MISS LENA BULLARD IS HEAD OF G. H. S. BANKING

Reorganization Increases Deposits—
High School Still Lowest In Percentage of Depositors

TEACHERS TO BACK NEW PLAN

With the appointment of Miss Lena Bullard as faculty adviser for banking, G. H. S. has started on a complete reorganization.

During the week of January 4 there were 49 depositors in the high school with a total deposit of $22.77, while during "Thrift Week" there were 102 pupils depositing.

Up until the present time, G. H. S. has made a very poor showing in the banking record of the city schools. The percentage of students depositing during the week of January 24-28 were:

Aycock, 60; Caldwell, 53; Cypress, 50! Spring, 44; Simpson, 41; McIver, 16; high school not available because of examination week.

Seventy-six per cent of the children in all the schools use this system.

Miss Bullard urges that all the teachers endeavor to interest the students in this system.

THREE SENIORS WIN NOTABLE AWARDS

Elea Harrelson, Glenn Hackney, and Elsie Palmer received the honors, best all-round, highest scholarship, and best short story, respectively, at the graduating exercises held January 28 at Odell Memorial building.

Elea Harrelson, recipient of the cup for being best all-round student, entered Greensboro High from Mebane High School. While at G. H. S. she was a member of the basketball squad and also a representative to Girls' Council.

Elsie Palmer has won distinction as a prominent member of the commercial department.

G. H. S. TO PRESENT PLAY "THE VALIANT"

Hilda Davidson, Leon Wells, Charles McLees, Herbert Jones and Joe Mann Have Parts

CAST ALMOST COMPLETE

February 25th, "The Valiant," a one-act play by Holworthy Hall and Robert Middlemass will be given by G. H. S. students. This play has a very unusual plot. Dyke, a young man about to be hanged for murder, refuses to reveal his identity, although his sister having read about him and thinking he is her brother, tries him in many ways. He is really her brother, but to save the honor of his family, he convinces her that her brother died in France, a hero. As he goes to death he keeps repeating to himself, "The valiant never tastes of death but once." Keen interest was shown in the tryouts of the play when the following cast was chosen:

Dyke—Leon Wells.
Josephine—Hilda Davidson.
Warden—Charles McLees.
Father Daly—Herbert Jones.
Attendant—Joe Mann.

There is one more character that will be chosen in the near future.

THREE NEW TEACHERS AT G. H. S. FOR SECOND TERM

Mrs. Edith Robinson and Miss Mae Bush in English Department—Miss Lula Clements Teaches Freshmen

Mrs. Edith Robinson is a new member of the English Department, coming from Aycock at the beginning of this semester. She was formerly from Richmond, Virginia.

Mrs. Lula Clements has also recently joined the faculty, teaching a group of freshmen boys in the new barn. She comes from Huntington, West Virginia, and has taught near there for several years.

Miss May Bush, of Greensboro, a former teacher at G. H. S., will return to teach English and help in the library this coming semester. After she was graduated from Hollins College, Miss Bush worked in the Central Public Library at New York. She also took a special course in English at Columbia University. Miss Bush taught two semesters in Greensboro High in 1925 and '26.

J. MURPHY WILLIAMS SPEAKS TO STUDENTS

Rev. J. Murphy Williams, pastor of the Church of the Covenant, spoke to the students of G. H. S. Wednesday, January 18, at chapel period. This was the third of the series of talks at G. H. S. during "Thrift Week."

High Life Will Be Edited by Classes

In order to co-operate with the English Department in bringing out some journalistic points, as well as helping the coming editor, whoever he may be, to select his co-workers, the HIGH LIFE staff is turning over the next four issues of the paper to be edited by the classes as follows:

Senior Issue—February 25.
Junior Issue—March 11.
Sophomore Issue—March 25.
Freshman Issue—April 8.

FREDERICK ARCHER GIVES STATISTICS ON SCHOOL LIBRARIES

Says Greensboro High School
Has Made Wonderful Record in Past Year

28,587 BOOKS IN LIBRARIES

Receives Report That Libraries of Greensboro Public Schools Have More
Books Than Others of State

The Greensboro Public school libraries have made a wonderful record according to statistics from the office of Mr. Frederick Archer, superintendent of city schools. The report shows that there are 28,587 books in the Greensboro school libraries. This includes both white and colored. The white have 24,809 and the colored have 3858.

Another report was taken of the number of books checked out of all the libraries during a typical week of school. The total was 4291. McIver school's record was the best of all schools with a total of 825—over a hundred more than any school in the system.

Report was given to Mr. Archer that Greensboro libraries had more books in them than all of the other schools in North Carolina combined.
