

TEACHERS TRAVEL, STUDY, AND TEACH DURING SUMMER

Majority Took Extended Trips, Some Vacationed At Home, Few Taught.

19 ATTEND SCHOOL

High School Teachers Attend Various Universities Over Country.

The summer of '31 took G. H. S. teachers off to various places. Among the many teachers who attended Columbia University in New York City, the Greensboro delegates were: James Farthing, Katherine Jones, Misses Dorothy and Mary McNairy, H. Grady Miller, A. P. Routh, Misses Laura Tillett, and Ida Belle Moore.

As if nine months were not enough to struggle with the young loafers of Greensboro, the following tackled summer school at G. H. S.: W. W. Blair, Mrs. Callie Braswell, Mrs. Alma G. Coltrane, Joe Johnson, J. S. Johnson, Misses Sarah Leshe, Fatsie Mitchell, and Katherine Pike; and they held up fairly well under the strain, for they are back again, well and happy.

Travel attracted quite a few. Miss Rena Cole traveled central and northwestern United States, Canada, and Mexico. Miss Amy Caldwell crossed the "big pond" and took in the sights in Europe. Miss Lena Bullard traveled West Virginia, Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, and Ohio. Mr. Belding traveled after attending summer school at the University of Iowa. Miss Nora Chaffin traveled central and northwestern United States. Mr. Cobb traveled also. Mrs. Alma G. Coltrane went to New York City and other points in the States after summer school here. Misses Marjorie Craig, Lilly Walker, Margaret Fuller, Katherine Pike, and Mrs. Julia Strickland spent their summer vacation in resting and traveling.

Universities all over the country were attended by Greensboro teachers. U. N. C. claimed Misses Julia Seary and Rebecca Wall. N. C. W. Miss Jess Trowbridge and Mrs. William Smith. Earl Stoum was instructor of flute and conducting at the University of Michigan. Miss Mary Morrow attended summer school in Auburn, Alabama. Mrs. Hamilton attended summer school at Duke University. Emory claimed Miss Virginia Hollingsworth. Miss Joyner went to the University of South Carolina. Miss Ione Grogan went to New York City after spending some time at home. Miss Mary Harrell also went to New York City and then to the mountains of the "Old North State". Mrs. Zoe Hogsett went to Miami, Florida. Miss Henrietta Lee was another who went to the mountains to study and rest. Miss Evelyn Martin went out to Oklahoma after going back to Georgia for a while. Miss Robinson spent her vacation at Hillcrest Camp, Kingston, N. C. Miss Fannie Starr Mitchell stayed all summer at Wrightsville Beach. Mr. Charlie Phillips was at Black Bear Camp this summer. Miss Gertrude Farlow says she stayed at home and spent her time reading. Miss Willie Hall stayed at home and worked on Current Problems. Miss Selberry went to Duke University at Durham.

Three Educational Pictures Presented at Carolina Program Concludes Opening Activities.

SENIOR HIGH TO GET VITAPHONE

The city school opening program was concluded when the teachers gathered at 11 o'clock in the Carolina theater to see and hear three educational pictures.

The pictures were obtained and presented under the auspices of the city school board.

The Carolina theater was donated for the event through the courtesy of Eugene Street, manager.

The first picture featured Dr. W. H. Kilpatrick, of Columbia University. Dr. Kilpatrick lectured on "Dynamic Learning," and brought out the various meanings of the verb "to learn."

The second picture presented Dr. Henry Bode, of Ohio State University. Dr. Bode delivered a short address on "The Elementary Teacher as a Guide." He stressed the fact of thinking clearly and of co-operation of students and teachers.

The last picture introduced Dr. Hughes Menzies, of New York. "The Creative Approach to Education" was the short topic presented by Dr. Menzies. He pointed out the new views of education, individual ability, and emphasized the teacher's attitude toward the pupils.

