

"The Belle of Barcelona" Presented On April 7-8

A SPANISH PLAY

Nell Applewhite and Hazel Thompson Are the Leading Ladies.

BILL BYERS THE CHIEF MAN

George Anderson, As Pat Malone, Red Headed Irishman, Brings Forth Peals of Laughter.

Wednesday and Thursday nights, April 7 and 8, at 8 o'clock, at the N. C. C. W. auditorium, the G. H. S. Glee Clubs and Orchestra presented "The Belle of Barcelona," a musical comedy by Charles Ross Chaney, to a very appreciative audience.

The scenes were laid in Spain, where Margarita, a beautiful Spanish belle, lived. Her, an American, was sent to Spain as a customs official. He found Margarita and after many complications with toradors and other Spanish nobles—finally won her.

Nell Applewhite and Hazel Thompson as Margarita showed remarkable traits, both as actresses and singers. The musical numbers added much to the success of the operetta.

Bill Byers, playing the part of Hal both nights, exhibited a great deal of dramatic ability and played his part well.

Pat Malone, the red-headed Irishman, played by George Anderson, probably pleased the audience more than any other character. His wit and ridiculous sayings brought forth many peals of laughter.

Martha Matilda Ayers, the English
(Continued on page six)

TALK ON ART GIVEN IN CHAPEL APRIL 15

The Speaker Feels That Most People Fail to Give Art Its True Meaning.

An address by Dr. R. M. Crawford on art appreciation featured the chapel program Thursday, April 15, presented for the students of the new building.

In opening Dr. Crawford declared that art appreciation was something with which we are vitally concerned in our everyday lives. "Too often people are inclined to think of it in an abstract form. And thus they lose its true meaning. In the world of nature its principles are applied everywhere. In nature the color tones are harmonious, restful, characterized by pleasing contrast." Dr. Crawford then went on to discuss the application of the principles of art appreciation in costume and in the design of dwelling houses. He brought out in his discussion many facts which proved
(Continued on page six)

WINSTON-SALEM NEGATIVE WINS OUT IN FINAL DEBATE

The Winston-Salem negative team represented by Misses Mell Eford and Loretta Carrol won the final contest of the state-wide triangular debates by defeating the Wilson High School affirmative composed of Harry Finch and Miss Catherine Ware at the University of N. C., Friday, April 16.

Both teams presented convincing arguments, however, the result of the judges decision was unanimously in favor of the negative side of the query, "Resolved that North Carolina should levy a state tax on property to aid in the support of an eight-months' school term."

The visitors were awarded the Aycock Memorial Cup while each of the four speakers was presented with a gold medal.

MR. GILDERSLEEVE

MISS TILLET IS SEC. OF COUNCIL

Six Representatives from Gate City Go—Wunsch and Tillett Both Talk.

At the annual state English council which met last week end in Charlotte, N. C., Miss Laura Tillett, head of the English department in G. H. S., was made reportorial secretary of the council for the ensuing year. Miss Tillett presented a list of reference books for English teachers, commenting on them and discussing those which she had found to be the most helpful, and reviewed the latest contributions to this field.

"Giving Credit for Dramatics" was the subject of W. R. Wunsch's, faculty head of Greensboro High School Dramatics, talk. Mr. Harrison of N. C. C. W. spoke on "Precise English." A very interesting feature of the program was the presentation of a pantomime by the delegates.

W. R. Wunsch and the Misses Mary Wheeler, Laura Tillett, Laura Sumner, Elizabeth Jeffries, and Mrs. Kenneth Brim were the delegates attending from Greensboro High School.

CIVICS CLASSES SHOW NATIONAL CONVENTION

The members of the civic classes of G. H. S. presented to the student body, April 12, 13, and 14, a miniature Democratic Convention. Miss Boyington and Miss Bullard, who attended the last democratic convention in New York, coached the students. The auditorium was decorated with flags and patriotic colors. On the stage were seated the temporary chairman of the convention, the associated press reporters, Mrs. McAdoo, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Smith, and companions. Plumber Nickolson presided as temporary chairman.

The convention was called to order Monday morning by David Stern. James Witherspoon led the convention in prayer after which two stanzas of "The Star Spangled Banner" were sung. The chairman of the national committee then read the list of temporary officers. Harris Mitchell, Mayor of New York, welcomed the convention to the city. Andra Everheart, chairman of the committee of rules, made a report which was accepted by the convention. The meeting was voted to adjourn until Tuesday morning at the same hour.

Tuesday morning, after the preliminary proceedings, David Stern took
(Continued on page five)

ELECTION CALLED IN NEW DISTRICT TO RAISE FUNDS

Special Tax Is Necessary for Nine Months School Term.

IMPROVEMENTS NEEDED

At Same Election Voters Will Determine Matter of Bond Issue for Construction of New Buildings.

At a special meeting, Thursday, April 25, the Guilford County Commissioners upon petition of the County Board of Education ordered an election to be held May 25 in the Greater Greensboro School District for a tax not to exceed 30 cents, which will be used to support the extra month of school and other facilities that the residents of the district are accustomed to. At the same time the voters will decide the question of a bond issuance of $2,300,000 for the construction of a new high school building and other necessary constructions.

The Greater Greensboro School District was created April 8, by the County Board of Education upon petition of the City Board of Education. It includes all of the old school district, all of Morehead township excepting that part south of Buffalo Creek and that part known as the Guilford College Special Tax District, all of the Buffalo Tax District, and a small portion of Gilmer Township north of the old city school district. It does not include the mill schools, Bessemer School, Ham Town, and the Wharton School. The creation of the new district involved
(Continued on page six)

CIVITAN CLUB TAKES PUPILS TO RALEIGH

Honor Students of Each Session Room Go—Colonel Olds Directs.

