

BILL BYERS IS ELECTED PRESIDENT

HARRY GUMP GETS NEXT HIGHEST VOTE IN FINAL ELECTION

Byers Polls Majority of 97 Votes—Biggs Is Eliminated

SECRET, SIGNED BALLOT

Election Is Carried on in Session Rooms Under Supervision of Representatives From Various Classes

Thursday, May 12, Bill Byers was elected president of the student body of G. H. S. for the year of 1927-1928. The results of the last of the two votes were: Byers, 466, and Gump, 369, Byers leading by a 97 majority. Biggs was eliminated in the first election.

The first primary resulted so that neither of the three candidates had a majority, and it was necessary for another election to be held, since Byers had 404 votes in his favor, Gump had 284, and Biggs followed close behind.

The balloting was done by secret and signed ballot. Representatives from various classes had charge of the election which was carried on in the session rooms. The votes were counted and the results determined in Mr. Phillips' office.

Bill Byers is a member of semester VI, and is secretary of his class. He has been an active participant in all high school activities since his entrance from Caldwell.

"We are confident that Bill will make a splendid president since he equals all the standards set for the holder of this position," said Mr. Phillips when the announcement was made.

TORCHLIGHTERS HOLD MEETING ON MAY 11

Cynthia Vaughn, Miss Reynolds, Miss Bridges, Miss Sumner and Mr. Blair Give Short Talks

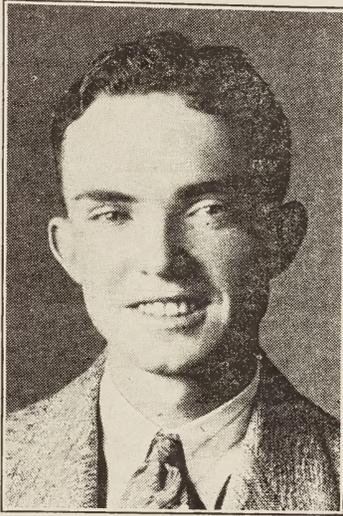

SUBJECTS TREAT OF COLLEGE

The program of the Torchlight Society at the meeting held in the committee room, May 11, at chapel period, was on the subject of "College." Cynthia Vaughn used as her subject, "Why I Want to Go to College," in which she stated five outstanding facts concerning what she could get from college life.

Miss Ruth Reynolds talked on "Why Go to a Co-educational and Not a Non-Co-educational College."

Miss Bridges' subject was "Advantage of Attending State Institutions," in which she brought out the problem of expense reduced, state friendship formed and better knowledge of our state. Mr. William Blair discussed "The Advantages of Attending a Small College." He used as an illustration the poem on Mark Hopkins. He also stated the advantages of close friendship a small college offers; more opportunities offered to few students; more freedom of thought; more direct friendships and contact with faculty; moral as well as intellectual life attended to. Miss Sumner talked on the advantages of attending a large college. She stated that the faculty and students are more tolerant; that there is more freedom of thought; more competition for leadership; more exhibition of artists; variety of courses; more scholarly men; large library; easier to get credit elsewhere.

IS WINNER

BILL BYERS

RECEPTION TONIGHT GIVEN BY JUNIORS

Juniors Entertain Seniors at Annual Reception Tonight at Greensboro Country Club

FINLEY ATKISSON WILL BE KING

Tonight at the Greensboro Country Club the Junior Class will give the graduating class a reception lasting from eight to eleven. Finley Atkisson, president of the senior class, is king of the affair, with Betty Brown acting as queen. The president of the junior class, Dick Douglas, will be prime minister and Irene McFadyen, first lady-in-waiting. Edmund Turner is to be court jester and Ruby Lee Anderson, Dorothy Spencer, Sarah Ferguson, Kathryn Vanstory, Alethea Sykes, and Bessie Carson, ladies-in-waiting.