Superintendent Guy B. Phillips stated that things might be winter, as Mr. B. would accommodate his cooperation. This was the first time the school board had met since the summer. The club was organized by those pupils who finished creative English last spring. The club, named "Buds," met three times at different members' homes, and at each meeting every member read an original selection. This society was organized during the school year. The club will have new members to time.

A RADIO MIX UP

A radio mix-up between two stations: one was broadcasting the morning exercises, the other, cooking recipes. Here is the result:

"Hands on hips, place one cup of flour on the shoulders, raise the knees and depress toes and wash thoroughly in one-half cup of milk. In four counts raise and lower the legs and mash two hard-boiled eggs in a sieve. Repeat six times. Inhale one-half teaspoonful of baking powder, and one cup of flour, breathe naturally, exhale, and sift. Attention! Jump to a squatting position and bend while a egg backward and forward over head and in four counts make a stiff dough that will stretch at the waist. Lie flat on the floor and roll into a marble the size of a walnut. Hop to a standstill and boil in water but do not boil into a jelly afterwards and dry with a towel. Breathe naturally and dress in warm flannels and serve with fish soup."

SOPHOMORES ARRIVE; 400 SCIENCE TENANTS

The beginning of a new semester brings the arrival of a large group of sophomores from various Junior high schools. There are 300 pupils who now occupy session rooms from one to seven in the science building. Classroom advisers are as follows: Misses Mary Harrell, Amy Caldwell, Julia Seary, Catherine Elke, Margaret Fuller, and Mesdames Callie Braswell, and William Smith.

In the entire student body there is an increase of four hundred pupils, there being 100 added to the other classes.

BANQUET HELD AT SCHOOL CAFETERIA

Guy Phillips Acts As Toastmaster When Instructors Are Welcomed to City.

TEACHERS INTRODUCED

The teachers of the Greensboro schools were welcomed to the city by leaders of local organizations at a banquet which was held in the Senior high school cafeteria.

Guy B. Phillips, superintendent of the city schools, acted as toastmaster. He presented and introduced the various speakers of the evening, who welcomed the teachers in behalf of the organization they represented.

Representing the city, Mayor Paul C. Lindley and City Manager I. C. Brower extended greetings to approximately 275 teachers and officials attending the dinner.

Among those who were introduced were: Councilman P. A. Hayes, J. W. McLeannan, Julius W. Coe, E. G. West, and T. J. Murphy. E. D. Broadhurst extended a welcome from his group. Robert F. Moseley, Dr. C. W. Moseley, and Claude Kiser were presented.

The president of the Greensboro Council of North Carolina Congress of Parents and Teachers, C. L. Shupp, brought greetings from the 12 parent-teacher associations in the different schools. Guy B. Phillips then presented the local presidents. They were: Mrs. W. W. Whaley, senior high; Mrs. D. S. Coltrane, Central Junior High; Mrs. A. J. Sykes, Lindley Junior High; Mrs. W. P. Moore, Gillespie Park Junior High; Mrs. Richard Mitchell, Aycock; Mrs. R. E. Mendenhall, Caldwell; Mrs. Grace Wilson, Melver; Mrs. J. B. Colby, Peck; Mrs. Paul Ginnings, Lindley elementary; Mrs. C. B. Wharton, Irving Park; Mrs. J. W. Burke, Hunter, and Mrs. Lee Foreman, Simpson street.

Welcoming addresses were made by C. A. Hines, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. Cora Cox Lucas, president of the Women's Club; Sidney Stern, representative of the Rotary club; Tracy Cunningham, president of the Kiwanis; R. H. Brown, president of the P. T. A.; Mrs. Martha T. Hannah, president of the Professional and Business Women's Club; Miss Maude Lee, representing the Altrusa Club; Frank Warner, representing the American Business Club; George Way, representative of the American Legion; R. O. Trooper and Arnold Schiffman, representatives of the local Merchants' Association, and T. R. Foust, superintendent of the county schools. The new teachers of the faculty were introduced, and the principals of the various schools were presented.

