

GREENSBORO QUINT IS WINNER IN FIRST CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Playing team work for all they were worth, the G. H. S. basketball team won the first game of the championship series from Bessemer high school, Friday night, at Guilford College, when they took the large end of a 28 to 23 score.

During the first half, the Greensboro team outplayed their opponents in every phase of the game. Their passing and guarding was unusually effective, and when the whistle blew the score stood 16 to 2 in favor of G. H. S.

In the last half the Bessemer band came back with a playing spirit that threatened to override the work of Coach Park's boys.

The last few minutes of play were filled with excitement, and the supporters of both teams rooted lustily again, and again. Throughout the game the G. H. S. men played together as a man.

NEW CAPTAINS CHOSEN

Stynette and Sellars are honored

Due to the old captain being out of school, the girls' basketball team has chosen Yvonne Stynette, better known as "Pete," to lead them through the remainder of the season. The new captain plays the pivot position and is a player whose skill is ranked highly by her team mates. Quick as a cat, Pete never misses a moment of play. She is always in the fray and usually she comes out with the ball in her hand.

So far this girls' team has not lost a game, and if everything goes all right, it looks as though "Pete" is destined to head the State Championship team.

Due to the misfortune of Knot Williams in being unable to continue as captain of the basketball squad it was necessary to elect a new captain to lead the team for the rest of the season.

Earl Sellers was elected upon the recommendation of Coach Park. Sellars is not only a first class guard but is a real leader and is the best man possible for the place. Although the team has had hard luck in some of the games thus far it is ready to start in on the championship series and repeat last year's performance in winning the state championship.

AT IT AGAIN

The very good training derived at G. H. S. is serving N. C. C. W. students well. The former cheer leader of G. H. S.—"Skinnie" Wynn has been elected to lead the N. C. C. W. freshmen in their cheering. Also Grey Fetter has been elected vice-president of her class.

Congratulations girls! congratulations N. C. C. W.

MISS SUMMERELL'S PARTY PROVES GREAT SUCCESS.

Games Make Things Lively

Hail the Conquering Heroes Come! Or at least we all thought we were conquering heroes—and heroines when Miss Summerell's Room, her Senior Latin Class, the faculty and a few other invited guests, met at the High School cafeteria last Friday evening after the game and enjoyed ourselves immensely.

First to "break the ice," on each person's back was pinned a piece of paper with some word on it. Then each person was given a pencil and paper and was told to secure as large a list of words as possible from the others' baik, all the while keeping anyone from seeing his back. Miss Margaret Patterson and Mr. Norman Cooper, having the most words at the end of the game, were given the prizes—they were allowed to talk to the young man and young lady of their choice for five minutes.

This was followed by an exciting peanut race in which every one took part. Then came a banana race in which three blindfolded boys were seated opposite three blindfolded girls. The girls and boys tried to find each others' bananas. The winners of this ridiculous race were M. C. Comer and Nancy Little.

The next things of interest were the foot ball game and the song charades. The crowd was divided, alphabetically, into four

Mlle. PICHOT ADDRESSES LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Text books may teach us the fundamentals of French, but nothing can teach pronunciation and the beauty of this musical Romance language like hearing a real Frenchmen speak it. It was with earnest appreciation that Le Cercle Francais heard Mlle. Pichot at 3:30 February 15. She lectured so delightfully on France, and the people and customs there, that the members sat intently listening, not only to the clear information she gave them in such easy, simple French, but also to her lovely French accent. Listening to her was an opportunity and pleasure that none will forget. Her information was made more real by her passing around many post cards representing the phases of French life which she discussed.

Mlle. Pichot came to North Carolina College for Women as an exchange student from France last September. In addition to her college work, as a student, she teaches several French classes in the college.

To Mlle. Pichot, Le Cercle Francais extends a very hearty welcome to all its meetings.

—Jennie Adams, High Life Reporter.

The High School will observe the second Better Speech Week, February 19-23. This celebration will be observed differently from that in November. Each one is to note the effective well chosen words of others. We will call attention to the correct expressions and try to use the best language possible.

DRAMATIC CLUB TO STAGE "WHAT HAPPENED TO JONES"

To Have Charge of Chapel Program

Perhaps you have not heard enough about the Dramatic club this year to be enthused or excited. Of course you have heard about "Our Play." As you know last year the Dramatic Club gave a play, which was a great success.

It was quite the catch of the season, and everybody enjoyed it. This year the Dramatic club is going to give a play, which will be "quite the berries." The title of the play is "What Happened to Jones." It is a comedy in three acts. Full of merriment and fun, it will make the old as well as the young cry with laughter.

Of course to form the comedy we must have comedians. I am sure you will agree with me when you see who they are.