Friday, April 16, the honor pupils of each session room in the high school visited Raleigh as guests of the Civitan Club. These people met at the high school at eight o'clock and were taken over in cars. They began at the hall of history and took in many important places in Raleigh including the Supreme Court Room, the Capitol where they met the Governor, Angus W. McLean and the treasurer, Mr. Lacy. In the penitentiary they saw the electric chair, and the men and women at work. The Blind Institute was visited also, there they saw the children swimming, reading, and playing various games. These pupils lunched at a German Cafe and were very lucky in having Col. Olds direct them to places of interest.

WM. YORK TALKS TO THE BAPTIST BOYS APRIL 5

"Anger is a passion resulting from wounded vanity," William York, well-known Greensboro attorney, told the members of the Baptist Boys' Club at the meeting Monday, April 5. He gave a forceful discussion of anger, considering its causes and effects from every viewpoint. Due to the Easter holidays an unusually small number of members were present, and the men's club and boys' club were combined for the meeting.

Practically all the meeting of Monday, April 12, was taken up with discussion of plans for a social to be given by the club on Saturday evening, April 24. Either the Police Clubhouse or the Douglas Club on the Battleground Road will be utilized for the social.

HAROLD D. MEYER SPEAKS TO P. T. A.

Nell Thurman and Principal C. W. Phillips Speak on High School Activities.

Dr. Harold D. Meyer of the Education Department of the University of North Carolina and President of the Physical Education Department of the N. C. C. W. spoke to the members of the Parent-Teacher Association, of the high school at its regular monthly meeting, Wednesday, April 1, in the high school Auditorium. He spoke on "Sex Hygiene".

This address was the last of a group of lectures that have been given on the adolescent child. Dr. Meyer centered his talk around five big points: "Why sex-education calls for special attention". Some choices of parenthood "Necessary information for parents to know", "Information about children for parental knowledge", "Important leads for proper trends". The first of these topics was stressed very much. "Some types of sex-education are inevitable," Dr. Meyer stated.

Dr. Meyer is at present writing a book called "Extra Curricular Activities". In this book he will have several pictures of the High School, a full page picture of a copy of HIGH LIFE, a picture of the High School Student government body at work, a photograph of an assembly, and the constitution of the student council.

Prior to Dr. Meyer's lecture, Nell Thurman, a member of the HIGH LIFE staff, briefly outlined the honor, scholastic and athletic, won this year by the students and some of the faculty. Several reports of committees were read and Mrs. A. B. High, the president of the P. T. A. selected a nominating committee for the officers of the coming year. Mr. C. W. Phillips, principal of the high school, gave a brief outline of the subjects for the remaining meetings.

MUSIC CONTEST TO BE HELD AT N. C. C. W. ON APRIL 29-30

Greensboro High School Orchestra, Band and Glee Clubs to Enter.

PRIZES TO BE AWARDED

Thompson, Bason, Stainback, King and Van Noppen to Represent G. H. S. in Solo Work At Contest.

The annual State Music Contest will be held on April 29-30 at N. C. C. W. under the auspices of Dr. Wade R. Brown. The orchestra, band, and glee clubs of Greensboro High School will enter. This is the first time that the band has competed in this contest.

Hazel Thompson, Soprano; Baxter Bason, baritone; Edward Stainback, unchanged voice; Mary Elizabeth King, piano; and Charlotte Van Noppen, violin, will represent G. H. S. as soloists. Margaret Stockton, soprano, and Lorraine Keller, piano, will act as alternates.

The orchestra will present "The Caliph of Bagdad", arranged by Bailliey; and
(Continued on page six)

SIXTY FAMOUS PAINTINGS ON DISPLAY IN ROOM 101

During the past week Miss Summerell, of the Latin Department, has had an exhibition of over sixty famous paintings on display in Room 101 in connection with her unit course in Art Appreciation. The course, which was only recently begun, has an enrollment of over 25 students.

Included among the paintings are copies of famous masterpieces of Rubens, Rembrandt, Van Dyke, and other old masters. In addition there are several works of American and other modern artists. A large number of students have viewed the pictures.

Student Body Goes 100% For Community Chest

$166 IS DONATED

Teachers' Donations Are Made Through Other Sources.

CITIZENS RESPOND NOBLY

Chest Has Received a Total Sum of $98,000 From Citizens of Greensboro—Drive Officially Closed.

The students of Greensboro High School went 100% in the Community Chest Campaign held on April 8. A total of $166 was given to the Chest by the pupils. This sum was not aided by the pocket books of the teachers. They made their deposits elsewhere. The students of the high school were not urged to give large amounts, the spirit of giving being the ideal that the faculty wished to teach.

The campaign in Greensboro has been a success. The citizens responding nobly, gave to the Chest the sum of $98,000. This was not quite as much as expected, but the officials are well pleased. Although the campaign is officially closed, the Chest is expecting several deposits from citizens who were out of town at the time of the campaigning.

PRESIDENT OF STUDENT GOVERNMENT TO BE CHOSEN

P. B. Whittington, President of the high school Student Council, announced officially today that the election of the President of the Council for next year will be held within the next two weeks.

MR. MILLER

MILLER RETURNS FROM CONVENTION

Member of Music Department Visits Music Supervisors' Convention At Detroit.

H. Grady Miller, of the music department of Greensboro Schools, has returned from Detroit, where he attended the
(Continued on page five)

Journal Review