 much in love, but we gather from their conversation that they are letting their careers come first. Well, we hope it will work out fine at the end.

Mary Gregory to assist her in her work at Lincoln Hospital in Durham, N.C. Miss Lillian Harris contributed three hundred dollars to the hospital. She is very interested in colored hospital work.

As we go on we see Mr. Haywood Walker, a first class brick mason, building a home for Misses Nakoma and Ethel Lewis, who are undecided as to what they should do, stay single or do otherwise. Mr. Walker is married to the former Miss Mary Williams.

Head Nurse, Dorothy Fuller has employed Mrs. Paschall, the former Miss Mary
