

Grammar School News

Caldwell

Mrs. L. H. Martin spoke on "Moral Training of the Child in the Home" at the Caldwell Parent-Teacher's meeting on March 10. After devotional exercises by G. T. McSwain, principal, the girls' and boys' glee club gave several selections.

Training School

The glee club of the Training School gave a program for the freshmen of the college on Thursday, March 10. Miss Millie Fristad, of the school of music, is director of the club.

McIver

The Slosson art exhibit was shown Thursday and Friday night, March 17, 18. There are 200 reproductions of the most famous pictures in the world. Thursday evening the primary grades gave the program in connection with the pictures. On Friday evening the grammar grades were in charge of the special feature.

Aycock

Margaret Johnson is the new editor of Aycock-A-Doodle-Do. Billy Edger-ton is the new assistant editor.

The annual athletic meet at Aycock School was held on Thursday, March 17, between the two teams, the Blues and Reds. The Blues won with the score of 7-6.

FRESHMEN ELECT LEILA GEORGE CRAM EDITOR

Harold Steed, Business Manager, Leonard Faulkner, Assistant Business Manager

The heads of the staff for the freshman issue of HIGH LIFE have been appointed. The freshman English teachers saw fit to have the following students act as officials for their issue, which comes out April 8:

Leila George Cram, editor-in-chief, session room 12.

Harold Steed, business manager, session room B2.

Leonard Faulkner, assistant business manager, session room 11.

Other editors and reporters will be chosen according to their accomplishments on the paper.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR WOMEN HOLDS MEET

The American Association of Women held an informal tea and business meeting in the Spencer Building at N. C. C. to discuss the plans for the meeting of the State Branch. King Cotton Hotel is to be the headquarters. Miss Jane Summerell, a former member of the G. H. S. faculty, has charge of reservations.

BANKING TUESDAY March 22

Room	No. Deposits.	Ant.
B5	7	$4.49
12	6	6.15
103	6	1.38
B1	5	2.20
15	5	1.75
B2	5	1.70
5	5	1.54
7	5	.60
207	4	1.75
B4	4	1.25
6	4	.55
B3	3	.75
203	3	.65
B8	3	.50
206	2	.55
14	2	1.10
11	2	1.00
B6	2	.55
13	1	1.00
1	1	1.00
202	1	.50
8	1	.30
3	1	.10

TEACHERS' MEETING OF GUILFORD COUNTY HELD SAT., MARCH 12

Delegates Chosen to Send to State Association Scheduled For March 25-26

PLAN COMMENCEMENT

Essentials of Teaching Outlined by Professor Malcolm G. Little, Speaker of the Day—Music Program Given

The March meeting of the Guilford County unit of the State Teacher's Association was held at the county courthouse Saturday morning, March 12.

The musical program was in charge of Rankin School, which gave the following selections: "Nature Song," Stults; "Cradle Song," Brahms; "Just a Tiny Ray of Sunshine," Polk. The chorus was directed by Mrs. J. H. Scott, who is the music teacher of that school.

At the business session the schools were chosen who were to send delegates to the state association which is to be held March 25-26. They were as follows: McLeansville, Rankin, Bessemer, Bonticella, Revolution, Jamestown, Brightwood, Colfax, Sumner, and Sedgewick.

Plans were made for the county commencement to be held at N. C. C. W. on May 7. The program consists of a declamation contest, an address, a musical program, and a luncheon for the seventh grade.

Prof. Malcolm G. Little, the speaker of the day, outlined as essentials of the profession of teaching: worthy service, human efficiency, human life.

ROBERT MERRIT MAKES GOOD COLLEGE RECORD

One of the Seventeen on the Honor Roll, Also Made W. and L. Debating Team

GRADUATED FROM G. H. S. IN 1923

Robert Merritt, who was graduated from G. H. S. in '23, has made a wonderful record at Washington and Lee this year. He was one of the 17 to make the honor roll and the only Greensboro boy. Robert was one of the four chosen to represent W. and L. in the debates against various other colleges.

