught German?
Mr. Bowen wrecked the student driving car?
The Juniors didn't give a Junior-Senior?
Janet and "Millie" broke up?
Our new high school was finally built?
Mrs. Gibson acquired a Southern drawl?
"Hinge" didn't talk in trig?
Eighth grade traded places with the seniors?
Henry Rogers played football?
Charles Swicegood pitched for the Yankees?
The Wagner's Ford wouldn't run?
This column didn't meet the deadline?

HER FIRST KISS

The moon was shining brightly
Upon a sweet, young miss
The night of the awakening—
The night she received her first kiss.
Her date was in a romantic mood;
The time and place were right.
Mama and daddy were not at home,
And her date turned out the light.
He moved a little closer.
She said, "Keep your distance, sir."
He laughed a little chuckle
And made a grab for her.
She tried to get away from him,
But alas, such was not her luck.
Her lipstick was Pink Lightning,
And he was surely struck.
But, surprise, she snuggled in his arms.
Of resistance, there was a lack.
And the biggest surprise of all, you know,
Was that—she kissed him back!
