

MISS I. G. COLEMAN SPEAKS AT CHAPEL WEDNESDAY, JAN. 18

Girls of Greensboro High School Hear Address on "Hidden Talents" STORY OF PRINCESS TOLD

Princess Had Seven Ladies-in-Waiting; Health, Imagination, Courage, Meditation, Faith—Christ Is Prince

Miss Inabelle Coleman, former HIGH LIFE adviser, spoke to the girls at chapel January 18 concerning their hidden talents. "I do not think God would give a person a soul and no talent. Every girl has a talent, but she often fails to develop it," declared the speaker.

She told the story of a prince and a princess. The princess' kingdom is Life—her palace the heart.

Seven being a lucky number, Princess Talent has seven little ladies-in-waiting. First among these is Unselfishness. "Self-forgetfulness causes Princess Talent to thrive." Then comes the Good Fairy of Good Health. No one can find talent and successfully use it without physical aid. Purity is next. She wears a dress of true blue. "Imagination is Purity's constant companion. Then comes Courage, the real symbol of the princess.

Meditation is one of the most essential ladies. She is beautiful and sweet, and thinks of her God and her God-given purpose. Faith is clad in rose and gold. Miss Coleman said, "Through Faith and Trust we find our talent." The Prince of the kingdom of our hearts must be Christ. When Christ enters, Princess Talent has been found.

THEY'RE OVER!

"Gosh, that was the hardest exam. I know I flunked it."

"What exams have you had?"

"Math, English, history and science. They were all hard and I flunked them all—oh dear, and I worked so hard."

"History exam was easy, math was hard—Latin was terrible—well, anyway, I am through with these terrible exams."

"Gee, I have one more, journalism under Mrs. Coltrane. I know it's hard."

"Well, I must go home and study for that horrible old exam tomorrow. I'll be glad when I am through!"

"Well, good-bye, hope you pass."

These were some of the thoughts expressed during examination week. We hope they all did better than these pupils did. We regret that a good many flunk, though—we hope they will do better next time.

MR. MARCUS HAM IS TO BE TEACHER HERE

Mr. Marcus Ham has been teaching at Greensboro High School as a substitute for Mrs. H. B. Christie. Mr. Ham comes from Pomona High School, where he taught science. He is to be a member of the science department this semester.

BOOK REVIEWS

Mitchell, Hugh Wynne

During the period of the Revolutionary war, Hugh Wynne, a Quaker lad, grows to manhood. Jack Warder, Hugh's best friend, and Hugh are raised by severe Quaker parents. Hugh has many "scraps," not only in his early youth but also in his manhood. Read the escapes, duels, and escapades in Hugh Wynne.

Christopher Morley, The Haunted Bookshop

A suitcase is left at the bookshop. Roger Mifflin, the proprietor, is away! Titania, a young society girl who works at the shop, and Helen, Roger's wife, are in the shop at the time. Read of these thrilling adventures in The Haunted Bookshop.

Willa Cather, O Pioneer!

The wild land—neighboring fields—winter memories—the white mulberry tree and Alexandra—a true pioneer story. A little Swede boy and his sister Alexandra are most interesting characters. Read O Pioneers!

Wells, Tono-Bungary

Tono-Bungary is perhaps the most popular book written by H. G. Wells. The hero, son of a lower middle class family in England, reaches fortune through a patent medicine business. His career begins an argument toward the existin gsystem of society. There is not a dull page in the whole book.

ED TURNER RETURNS HERE FROM FLORIDA

Of much interest to the students, especially to those in contact with the publications, is the return of Edmund Turner to school. Ed has come back from a sojourn to Florida, where he worked during the winter months. His absence was felt keenly in the art work of both the newspaper and magazine.

For three years now Ed has given the best work to the school in the realm of art work of any student ever to attend the school. It has been felt by many that the work of Ed displays real genius; they look forward to a great future for him.

AN ENDOWMENT

"Just look!"

"Hey, John! Do it again."

"What kind this time?"

