

National Girl Scout Week October 23-29

Called "Seven Service Days" Because Troops Follow Schedule of Helpfulness; Dedicate Each Day to Special Cause.

OFFICIALS PLAN PROGRAM

Remember Founder's Birthday and Halloween; Greensboro Scouts Will Help Red Cross and Needy at Thanksgiving.

National Girl Scout week began on Sunday, October 23, and lasted through Saturday, October 29. It usually ends on October 31, Halloween and the birthday of Juliette Low, founder of Girl Scouts.

Girl Scout week is called "Seven Service Days," the reason is that scouts follow a schedule of service. The officials at National Girl Scout headquarters in New York planned the "Seven Service Days," and dedicated each day to specific cause.

Sunday, October 23, was called go to church day. Sunday night all the Girl Scout troops in Greensboro met in front of the courthouse and went to West Market Street Methodist church in a body. Monday, October 24, was set aside as home making day. On that day the scouts tried to help their mothers in every way possible. Tuesday was named handicraft day. Exhibits were presented of some of the outstanding work of this kind that the girls had done at camp, at school, and at home.

Wednesday, October 26, was dedicated to thrift. On this day the scouts were urged to start savings accounts and were explained the meaning and value of such an account. Thursday was set aside as hostess day. The Girl Scouts were asked to entertain someone that day, to serve a meal to their family if nothing more. On Friday community service day was observed, at which time scouts tried to help out their city in some way.

Saturday, October 29, was named health day.

On October 31, Girl Scout week was stressed further, that day being the birthday of Juliette Low and also Halloween. Several parties were given.

During Thanksgiving Greensboro Scouts will help collect, pack, and distribute clothes and baskets of food for the needy.

Red Cross call will be November 11-24, during this time scouts will help Red Cross officials.

Local Midgets Gain Victory

Defeat High Point 12-0; Snead, Vinson, Isler Star for Greensboro; Speers, Wall, Murrow Outstanding for Opposition.

Senior high midgets and the High Point midgets clashed on the Senior high field on October 26. The Whirlwind midgets defeated the High Point team 12 to 0. When the local midgets played the High Point team the first time, they came out to a scoreless tie.

Snead and Vinson were the stars of the line. Isler starred on the defense, and Hendrix and Tankersley played a good game.

The High Point stars were Speers, Wall, and Murrow.

The first touchdown was made by Tankersley. The second was made by Hendrix.

Winston Trimmed By Local Reserves

The Greensboro high school reserve team trimmed the Winston-Salem reserves 13-0, Thursday, October 20. Both teams were good, but the Twin City boys failed to get to clicking.

The locals threatened to score early in the second quarter, but Winston held them and punted out of the danger zone. The Winds then began a march down the field featured by "Flip" Rees on end runs which resulted in Elmore Holt taking the ball over.

The second tally came in the last period after Fickling and Koury had already taken the ball over from about the 20-yard line, but were called back because of off-sides. Then Goodwin behind almost perfect interference, went over for a touchdown. Holt made the extra point on a line plunge.

For the locals Wachter and Gibson, ends, played well. Parker, a center, also played well on the line. In the backfield Cooper, Holt, and Jenkins played the best ball.

Part of Initiation Is Given Hi-Y Members

At the Leaksville-Greensboro football game the candidates for membership in the Warner Hi-Y club were having a part of their initiation.

The sixteen candidates appeared on the field, during the half, dressed as girls. They were organized into two teams and a football was given them. They then played a game.

During the third quarter the candidates sat in the stands and cheered as much as possible.

Back Flaws From the Whirlwinds

New System of Tackling Dummy.

Mr. Belding has put in a new system for the football men who tackle the tackling dummy. He has nailed a 2 by 4 plank about 3 feet from the ground so that when a man tackles the dummy he has to go under the plank. If a player does not hit the dummy low enough he will probably burst his head open.

Although the band misses a good trumpeter during the football games, the fans enjoy a good cheer leader in Harry Hill, master of ceremonies at the local games. Harry's magnificent display of energy and personality, as he and little Bobby Yates caper in front of the stands, helped to keep the crowd in the best of humor, whether our team is winning or not.

