

G. H. S. CAGERS WIN FROM RAMSEUR IN A WELL PLAYED GAME

Game Opens With Fast Playing by Entire Greensboro Squad. Locals Take Early Lead

RAMSEUR PLAYS WELL

While No Single Player Stars, the Whole Greensboro Team Plays Superbly Throughout Game

The local Hi cagers shook off a long losing streak Tuesday night, February 15, at Caldwell Gym by defeating Ramseyur in the first game of the championship series.

Taylor and his boys fought hard for the victory. The game opened with one of the most furious starts that has ever been made by the local squad. Ramseyur was also playing stellar basketball. The half ended with the score 18 to 18.

Greensboro opened the second half with a fast passing attack that baffled the visitors. The locals took the lead in the early part of the second half and led throughout the remainder of the game. When the pistol cracked, Greensboro had the big end of the 44-31 score.

No one man could be given more credit than the other members of the team, for the team worked as one machine. Brady was high scorer for the visitors with 17 points, while Taylor, for the locals, had 16 points to his credit.

CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES FOR GIRLS ARRANGED

Basketball Coaches and Officials Attend Meeting and Make Many Plans for Future Game

Saturday, February 19, representatives from the North Carolina high schools met to arrange for the girls' basketball championship. A large number of coaches and officials attended the meeting and many plans were made.

The school teams were divided into two groups. There are thirteen teams in each group. This arrangement is a new one and the winner of each group will play to decide the championship. These first elimination contests will be played Thursday night, February night, February 24. The G. H. S. girls meet Trinity High at Caldwell at that time. If the Greensboro girls defeat Trinity, they will probably meet Winston or High Point next week-end.

THREE BALL PLAYERS SPEND DAY IN CITY

Three well known baseball players spent Saturday, February 12, in Greensboro. Thomas Zachary, the Guilford College product, who is preparing for his coming campaign with the St. Louis Browns. "Pete" Sessions, former Durham player, and Francis Shay, centerfielder for the Patriots of several seasons ago, were the other two.

Francis Shay married a Greensboro girl several years ago, and is planning to make his home here.

Said Jane Harris, after dieting for a week, "What a falling off was there!"

MANY FOULS ARE MADE

Friday night, February 18th, a scout rally was held at McIver School. Many parents were entertained at this annual meeting. Stunts were given by each troop in the city.

This was the largest rally ever held in Greensboro. Six troops were there one hundred per cent strong.

Among the stunts presented by various troops were: rope-making, knotting, the campfire seat, pyramid-building, artificial constellation-making, and drilling. Each stunt was followed by the troop yell. The audience showed its appreciation by loud applause.

MEETING OF TRACK MEN HELD TO PLAN SCHEDULES

Coach Urges Boys to Run a Little Every Day and Keep Strict Training

ARE PRACTICING AT FAIR GROUND

On Monday, February 14, a meeting of all boys interested in track was held in room 106 at 3:45. Coach Lambert urged all the boys to start training and to run around a little every day. He asked every boy to try to get another boy out for track. He outlined the schedule for the spring meets. The first meet is to be held on March 19th at Davidson.

As the boys are unable to get the stadium to practice in until March 1, they are at present training at the Central Carolina Fair Grounds.

Prospects for the year seem to be very good. There will be more candidates out when the basketball season closes.

PLAN HIGH SCHOOL CAGE TOURNAMENT

Duke University is completing plans for a Southern High School basketball tournament some time in the near future. Invitations will be issued to all state champions in the southern states. The teams will be kept at Duke University while they attend the tournament, and the only cost will be the railroad fare. The games will be played at the Durham High School and at the gymnasium at Duke.

This is something new in the South, and officials at Duke say that if it is a success, they will try to make it an annual affair. The southern colleges hold a tournament each year in Atlanta.

SPORT SPARKLES

Spring football has been progressing rapidly and with the summer weather which was enjoyed during the past two weeks as an aid, Coach Coletrane has had a group of boys for a workout every afternoon. The new material has been initiated into the game and are brushing up on the fundamentals so that they will be able to fall right in line with the old members of the squad at the first call next season.

In a recent copy of Pine Whispers, the Winston High publication, we find that Winston now boasts a wrestling team which is dated for a meet with the Carolina freshmen. It is a great step in high school work when the indoor sports are developed along with the outdoor major sports. We wish Winston a great deal of success in this new venture and maybe, someday, with a new high school and a gym, Greensboro may also have a try at this sport.

A new high school reminds us that the good news has come that High Point is scheduled for a new home in the near future and that the plans are now well on the way.

With all the celebration of King Cotton, we wonder if someone couldn't start a cotton game so we could be patriotic to the old south in our sports as well as the social whirl.