REPORTER FOR HIGH LIFE TALKS TO EDGAR GUEST

"Tell the G. H. S. Students I Want to Talk to Them Next Time," Said Mr. Guest

"Give all those girls my best regards," said Edgar A. Guest at an interview with a HIGH LIFE reporter at the Odell Memorial building, Friday night, March 12. When asked how he was feeling, he exclaimed he was tired and then smiled. Mr. Guest seemed to be very elated over the lecture he was soon to deliver. He was of a gay disposition and his face lighted up with smiles when he spoke. The twinkle in his eyes was typical of his poems. In his hands he carried two volumes of his poems, making him appear the typical poet. In closing, he said, "Tell the high school pupils that the next time I am in Greensboro I hope I may come over there and talk to them."

PRESS REVIEW COPIES POEM FROM HOMESPUN

The February issue of the School Press Review reprinted a poem from the last issue of Homespun. It was written by Tallulah Mathey, of the class of '27, and was called "Which I Love Best."

Once upon a time there was a woman who didn't ask her husband for a fur coat. She was a widow.—Tattler.

NEW BOOKS IN SCHOOL LIBRARY

- Undeclared*, Gerald Johnson.
- I Am a Woman and a Jew*, Leak Morton.
- The Plutocrat*, Booth Tarkington.
- The Art of Lawn Tennis*, William Tilden.
- Benjamin Franklin*, Phillips Russell.
- Essays and Literary Studies*, Stephen Leacock.
- Ballads and Lyrics*, Margaret Wideman.
- Porto Bello Gold*, Arthur Smith.
- The Way of the Service*, Fred Palmer.
- Collected Poems*, E. A. Robinson.
- New Hampshire*, Robert Frost.
- Poems by a Little Girl*, Hilda Conkling.

FACULTY MEMBERS WRITE FOR JOURNAL

Four N. C. C. Teachers Contribute to North Carolina Teacher

APPEAR IN MARCH ISSUE

Four members of the faculty of N. C. C. and one senior have contributed to the March issue of the North Carolina Teacher.

John T. Miller, of the department of education, has written for the publication, "A Brief Educational Resume and Current Tendencies." Miss Juanita McDougald, of the summer school faculty, has an article on the subject, "Standardized Citizenship."

Dr. A. P. Kephart, principal of the training school, discussed "Selecting a Teacher" and P. L. Harriman, supervisor of English in the high school, writes on "How Shall I Mark My Compositions" and "Behaviorism; a New Point of View," in two separate articles. Miss Ola Fleming, of China Grove, a senior of the college, comments on the differences between old and new methods of thinking under the title, "Then and Now."

Dr. Fred Morrison, of the faculty in the school of education, gets editorial comment in the teachers' organ for the revealing of new and interesting information on the financial side of the commission's report.

MR. ARCHER PLANS FOR SPRING JOURNALISM

Wants to Make Newspaper Work More Interesting—Hopes to Get Prominent Speakers For Staff Meetings

The spring plans for the journalistic course at G. H. S. are many. Frederick Archer, superintendent of schools, is planning to make the project of newspaper work more interesting and add zest to it by having Mr. Lenoir Chambers of the Daily News to speak to the newspaper staff. Also possibly Mr. Louis Graves of the Chapel Hill Weekly will speak.

Mr. Archer is planning to place several back copies of the Chapel Hill Weekly in the publication room. These copies will be used for reference work.

MISS ALMA BINZELL INTERVIEWED MAR. 15

"Consent gladly, refuse finally, punish good-naturedly, scold never, and praise often," quoted Miss Alma Binzell to a HIGH LIFE reporter in an interview, Tuesday, March 15. Miss Binzell is a nationally known lecturer dealing with psychological relations between parents and children.

She showed much interest in the school publications and asked for a copy of HIGH LIFE to be sent to her.

Mrs. Hiram Bell talked on Stone Mountain Memorial Wednesday, March 16, at chapel period. She told how children under 18 could get their names on the mountain.

AUSTRALIAN BALLOT SUBJECT OF DEBATE ON FRIDAY, MARCH 18

McSwain and Stainback, Affirmative; Avery and Weiland, Negative

AN AFFIRMATIVE VICTORY

At Next Meeting the Question of Abolishing Present Criminal Court System Will Be Discussed

A debate on the query, "Resolved, That North Carolina should adopt the Australian Ballot" was the main feature of the meeting of Friday, 18th. In the absence of President McNairy and Vice-President Moore, the secretary called the meeting to order and asked Henry Biggs to preside.

George McSwain, who was recently elected toastmaster of the Triangular Debate Banquet, to be held April 1st, briefly discussed something of the plans for the occasion.