Many say that although they do not enjoy the games, especially in times of defeat, they always feel that they get a quarter's worth of entertainment from Harry Hill.

Although our midget team is much smaller than our varsity and reserves, it puts up some of the scrappiest and hard-fought games of the three.

If this group continues showing up as it has during the first of this season, the varsity can be sure of having a number of A-1 men in a year or so.

Tankersley, midget fullback, is one of the flashiest players on the eleven, and has played a steady game the whole time. Hendrix, right halfback, plays a good offensive game in the backfield. Snead and Vinson are excellent line players and stand good chances of making the varsity later.

Football fans saw the Whirlwinds fight harder for the Charlotte game than for any other battle of the year. The majority of observers were expecting the home team to be licked by a large margin, but from the first, Greensboro put up a strong defense. The most exciting play of the game came when Hester, center, faked the ball, surprising the opponents into momentary inactivity.

With apologies to "The All-American Girl," we present, ladies and gentlemen, "The All-Carolinian High School Girl," for your approval!

She loves a halfback at Durham high school,
She loves a quarterback at G. H. S.,
She's got a tackle from Charlotte gridiron,
And a Raleigh center guard's her flame;
She has dates with a Reidsville fullback,
A Salisbury right end's giving her a whirl,
She has a sweetheart on every high team,
She's just an all-Carolinian girl!

Donald "Scratchy" Kennerly, one of Greensboro's star trackmen of last year, is now viewing Guilford high school through a vari-colored perspective. While playing football this season, he received a black eye. "Scratchy" tells us that those country lads are heavy-hitters.

Back Whirlwinds!

Let's all try to be out for the Winston-Salem-G. H. S. game, and see the plays for ourselves and learn the score without having to call up the News or a friend to find out. Come on, G. H. S. students, and let's give the Purple Whirlwinds a good backing.

R-a-a-y Team!

If everyone who attends the conference tomorrow would make his appearance at the stadium that afternoon, we would probably have the largest crowd of students who ever attended a G. H. S. football game. Wouldn't it be great to see everybody in Senior high sitting in the stadium yelling and screaming for the Whirlwinds? Just imagine a picture like that and realize that it can't be so without your help! Let's all be there. R-a-a-a-y team!

Pittman Plays Well

Frank Pittman's playing in the Charlotte game deserves special mention. Many times he saved the game by his wonderful defensive work. Although not very heavy Frank brought down the heavy Reidsville backs with deadly accuracy. Aside from this Frank made several good runs during the course of the game.

He Won It Nobly

Recent comments that the student council has a rough-neck president have been heard from those who forget he is on the football team. Even on the stage during announcements footlights won't conceal Frank Pittman's purple shiner. In spite of the fact that it was received very gallantly in the Whirlwinds' recent tilt with Charlotte, wild stories continue to circulate about the ring around President Pittman's eye.

Varsity Doing Best

The members of the Varsity are doing their level best in the workouts and the games to make Senior high claim the championship title for the Western District. All of the students of Senior high should attend the games and cheer for the Purple Whirlwinds, helping them on to victory.

We're looking forward to beating Winston-Salem!

Students May Attend Game

The students will be allowed to attend the High Point game, provided they have notes and transportation. Everyone who goes will be expected to conduct himself orderly and give the Pointers a good impression of G. H. S. Support our boys by rooting like you have rooted before and watch the Whirlwinds carry off the honors.

G. H. S. Licked By 14-0 Score

Purple Whirlwinds Spring Surprise By Holding Charlotte Wildcats as Well as They Did In Recent Game.

BILL ELIAS IS THE STAR

Runs Sixty Yards on Kick Off; Charlotte Team Too Heavy and Experienced For Whirlwinds' Green, Light Line.

The Purple Whirlwinds of Greensboro high school held the Charlotte Wildcats to a 14-0 victory Friday, October 21, at Greensboro. The invaders were expecting to be heavy winners, but the locals surprised them and in the first of the second half threatened to score. This is the best game the locals have played this season and Coach Belding was well pleased.