Strange how styles will change; have you noticed the decrease in the number of knickers around the academy? The school changes along with the rest of the world; this is shown in the absence of sports at the lunch periods. Any of you old-timer students remember the thrilling volley-ball games under the direction of Ponzi Dorsett and Mr. G. B.?

Another radical change has taken place along this line in the last year. In February of last year, barn-yard golf was starting into public favor and to walk across the campus meant dodging a horseshoe. Times have changed. Now you try to dodge the crowd and wonder how far it is to the street so you can get out of the mob.

This problem of traffic is getting serious and the one solution that we see is to install a subway and elevated system. Each student would be provided with tickets at the opening of the day and for a small price get a guarantee for a safe and prompt delivery to his class.

The basketball season is fast drawing to a close and all of the high schools in the state are preparing to turn to the great American game of baseball. Greensboro as yet has not seen any signs of baseball, but on a little investigation it is seen that the prospects for this year are much brighter than they have been in recent years.

GREENSBORO BOYS DEFEAT HIGH POINT

G. H. S. First Championship Game Proves Successful. Closing Score Is 29-13

TEAMS EVENLY MATCHED

G. H. S. went one step further and won the championship of Group 1 Saturday night, February 19, by defeating High Point 29-13. Having been beaten twice by High Point in pre-championship games, the local team went on the floor with determination to win and win they did by a great majority.

The teams seemed to be very evenly matched in the first quarter, but after this the Greensboro team forged ahead and there was never any doubt as to who would be victorious. G. H. S. put five men on the floor who completely out-passed, out-shot, and out-generated their opponents, who furnished a very good team.

John Sockwell proved to be the high score man for both teams. He caged fourteen points, including six field goals. There was, however, no outstanding performer on either outfit.

By margin of their victory, G. H. S., will meet the winner of another group to decide who will go to the semi-finals in the western half. The outstanding opinion is that the locals will go straight through to the semi-finals, finals, and then, the State championship.

MONOGRAM CLUB HOLDS IMPORTANT MEETING

Club Will Endeavor to Raise Standard of Girls' Athletics; Will Act as Hosts to Visiting Teams

The Girls' Monogram Club of Greensboro High School held its regular semi-monthly meeting Thursday, February 17, in A2. At this meeting Carl Lane Brown read the constitution and Mr. Phillips gave helpful suggestions for the wording of the constitution.

The Girls' Monogram Club is quite a new organization, not only for G. H. S., but also for North Carolina high schools. There was once a Monogram Club for the girls in our high school, but it was disorganized several years ago. There are eight girls here who have monograms and so belong to the club. At a recent meeting, the club elected officers as follows: President, Evelyn Rives; secretary, Marian Curtis.

The purpose of the club is likewise new. The eight girls under the leadership of Miss Nellie Dew are going to try to raise the standard of girls' athletics. They will serve as a reception committee to all the visiting teams, and they want every team that comes to Greensboro to feel at home here.

In several instances during the game the score was tied, the Gate City girls usually gaining the point to break the tie. McFadyen, Greensboro forward, was star player for her team, making a total of 13 points. Jennings was high scorer for the visitors.

GIRLS' HIKING TEAM ON LONGEST TRIP OF YEAR

Walk Eleven Miles Out Summit Avenue and Eastward Toward County Home

MORE GIRLS WANTED FOR HIKING

Friday, February 18, the girls' hiking team went on a hike out Summit Avenue. Evelyn Rives, who is captain of hiking, supervised the affair. There were more girls on this hike than there have been on any other one this season.

The girls and their captain left the school a little after 3:30, and walked straight out Summit Avenue. At the end of Summit Avenue they changed their course and went toward the County Home. Then by a roundabout route they made their way back to Greensboro and their respective homes. The team hiked eleven miles in all, and this is the longest trip on this semester's record.

The hiking team this year has been more "Quality than Quantity." Miss Reynolds, the faculty head, is anxious to see a great many more girls interested in this sport.

O. R. I. TEAM DOWNS HIGH SCHOOL CAGERS

Wednesday night, February 16, G. H. S. went down in defeat before the Oak Ridge cagers by the score of 32-19, in what was said to have been one of the best games of the season. The locals showed quite an aggressive spirit, their passing attack and floor work outclassing that of the Ridgers. The Cadets were able to make their shots good, however, and by a large margin, won the game.

The work of "Skinny" Pierce, Oak Ridge center and captain, was outstanding for the victors. He caged 12 points besides playing a very good floor game. The entire Hi team played well without an individual star.

Two former Greensboro players were seen in the Oak Ridge lineup: "Tootie" Scott and "Pug" Solomon played the same brand of ball which they used to play for old G. H. S.