The receiving line is composed of the two class presidents, the queen, the first lady-in-waiting, Miss Mary Wheeler, Miss Ione Grogan, Miss Lily Walker, Miss Fannie S. Mitchell, Miss Laura Tillett, Mrs. Mary S. Ashford, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Phillips, Mr. Frederick Archer, Sarah Ferguson, Bill Byers, Clarence Cone and Victor Jones. After all the guests have been welcomed at the door the king and queen will break the receiving line and lead off the first prom. There will be twenty proms, each about seven minutes in duration, during the evening. Houston Barbee, Grady Miller, Nell Applewhite, and Josephine Liles will give vocal solos. Catherine Duffy will dance and Earl Slocum will give a flute solo. The boys' quartette will render two numbers and Walter Peterson will play a saw solo.

LIGHT OPERA STAGED AT THE COUNTRY CLUB

"Pirates of Penzance," a light opera by Gilbert and Sullivan, will be presented May 20 at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m. by the High School glee clubs and orchestra under the direction of Grady Miller. The first presentation will be at the Greensboro Country Club Thursday night, May 12, and will be in concert form. On May 20 it will be presented in full costume and with elaborate stage settings at the National Theater at matinee and evening.

The composers of this opera, Gilbert and Sullivan, also are the composers of "Pinafore" and the "Mikado." This production has been presented with great success at a number of places.

LUCY CROCKER WILL HEAD GIRLS' COUNCIL

Sadie Sharpe, Margaret Bain, Ruth Lewis Nominated From the Floor

GIRLS VOTE THURS., MAY 11

Lucy Crocker was elected president of the Girls' Council, May 11, by the girls of the student body of Greensboro High School.

The girls assembled in chapel May 10, at chapel period, to nominate a candidate for the presidency of the Girls' Council for the coming year. Jane Harris, president of the council, opened the meeting with a prayer. Miss F. S. Mitchell, dean of girls, then took charge of the nominations. Sadie Sharpe, Margaret Bain, and Ruth Lewis were nominated from the floor.

Sadie Sharp, winning the nomination by a majority, competed with Lucy Crocker in the election May 11. Lucy Crocker was nominated by a petition of twenty-five girls.

PAGEANT IS STAGED BY MANY SCHOOL CHILDREN

Miss Ethel Rockwell Writes and Directs the Pageant Which Is Given at the Stadium

OF HISTORY OF NORTH CAROLINA

Thursday, May 10, Greensboro took another step in the advancement of civic and state pride. The pageant, "Children of Old Carolina," was presented in the finest style. Every child realized his own responsibility and carried out the work that was assigned to him.

Miss Ethel T. Rockwell, of the University of North Carolina, author of the pageant, and general director, has gained much praise from the people of Greensboro.

To the grammar school children great credit is due. They enacted the history of their own state in a way they will never forget.

Fifteen hundred school children took part in this pageant, from all the schools in the Greater Greensboro district. Each group in these different schools had the assistance of Miss Rockwell to help them carry out their parts. The groups were divided up in the different scenes, one school the early settlers, Indians, etc.; then another a little later period, and so on until every phase of history of our state was covered by these young actors.

The groups of instructors who directed this pageant were as follows:

Executive committee, E. H. McBane, chairman.

Organization and production, Mr. H. W. Park.

Music committee, Mr. Earl A. Slocum.

Stage committee, Mr. R. T. Kinsey.

Property committee, Mr. M. L. Shepherd.

Costume committee, Miss Ione Grogan.

Make-up committee, Miss Marian Bliss.

Arrangements committee, Mr. C. W. Phillips.

Publicity and advertising, Mr. W. W. Blair.

Aesthetic committee, Miss Lena Boyle.

School Calendar

Senior Take-off, Monday, May 16.
Senior tea, May 17.
Senior exams, May 18.
Senior funeral, May 19.
Regular exams, May 23.
Baccalaureate sermon, May 29.
Class day, afternoon of June 2.
Senior debate, night June 2.
Commencement, night June 3.

MORRIS PLAN BANK OFFERS AD. PRIZES

Ad-Writing Contest Open to All High School Students in Greensboro

CONTEST CLOSES MAY 25

THE MORRIS PLAN INDUSTRIAL BANK

Dear Mr. Phillips:

As per our conversation of today, we will put on an ad-writing contest open to all high school students in the city of Greensboro.

