

LIBRARY NOTES

The Saturday Review of Literature is a weekly publication containing a comprehensive review of all that is best in modern literature by the most distinguished and able critics of today. Besides book reviews, it has various essays and poems of high merit. Christopher Morley conducts an interesting column called "The Bowling Green."

The Forum, the magazine of controversy, contains some very interesting articles in the October issue. Disraeli, a biography, begins in this number. There is also a debate on "Should the negro be encouraged to cultural equality?" and several political articles.

The best magazines on foreign and national affairs and other important world events, are The Literary Digest, The Independent, and Time.

The Sunday New York Times contains interesting sections of book review, current events, new plays, a rotogravure, and magazine section.

We, Col. Charles Lindbergh's own book, tells about his epoch-making flight and why he was not alone, for courage was in the cockpit, skill was by his side, while below was his giant plane.

The Chinese Parrot, by Biggers, is an unusual story of the Arizona desert, with the mountains and stars. It is brimful of mystery and romance.

In Glorious Apollo, E. Barrington compares the god of the Greeks to Lord Byron, the poet. This is a story of the great poet's life told in novel form.

Read the Life of Robert E. Lee and you will know what loyalty to state and country meant to Lee.

Scouting With Kit Carson, by Tomlinson, is a story of the great West, the gaunt, gray Rockies, and the Indians of the plains.

Chats on Feature Writing gives pointers to newspaper men, besides submitting a delightful series of feature articles. This book gives one a chance to read something entertaining, and also to learn the fine points of journalism.

Miss Mary Broome, the new librarian, has found that it is necessary for her to have assistants to help her in the library. The following girls have volunteered: Margaret Neal, Doris Hogan, Evelyn Hire, Page Howard, and Dorothy Echartd.

KATE WILKINS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF SEM. TWO

Kate Wilkins was elected president of Semester 2 at a meeting held Monday, October 3, at chapel period. Guy Hope was chosen as vice-president, Julius Goodwin, secretary, and Emery Carver, treasurer. Miss Margaret Bridgers, faculty adviser of Semester 2, presided over the meeting and was well pleased with the results.

Semester Five Meeting

A call meeting of semester five was held in room 206 Wednesday, September 21. Officers were elected to serve for the rest of the semester.

Bill Byers made a short talk on the importance of a good student council representative. The following officers were elected: Louis Brooks, president; Charles Rives, vice-president; Dixon Thacker, secretary; Kate Harrison, treasurer; Bill Petree, student council representative.

P.T.A. COUNCIL HOLDS IMPORTANT MEETING AT Y. W. C. A.—OCT. 27

Representatives From All City Schools Were in Attendance

SIX HUNDRED MEMBERS

Members of the Association Will Sell Tickets For Playlikers Program

The P. T. A. Council, which consists of all the officers of the Parent-Teacher Associations of the city, held an important meeting at the Y. W. C. A. Tuesday, October 27, at 3:45 p. m.

Representatives from all the schools were present. The high school had a 100 per cent representation at the meeting, for which a book was awarded as prize.

The reports of the membership committee revealed that over 600 members had enrolled in P. T. A. in the city already, and many of the drives have not yet been started.

The ways and means committee presented a project offered them by Dr. W. A. Taylor, of N. C. C. W., director of the Playlikers. Under this plan the several P. T. A. associations would take a number of season tickets for the Playlikers' program and sell them, each association receiving 50 cents for every ticket sold. The tickets will sell for $2.50. Any association selling more than 500 tickets will receive a prize. The high school association took 100 tickets for the time from now till October 26.

SEMESTER 8 CHOOSES TWO CLASS MASCOTS

Glenn W. Johnson and Anita Fife Are to Be Mascots of January Class

LARGE NUMBER OF CANDIDATES

Glenn Wilson Johnson and Anita Fife will be the mascots of the January graduating class of 1928. Semester 8 elected these two from a large group of candidates at their class meeting on Wednesday, September 28.

Glenn is the brother of Legrande. He visited Miss Tillet's English class on Monday, September 26. Legrande was especially well behaved that day and knew his lesson exceedingly well. Anita is the sister of Bill Fife. Maybe this will pep Bill up a little, having his sister as mascot of his class.

THE CIRCUS IS COMING

The circus is coming! What a thrill do those words bring to the heart of the small boy and girl! 'Member the last time this wondrous event occurred, and you sneaked in under the flap of the tent, only to be caught before you could catch a glimpse of anything? The coming of a circus is certainly a joyous time for all, but it is especially dear to the younger folks.

Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey will be in Greensboro in full glory on October 27. The show consists of 1,600 people, 900 horses, and a mammoth menagerie. The tickets will be 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for children under twelve years of age.

A man can hide all things, excepting twain—

That he is drunk, and that he is in love.

—Antiphones—Fragmenta.

In general those who nothing have to say

Contrive to spend the longest time in saying it.

—Lowell.