The debate was then called. George McSwain and Edward Stainback upheld the affirmative while Settle Avery and Henry Weiland argued the negative. The chief point in favor of the Australian ballot was the fact that the possibility of bribery would be practically eliminated. The judges rendered a decision of three to nothing in favor of the affirmative.

It was announced that the program for the next meeting would consist of a bill for discussion, "Resolved, That the present criminal court system should be abolished and a court modelled on the juvenile system be substituted."

CONFERENCE OF COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS HELD

Legislation About Schools Enacted by General Assembly During Recent Session

SESSION HELD IN SENATE HALL

A conference of North Carolina superintendents of county school systems was called for Thursday, March 24, by Mr. A. T. Allen, state superintendent of public instruction. The sessions were held in the senate hall of the capitol building. The principal business was the legislation enacted during the recent session of the general assembly that affects the schools and the changes made in the methods of operating country school systems.

"GOOSE HANGS HIGH" PRESENTED AT ODELL BY SCHOOL ACTORS

(Continued from Page One)

ents are sacrificing that they may continue in college amply disprove the belief that the younger generation is thoughtless and selfish.

The dilemma in which Ingals found himself brought sobs to several of the audience, while the remarks of Ruth Abbott, in the role of his mother-in-law, called forth repeated bursts of laughter.

Following is the cast in the order of their appearance:

- Bernard Ingals—Herbert Jones.
- Mrs. Ingals—Jane Harris.
- Noel Derby—Ernest Scarborough.
- Leo Day—Charles McLees.
- Rhoda—Nannie Bell Clendenin.
- Julia Murdoch—Elizabeth Boyst.
- Mrs. Bradley—Ruth Abbott.
- Hugh Ingals—Charles McIver.
- Ronald Murdoch—John Brown.
- Lois Ingals—Nell Applewhite.
- Bradley Ingals—Macon Crocker.
- Dagmar Carroll—Miriam Block.
- Elliott Kimberly—Paul Wimbish.

"Whatever you may be sure of, be sure of this: that you are dreadfully like other people."—James Russell Lowell.

WITH OUR NEIGHBORS

A CHEWING GUM ROMANCE

When first he met her she was fair,
And chewing,
chewing,
gum.

A rosebud nestled in her hair;
He breathed his love unto her there;
But she—she smiled a smile so fare—
While chewing,
chewing,
gum.

She listened while he waged his suit,
Still chewing,
chewing,
gum.

He vowed her charms had made him mute,
And tuned his passion on a lute;
And she declared that it was "cute"—
Still chewing,
chewing,
gum.

At last she blushed and murmured
"yes,"
Still chewing,
chewing,
gum.

He wrapped her in a fond career,
And she remarked: "Tis time I guess
I saw about my wedding dress"—
Still chewing,
chewing,
gum.

She strode in state adown the aisle
Still chewing,
chewing,
gum.

He met here with a happy smile,
And they were wedded there, the while
She wept in pretty bridal style—
Still chewing,
chewing,
gum.

Today I saw her down the way,
Still chewing,
chewing,
gum.

Three children, joyous, blithe and gay,
Were shouting in their happy play
And they were hers, I know, for they Were chewing,
chewing,
gum.

—Selected.

SOMETHING MORE

He sat in stony silence,
As she calmly looked him o'er,
And marked, for his translation,
"D" and nothing more.

The sweat broke out upon his brow,
As oft it had before,
When graded on his math he found
A "D" and nothing more.

His head whirled fast and dizzily,
When told with fearful roar,
"Your average in English is
A 'D' and nothing more."

At last entered history,
His spirit wrecked and sore,
He faltered there and so received
A "D" and nothing more.

His father, though, was different, quite,
Beside the woodshed door.
"My son, you have received a 'D,'
And I'll add something more."
—The Trapeze, Roosevelt High School, Seattle, Washington.

A GEOMETRY PROBLEM

Proposition: If you love the girl, then she loves you.

- Proof:
1. You love the girl and therefore you are a lover.
 2. All the world loves a lover.
 3. Then all the world loves you.
 4. The girl is all the world to you.
 5. Therefore, the girl loves you.
- The Orange and Black*, Hanover, Pa.

"I guess I've lost another pupil," said the professor, as his glass eye rolled down the kitchen sink.—The Technician, Raleigh, N. C.