The subject to be used is "What is the Morris Plan?"

There will be eight prizes, as follows:

1. A $25.00 deposit in the Morris Plan Industrial Bank.
2. A $10.00 deposit in the Morris Plan Industrial Bank.
3. A 5.00 deposit in the Morris Plan Industrial Bank.
4. Five prizes of $1.00 each deposited in the Morris Plan Industrial Bank, pass-books to be issued to the students who submit the best ad. on the subject mentioned above.

Rules and regulations of the contest are as follows:

1. Contest opens immediately upon announcement to the high school students.
2. Contest closes May 25, 1927, at 4 p. m.
3. All ads. submitted must be deposited in lock box placed in lobby of the Morris Plan Industrial Bank, 325 South Elm street, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m. up to the close of the contest.
4. The ad. must not contain more than one hundred words.
5. The judges will be: head of the English Department in Greensboro High School; principal of the Greensboro High School; and a representative from the Advertising Department of the Daily News.
6. The awards will be announced by principal of High School on May 30th and immediately thereafter pass-books, showing credits for the various prizes, will be issued to the winners upon calling at the bank.

We will be glad to have the High School students call here and ask the officers or clerks any questions they desire to help them prepare their ads intelligently. Inquiries in person will be welcomed and gladly answered for the benefit of those desiring to write ads in this contest.

Yours very truly,
THE MORRIS PLAN INDUSTRIAL BANK,
By E. C. McLean, Cashier.

Scoring 11 runs in the fifth inning, the McIver girls' baseball team defeated Pomona Thursday, April 28, at Pomona with a score of 18 to 13.

BOYS OF G. H. S. STAGE 'THE SOPHOMORE' TO SECURE CLUB FUNDS

"Every Lady a Perfect Gentleman" Carried Out by Scarborough, Routh and Blair

PLAY TO LARGE HOUSE

Willard Watson Is Romantic Lover of Ernest Scarborough—Mr. Blair and Coach Routh Are Pleased

The Monogram Club's play, "The Sophomore," given Tuesday night, May 10, in the auditorium, if applause and appreciation may be counted, was a decided success.

Playing to an overflowing house, the various idols of the field in every sport gave a creditable performance of the college play which has a long Broadway record.

Willard Watson proved a most romantic lover, practicing his wiles on Ernest Scarborough, daughter of the professor of physics who would not allow our hero to play football until he had passed his physics examination.

The outcome of it is that the absent-minded professor loses himself on the day of the big Thanksgiving game and is found when there are only a few minutes to play. Willard had passed, so he went out and, in true fiction style, won the game.

Of course, Ernest accepted Willard.

Coaches Routh and Johnson played well the parts of aunt and professor, while Mr. Blair teamed up as another old maid with Mr. Routh, and they kept the house filled with laughter with their ideas of college life and college people.

Credit must also go to Pete Wyrick, who gave a good impression of a college cheer-leader.

There were about five hundred in attendance, many people standing around the walls and in the aisles.

The cast of characters follows:
Simms, Bannister, sophomores, Ray Henderson, Pete Wyrick.

Brown, manager of the team, Wyatt Taylor.

Kennedy, captain of the team, Theron Brown.

Professor Alden, professor of physics, Mr. Johnson.

Griggs, a "Greasy Grind," Bill Fife.

Robert Stewart, the star full-back, Willard Watson.

Hope Alden, daughter of Professor Alden, Ernest Scarborough.

Livingston, coach of the team, Robert Caviness.

Aunt Mary Scott, Cousin Matilda Dwiggin, relatives of Professor Alden, Mr. Blair, Mr. Routh.

Violet, servant in Professor Alden's home, Paul Wimbish.

Other sophomores, Clarence Phoenix, Saunders Ogburn, Horace Pennington, Bill Petree.

Business manager, Finley Atkisson.

Director, Marian Bliss.

Clara Styer, 13-year-old freshman of the Richard J. Reynolds high school, Winston-Salem, N. C., broke the American collegiate record for standing broad jump when she jumped eight feet, five inches, bettering the record held by the New Jersey Normal school by 1-4 inches.