Tight rope walking or trapeze performing did not bring forth these remarks. Though no athletic equipment on the immediate school grounds, Greensboro High overnight had been endowed with a well-equipped skating rink. Don't wonder why! It was all an act of Providence. A glassy campus, as slick as possible, was the treat awaiting the students on Tuesday, January 31. This was not a trap for the freshmen, for all shared alike, in sliding, falls, and book slinging.

CONTESTS WILL BE ENTERED BY G. H. S.

Declamation Contests to Be Held at Wake Forest, Duke, and Guilford College

GOLD-MEDAL TO BE GIVEN

Several declamation contests for high school boys are to be held in the near future. One is to be at Duke University, another at Wake Forest and a third at Guilford College.

A twenty dollar gold medal is to be the award for the declamation at the Duke University auditorium. This contest will be sponsored on the night of February 10 at 8 o'clock. Any standard high school may send a representative to the preliminary contest, which will be on February 10 at 9 a. m. Only ten minutes will be allowed the contestant at the final declamation.

Boys will be sent to Wake Forest April 15-16, and to Guilford College sometime in May.

The Greensboro High School preliminary exercise will be held Friday, February 3, in the auditorium. Mr. C. W. Phillips, Mr. M. T. Lambeth, Miss Laura Tillet and Miss Ione Grogan will be the judges.

G. H. S. REGISTERING

"How's your schedule?"

"Hmm—this registering is terrible."

"I've changed completely twice."

"Only twice—chile, you're lucky."

"Twice already—it took me only 15 minutes. You must like it."

"Not last again—please take just one more!"

"Sorry, several have already been refused."

"But this is the only time—"

"You want it six period—let me see—I thought so—it's full."

SCIENCE

"Give me history, but never science," says the freshman. Continuing, he cries, "Science should be polished, demolished, and abolished."

The sophomore says, "Science is golden." He must have meant silence.

oBtany is a study of leaves and be-leaves. Beau Geste has nothing on Bo (Beau) Tany.

In biology we learn of ants, uncles, mosquitos, and flies. "The Three Mosquitos" (Musketees) by Alexander Dumas, shows that biology is all bunk. The word was originated by Achilles, first pronounced by Demosthenes, and used as slang by Hercules, for leaping into the battle he cried, "By-Ology, we conquer."

FRESHMAN DEBATERS WILL HAVE TRIANGULAR

The Greensboro High freshmen debaters will meet the freshmen debaters from Salisbury and Winston-Salem on March 3, in a triangular debate. The query for discussion is, "Resolved, That Capital Punishment Should Be Abolished."

The affirmative team goes to Winston, while the negative team debates Salisbury here. Those representing Greensboro are, for the affirmative, Guy Hope and Rigdon Dees, with Ed Garrett acting as alternate; for the negative, Douglas Cartland and Clary Holt.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT BEGINS NEW COURSE

The English department has introduced a new course this semester. The new course, entitled Creative English, is open to freshman and sophomore students only.

The purpose of the course is to encourage composition among the students.

Miss Laura Tillet says that simple dramatizations will be studied, and short stories will be written, and upon this foundation the students may go on to real literary writing.

This class is to be held at the fifth period, under the direction of Miss Tillet, head of English department.

NATION-WIDE ESSAY CONTEST IS BEGUN

Sponsored by American Chemical Comapny to Promote Interest in Chemistry Study

BIGGS WINNER LAST YEAR

The fifth annual essay contest, sponsored by the American Chemical Company to promote interest in the study of chemistry, is opened to all students of high schools and secondary schools in the United States and dependencies. These subjects have been announced. They are "The Relation of Chemistry to the Home, to Health and Disease, to the Development of Industry, of Life."

The first national prize is a scholarship to any college in the United States. In addition to this, each state is offering two prizes. The first of these is a $20 gold piece, while the second is a set of books on chemistry. The essays must be in by March 1, 1928. Last year Henry E. Biggs, the only G. H. S. student who entered this contest, won second prize, a set of books, in the state contest on an essay entitled "The Relation of Chemistry to Health and Disease."