Mrs. Goodly: Matronly, Manner decided but not aggressive. Isn't that just like Bertha Ferree?

Cissy: Ebenezer's ward. 22 years old. A flapper, knowing but not tough. None other than Margaret Stockton.

Marjorie: Ebenezer's daughter, about 20. Romantic disposition. And Joe Thomason is so romantic.

Minerva: Also Ebenezer's daughter. (About 26, a refined bachelor girl. Yes, Mary Rosalind Bowden is beginning to look rather refined.

HI-Y CLUB CELEBRATES LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY WITH PROGRAM IN CHAPEL

Last Monday the chapel program was in charge of Mr. Chas. Phillips' Hi-Y Club which entertained the students with a very interesting program on Lincoln.

Harry Neil, president of the Club, presided. The first speaker introduced was Egbert Anderson who gave a brief talk, explaining what the Hi-y club is, and what it stands for. The second thing on the program was a sketch of Lincoln's life, given by Arthur Davant. Next was the "Perfect Tribute" read by Harvey Ljung. Following this was Lincoln's "Gettysburg Address" delivered by Mr. Neal. At this time the program was cut short by the ringing of the bell, leaving part of the program unheard.

DR. PARKER GIVES SPLENDID TALK TO G. H. S. GIRLS

In a most interesting and instructive way, Dr. Valeria Parker spoke to the girls Friday on the subject of "The Story of Life." She very beautifully traced the life of living things from the one-celled plant to the highest stage of life.

Dr. Parker is universally known and a very interesting speaker. She spoke at both the N. C. C. W. and the Greensboro College on the same subject and her talks proved to be most successful.

WINSTON-SALEM TEAM BESTS G. H. S. QUINTET

G. H. S. Faculty Wins over Winston-Salem Faculty

On Thursday night Feb. 8, Greensboro High School played Winston High School in perhaps the most exciting game seen on a Greensboro Court this season. Winston secured the big end of a 20 to 17 score at 7:30 o'clock. Immediately following this game on the same floor the Greensboro faculty won from the Winston faculty by a 13 to 9 score.

Greensboro seems to be unable to break her losing streak that has hung to her since the beginning of school but according to the improvement in the basketball team she shows promise of adding a championship to her credit.

Both teams played a good game of ball and stars were hard to find. The passing was good and the defense of Greensboro was exceptionally good.

In the faculty game stars seemed to shine forth from every angle and it might well have been called an all star game.

Norman Cooper: "I flunked because you asked me questions I didn't know."

Mr. Berton: "Norman, I would have a time picking out the ones you did know."

GATE CITY GIRLS ARE EASY VICTORS OVER THE CONCORD AGGREGATION

Concord, Feb. 16.—The Greensboro high school girls tonight literally wiped up the floor with the Concord lassies, the score of the basketball clash being 45 to 6. Throughout the contest the Greensboro team outplayed the locals, The passing of the Gate City outfit completely mystifying the Concord representatives. The Greensboro girls were also very accurate in throwing goals.

Miss Margaret Myers, with 12 field goals and two fouls to her credit was the individual star. Other Greensboro players making excellent showings included Webster, with five field goals and one foul; and Patterson, four field goals and one foul.

The line-up: Greensboro: Myers and Patterson, forwards; Butner, center; Clapp and Barton, guards. Dick and Crowell, forwards; Boone, center; Winecoff and Hethcock, guards.

J. HARVEY BURGESS HERE LAST MONDAY NIGHT

Bad Weather Keeps Crowd Away

J. Harvey Burgess played upon his audience like a musician on a harp. He carried it first into gales of laughter and then into depths of pathos. One moment his listeners were almost hysterical with mirth and the next—tears stood in their eyes. Thus did he prove himself an entertainer of the first rank.

His opening query, "Where are my wandering boys tonight?" seemed very appropriate, for, due to the inclemency of the weather, his audience though appreciative, was small.

Mr. Burgess, also known as the "Poet of Ozarks," was brought to Greensboro under the auspices of the Athletic Association. Those who did not hear this quick witted humorist missed a rare treat.

The Athletic Association had hoped to derive considerable financial aid from this entertainment, but their hopes were all dreams so they will have to resort to other methods to gain their "filthy lucre."

Poetry Club Entertained by Katherine Gregory

The Poetry Club was delightfully entertained, Monday night, February at the home of Miss Katherine Gregory. The meeting was an enthusiastic discussion of Alfred Noyes led by Louise Smith. Also the contemporary poem was chosen for publication in the next issue of High Life. The title being "The Pilgrim."

The hostess served delicious hot chocolate, cakes, and candy. Each time the club meets something new and worth while is accomplished.
