

WHIRL WINDS TO PLAY ASHEVILLE TONIGHT

Greensboro Entertains Non-Conference Foe On High School Court

After playing all their games, except the one with High Point, out of town the past few weeks, Coach Bob Jamieson's Purple Whirlwinds begin a prolonged home stand tonight in the high school gym against a strong team from Edwards high school of Asheville.

Little is known of the visiting quintet, but they are playing practically all the major Western Class A teams in the state, and Asheville usually boasts of good athletic squads. This is the first time the two schools have met in any kind of contest since the football game which Greensboro lost to the Maroons in the mountain city during 1940.

First Home Game Lately

This will be the first game played by the Whirlies for the home crowds since the engagement with High Point that filled the gym. Although the tilt will have no bearing on the Gate City's conference standing, another full-house is hoped for by Jamieson and his team.

After this game the Whirlwinds begin a string of conference games, which could win or lose the Western conference title, which would be the first for a Jamieson coached team, before the home crowds.

Teams Meets Salisbury

The first of this series occurs next Tuesday night when the locals entertain Coach Bill Ludwig's squad from Salisbury. Although Greensboro beat the Jackets in the first clash and the visitors rest on the bottom of the loop, they have a good scrapping team and could easily pull an upset over an over-confident team.

The next game is a week from today when W. F. Shealy brings his warriors from Reynold's high of Winston-Salem to do battle with the Whirlwinds. One of the high lights of the home schedule, appears the next night when Charlotte's Silver Streaks meet the locals. In their first meeting the locals had to put up a real battle to subdue the fighting Streaks.

On the following Tuesday night Greensboro entertains the surprise team of the conference as Burlington appears in the local arena. The first game, which ended 17-9 in Greensboro's favor, was played in the Alamance city in a very small gym and as a result it turned out to be strictly defensive. However, in the larger local court the story should be very much different with the score going either way.

Local Reserves Win, Lose In Conference Contests

Almost as successful as their big brothers, the Purple Breezes, reserve basketball team, have to date shown flashy and neat-working play.

With Gene Thomas, Tommy Bray and Tim Warner, three juniors, formerly of Central, leading the way, the Breezes have subdued two Western conference foes, Burlington and Salisbury, losing only to High Point by a small score.

With continued good showing, this year's reserve stars will probably become cogwheels in some of Coach Bob Jamieson's future hard court fives.

School Cafeterias Launch Balanced Diet Campaign

Sponsored by the health officers and dairies of Greensboro, a campaign began last week throughout the city school cafeterias to encourage a better balanced diet, reported Miss Elizabeth Harvell, school dietitian, this week.

The campaign, which will last all semester in connection with the physical education program, will feature posters and displays of properly balanced meals taken from foods on sale at the school cafeteria for that particular day.

Local Wrestling Team Finds New Quarters

Have you wondered about these boys running about the halls at the end of the school day clad in sweat suits similar to pajamas? They aren't sleep walkers but members of Coach Day's wrestling squad.

When the athletic director decided to put in a basket room to take care of all the physical education classes, Coach Day had to move his quarters to the green room located below the stage, where manager Jim Groome and a crew of boys moved the mats.

Mentor Day plans to enter his squad in the state meet which will be the largest gathering of high school wrestlers in the past few years. The squad will enter the following boys: Richard Joyce, 98 pounds; David Rudd, 108; Arthur Bruton, 118; Bill Cavan, 125; David Phoenix, 135; David Sewell, 145; Bill McCormick, 155; Jim Anthony, 165; and Garland Wolfe in the 175-pound class.

Carolina Freshmen Down Locals, 39-18

After gaining five straight conference games, the Purple Whirlwind stepped out of the league last Wednesday night and lost to the strong North Carolina freshman quintet by the score of 39 to 18 in Woollen gymnasium, Chapel Hill.

Playing sluggish ball all evening, the locals were never in the ball game after the first quarter. The Tar Babies ran the score up to 18 to 4, after leading by only four points at the quarter.

Freshmen Have Big Third Quarter

Greensboro's usual scoring threat backfired in its face as the freshmen stocked up 20 points in the third quarter, while the Whirlwind gained only two. A strong third period offense by the locals has meant the margin of victory in several of their past victories.

Scoring honors for the game were divided between Carolina's Frank Warren and Greensboro's Leroy Paschal. Both boys hooped the basket for 9 points.

Greensboro Subdues Reynolds High 30-13 With Last Half Rally

After fighting nip-and-tuck in the first half with the Winston-Salem quint, Greensboro forged ahead in the second period to gain a fifth straight conference win Tuesday night in the Twin City by the score of 30 to 13.

At the beginning of the game the two squads fought on even terms, with neither gaining a lead of any kind. The score at the end of the first half was 11 to 9 in favor of the Gate City team.

However, using the same method as in several other games, the Whirlwinds moved forward in the early minutes of the next period. Al Koepfle, Leroy Paschal and Joe Coleman contributed to the rally which put Greensboro into a 20 to 10 lead at the end of the quarter.

Paschal Wins Honors

From then on out there was no doubt as to the winner of the game, as the Greensboro squad added 10 more points, while Reynolds could garner only three.

Scoring honors went to Paschal, whose lay-up shot accounted for 12 points, and Koepfle, who obtained 10 points from action.

The victory gave the local squad the top position in early season Western conference battles, as it has won all of its games: High Point and Burlington trail with two losses.

In the preliminary game the Reynolds junior varsity beat out the little Whirlwinds by the close score of 24 to 23. The Greensboro midgets lost to the High Point junior high school the same afternoon by a 20 to 12 score.

Lineup:

Greensboro—Aydelette, f, 0; Brown, f, 5; Paschal, c, 12; Jarvis, g, 0; Koepfle, g, 11; total, 28.

Reynolds—Watson, f, 0; D. Martin, f, 6; S. Martin, c, 4; Vaughn, g, 0; Grivette, g, 2; total, 12.