Rev. R. Murphy Williams, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of the Covenant, delivered the invocation and the benediction at the banquet. The dining-room was decorated with green and white paper, and a variety of summer flowers on the tables. The dinner was served by the "big sisters" of Greensboro senior high.

DIDN'T THEY GRADUATE, OR WHAT?

I was looking about the halls on my way to class the other day and I noticed that there are several old familiar faces here, that I thought were in the graduating class.

Just less did it happen that they got out of all their classes last spring to practice for the pageant and other senior here to school this term. I fear the rest of the student body had been eyed some way, or maybe these would be graduates sent in their applications to enter college and found they had been graded somewhere down the line of credits.

A Few New Books, and Some "Used by a Few" Good As New

Barnes, M. A. "Years of Grace." The winner of this year's Pulitzer prize. Becker, M. L. "Golden Tales of the Old South." The old South, as it used to be, lives again in these stories and sketches drawn from widely different sources and depicting life from Virginia to Texas. Calkins, Clinch. "Some Folks Won't Work." A vivid picture of today's unemployment from the human standpoint. Doble, J. Frank. "Coronado's Children." The lost mines and buried treasures of the Southwest. Downey, June E. "The Kingdom of the Mind." A fascinating book for people in their teens and over. What does the growing boy or girl know about the powers of his own mind? Doyle, A. D. "New Edition of Sherlock Holmes." Detective stories. Faulkner, A. S. "What We Hear in Music." Gives a working knowledge of the literature of music, rather than a theoretical study of the form and grammar of the subject. Henderson, Archibald. "Contemporary Immortals." Einstein, Gandhi, Shaw, Marconi,

THREE MACHINES ADDED TO COMMERCIAL DEPT.

An Ediphone has been added to the equipment of the commercial department for the use of students taking typing. It is necessary for the pupils to become accustomed to taking dictation by means of an Ediphone because it trains them for later work in an office where these machines are used. The classes will start immediately using the Ediphone.

Two mimeograph machines have also been moved into the typing room and will be put into use by the typing and bookkeeping students. With these improvements in the commercial department, it is hoped that some of the difficulty in teaching the overcrowded classes will be eradicated.

HALLWAY HASH

In one of the study halls on the first day of school, someone remarked that the students were unusually quiet. "No wonder," said another, "It's mostly made up of new sophs." Sounds bad for the older generation.

What was it said, "All sophomore groups are the same?"

Believe it or not, in spite of the depression, Miss Estelle Mitchell says the French II and III classes are having new readers!

If everyone seems as "lost" as the editor-in-chief, we wonder if the school will ever find itself.

Speaking of "broad-layers," were you in the cafeteria Monday?

Tall, graceful figures, clad in new, fall styles with flowing purple and gold draperies—give you three guesses. Nope, not a beauty contest, but the new-fashioned traffic cops at G. H. S. directing "lost" sophs.

Seems as if we have enough insects in school without the biology classes making trips for them.

All students wishing to write for "Hallway Hash" please report to publication room immediately. Wits preferred, half-wits accepted, and nit-wits endured. N. B. Overflow of half-wits and nit-wits remain in hall.

At present "Hallway Hash" is in need of a dash of salt and pepper—mostly salt—it's getting too fresh.

THE DELIGHTFUL STUDY OF BOOKS

These friends of mind regard the pleasures of the world as the supreme good; they do not comprehend that it is possible to renounce these pleasures. They are ignorant of my resources. I have friends who society is delightful to me; they are persons of all countries and of all ages; distinguished in war, in council, and in letters; easy to live with, always at my command. They come at my call, and return when I desire them: they are never out of humor, and they answer all my questions with readiness. Some I present in review before me the events of past ages; others reveal to me the secrets of Nature: these teach me how to live and those how to die: these dispel my melancholy by their mirth, and amuse me by their sallies of wit; and some there are who prepare my soul to suffer everything, to desire nothing, and to become thoroughly acquainted with itself. In a word, they open a door to all the arts and sciences. As a reward for such great services, they require only a corner of my little house, where they may be safely sheltered from the depredations of their enemies. In fine, I carry them with me into the field, the silence of which suits them better than the business and tumult of cities. —Petrarch.