MACON CROCKER IS HEAD OF DRAMATICS

Dorothy Donnell Is Vice-President, Elvie Hope, Sec.-Treas., Emma Griffin, Reporter

ADVISERS EXPLAIN PLANS

The Dramatic club met in the basement of the new building, Thursday, September 29, to elect officers of the semester. Miss Virginia Hollingsworth, head of dramatics, appointed Macon Crocker as chairman of the meeting. The following officers were elected: Macon Crocker, president; Dorothy Donnell, vice-president; Elvie Hope, secretary and treasurer; and Emma Griffin, press reporter.

Miss Hollingsworth explained the program and the dues of the members for the semester. Miss Mary Wheeler suggested having a dramatic pin, for those who do an unusual amount of work. This has been worked on by some of the advisers, but the details have not been completed. J. H. Johnson will work out a design upon the suggestion of an idea.

A committee was appointed to draw up a constitution. Members of this committee are: Ruby Lee Anderson, chairman; Sarah Ferguson, Ed Stainback, Juanita Dillon, and Miss Wheeler as faculty adviser.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING SCHOOL TO BE STARTED

Courses in Plumbing, Architectural Drawing, Carpentry, Steam Fitting, and Dietetics for Nurses

A night school for training in vocations will be opened at McIver School, Tuesday, October 4th. Classes will be organized in plumbing, architectural drawing, carpentry, steam fitting, and dietetics for nurses. Robert M. Scott is director of the school.

Walter D. MacLeith, of the office of Harry Barton, architect, will have charge of the course in architecture. Mr. MacLeith was formerly professor of architecture at Marquette University. W. N. Jennings, city plumbing inspector, and W. P. Donaldson, of the city plumbing examining board, will have charge of a course in plumbing and lead wiping.

Classes are open to anyone over 18 years of age, with the exception of a special class in plumbing which includes a plumber from each of the local concerns. All classes with the exception of the one in dietetics will meet every Tuesday and Thursday night. Ten students are required for each class.

WOOLEN FLOWERS

These red and blue things drive me wild,
The girls all wear them with a smile,
Little ones, big ones, all a different size—

Woolen flowers.

First one appeared, then three and four,
And on up the line until there were more;

The colors make my head go 'round—
Woolen flowers.

FRENCH STUDENTS ORGANIZE NEW CLUB MONDAY, OCTOBER 3

Purpose of Club to Make Students More Familiar With French Conversation

TEACHERS ARE ADVISERS

Irene McFadyen President—Other Officers Are Mildred Knight, Elizabeth Wilson, M. Bain, and K. Murray

The new French Club met Monday morning, October 3, in room 4, to elect officers. Irene McFadyen was elected president; Mildred Knight, vice-president; Elizabeth Wilson, secretary; Margaret Bain, treasurer; and Katherine Murray, press reporter.

Margaret Golden, acting as chairman, presided over the meeting. The new president, Irene, made a talk on the purposes of the club. She said the object of the club was to make the French students more familiar with French conversation, and to keep them closer together.

The club will meet twice every month at the same period (third). The dues will be ten cents per month.

After the business discussion a social hour was held. French games were played and candy was served as refreshments.

Those belonging to the club are Irene McFadyen, Mildred Knight, Elizabeth Wilson, Margaret Bain, Katherine Murray, Virginia Shelton, Frances DeVault, Ruth Lewis, Martha Sykes, Helen Shuford, Margaret Golden, and Ed Kuykendall. The faculty advisers are: Miss Joe Causy, Miss Sarah Hodges, and Miss Estelle Mitchell.

BIG SISTERS ENTERTAIN THEIR LITTLE SISTERS

WADE WILEY, JR., HONOR GUEST

The Big Sisters of the junior class entertained their Little Sisters at a wienie roast Thursday, September 28. At 3:30 all the juniors were hunting their little sisters and at four o'clock all were on their way to the Lipscomb farm.

When all had gathered, several games were played so that they could get acquainted. After this they all hunted wienie sticks. Mr. J. H. Johnson had built the fire and all returned to begin the roast. On a long table were spread wienies, rolls, fruit and marshmallows.

After the roast Mr. Johnson, a member of the English department of G. H. S., led the group in several songs.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Phillips and Wade Wiley, Jr., Mrs. C. T. Lipscomb and Mr. A. C. Goodwin were also guests. The new members of the faculty and new students at the high school were also honor guests.

The big sisters organization is sponsored by the Girls' Council of this school. Katherine Lambe is the chairman of this organization. Other plans for entertainments this semester are being planned.

Plan to Adopt New Song

The Cheerio Club had a meeting in the basement of the new building Thursday, October 6. Plans were made for the Winston game. Clarence Phoenix presided, assisted by Rachel Lipscomb. The Cheerio Club plans to buy megaphones attached to a Greensboro pin.

J. H. Johnson sang The Spirit of Greensboro High School, a new song which he has composed. If the song is adopted it will be learned in time to use in the High Point game.