ALUMNI NEWS

"Red" Paris, who achieved great success in G. H. S. music and athletics, is now resuming his studies at Vanderbilt University as a member of the sophomore class.

Bill Spradin, now a resident of Winston-Salem, will enter the junior class at the University of North Carolina.

J. Barnes is also a student at the University of North Carolina.

Dick Douglas, formerly of G. H. S., will enter the senior class of Georgetown University. During the summer he was with an expedition trip in the wilds of Alaska. He also visited in Mississippi.

"I WANT TO JOIN THE MOVIES, TOO"

Dear Sir: I have just seen "Skippy" and I want to join the movies also. I am ten years old and I have big cut eyes with long lashes. My hair is kind of light and it curls if I am not careful.

I think I can be a swell actor. I wish I knew what Skippy wrote. Here is my picture in the letter. I want to get down and out. I wish I could be like Skippy.

Please let me hear from you soon. JOHN H. GROGAN. 121 Lindsay St., Reidsville, N. C.

PARTY TOURS WEST DURING VACATION ON MOTOR TRIP

Nora Chaffin and Friends Visit California and Other Western Points.

GO THROUGH THE NORTH

Traveled Up Pacific Coast, Across Canadian Rockies, to Glacier National Park and Death Valley.

During the past summer, Nora Chaffin and two friends connected with Duke University made a most enjoyable as well as educational trip to California by motor. They took a northern route, passing through many of the largest cities of the West and Middle West, including St. Louis, Kansas City, and Chicago.

After reaching California the trio traveled up the Pacific coast to Vancouver, and across the Canadian Rockies to Lake Louise, from where they continued back down to the United States to Glacier National Park.

The party was also entertained to quite a thrill while in Yellowstone, when a grizzly bear attacked a ranger right in front of them, and Miss Chaffin confessed that in her mad effort to get out of the tracks of the arena, she fell backwards over a log, probably adding humor to the scene.

Miss Chaffin was most impressed by the city of Victoria, B. C., a strictly English settlement, which she said reminded her of "a bit of old England," and also the Buchart Gardens, which are privately owned and said by Miss Chaffin to be prettier than any she has ever seen.

Other places of interest visited were Pike's Peak, Bryce's Canyon, Death Valley, Los Angeles, Beverly Hills, and Mounts Renier, and Hood.

At present Miss Chaffin's state is California—next to North Carolina.

WILL HOLD CHAPEL ONE DAY EACH WEEK

Chapel programs this semester will be conducted one day each week.

A. P. Routh is planning a series of short talks on "Character Education." One of these will be presented at each chapel program.

There is a plan for releasing a moving picture the last chapel period in each month. This is under the discussion of the faculty at present.

Committees Begin Work Immediately

Last spring C. W. Phillips appointed committees to make plans for, and during, this year. These committees, composed of teachers, cover every phase of high school life.

The Publication committee, headed by Miss Laura Tillett, plans a meeting of the Homespun staff to discuss the theme for this year and the number of issues to be published. The necessary appointments will also be made.

Miss Henrietta Lee, chairman of the Art committee, intends to take up a study of art in all the countries of the world throughout the year, along with the regular work in which pen and ink sketches, photography, and linoleum block printing will be included.

To unify all things which are connected with the relation of the school to the outside world will be the aim of the Public Relations committee, of which Miss Lilly Walker is chairman. Under this head come such things as chapel programs, radio programs.

The Visitors' and Parents' committee, which is headed by C. W. Phillips, is to arrange the outstanding events taking place during the year, such as the opera, plays, parties, etc., so that there will be no conflicts, group wishing to hold any sort of meeting is referred to this committee.

The Scholastic committee has not yet met, but its aim this year will be to promote higher scholarship under the direction of Miss Ione Grogan.

A. P. Routh plans, as chairman of the Athletics committee, to have the athletics of the school somewhat in the usual manner.