In the beginning of the second half the Winds dashed in and sprung their new offense which knocked Charlotte off its feet. The locals were marching nearer to the goal on every play until Charlotte intercepted a pass. The locals were touchdown bound and might have tied Charlotte if it weren't for the intercepted pass.

The Wildcats' first score came in the first quarter after a downed punt on the 50-yard line and a march down the field. Holder took the ball over and Gadd place-kicked the extra point.

On the kickoff after Charlotte's second touchdown, Bill Elias, Greensboro's flashy halfback, grabbed the ball and ran down the field sixty yards before being downed.

In the second half Helms intercepted a Greensboro pass and stopped the locals' march down the field. At the end of the third quarter Gadd failed to complete a pass which went over the goal, so Greensboro came into possession of the ball on their own 20-yard line. They failed to gain, so Pittman punted, but the ball bounced off his foot sideways and bounded backward to the locals' 15-yard line. Charlotte tried several runs and failed to gain. On the next play Gadd completed a pass to Graves over the goal. Gadd place-kicked the extra point. This was the final score and the game ended, 14 to 0.

Winston Battles Local Girls' Team For 3-1 Victory

Miss Kate Robinson's Squad Is Clicking But Finds Match In Opponents; Tight Game Is Fought.

Miss Kate Robinson's girls' soccer team battled the Winston-Salem squad to a 3 to 1 finish on the Reynolds high school field Tuesday afternoon, October 25.

Although the local girls were defeated, they played a good defensive game. The first quarter was completed with neither team scoring.

In the early part of the second quarter, Mary Nell Stonestreet, captain of the opposing group, made the first goal with a fast play through the goal guard.

The third quarter was featured by the playing of Margaret Dixon and Helen Cockran, of Winston. Each kicked a goal, leaving the score 3 to 1 in Winston's favor.

Lois Shields, substitute for Greensboro in last quarter, made the only point for the locals, leaving the final score 3 to 1.

Reserve Team Ties Pointers

Play Hard Game, But Are Unable to Score; Fumble Destroys Hopes For High Point; Winds Make Good Showing.

Greensboro's Reserve team met the High Point squad on the opponent's field Wednesday afternoon, October 26 for the second time this season. The two elevens fought a hard game, but neither was able to score, and the game ended in a scoreless tie. Their first game with High Point was battled to an 18-0 victory for the local team.

A close play was made when Ridge, a High Point substitute, blocked a punt and ran to Greensboro's one-yard line. On the next play a fumble destroyed hope for the Pointers.

In the local line Parker, Thorburn, Rankin, and Wachter showed up well. Shelton played a strong game in the backfield, with Ray running a close second.

Warner Formed Hi-Y

Bob Coons and C. W. Phillips Advise Local Club. Meets Monday Nights. Y. Camp Is Social Center.

For a number of years G. H. S. has sponsored a Hi-Y Club. The purpose of this is to create, maintain, extend throughout the school and community higher standards of Christian character.

The club meets every Monday night at the Y, and has as its advisers Bob Coons and C. W. Phillips. Together they discuss problems which are of interest to them.

Under the leadership of Frank Warner, Duke University graduate two years ago, the club formed several different organizations throughout the country, these meet in Greensboro each month for a supper meeting.

The local club sponsors the Guilford County Congress which was held for the second time last year, though an annual event.

The club brings speakers to lead the discussions, such as Dean Miller, of Guilford College, who was the speaker for the county meeting Monday night.

The North Carolina and South Carolina state conference is held in Raleigh each year, the Raleigh club acting as host to the delegates.

The Y camp is the social center of the club meetings and other social functions.

Last Friday afternoon the Greensboro high school griders were defeated by Reidsville in a hard fought game at the World War Memorial Stadium.

Reidsville hung up their lone tally in the middle of the first period after they had kept the ball from the kickoff and had marched the ball down the field to Greensboro's 20-yard line. On the next play J. Stallings whipped a pass to Dickerson, who went over for a touchdown. J. Stallings went through center for the extra point on a place kick.

Locals Threatened to Score.

After this touchdown the locals threatened to score, but Reidsville got the ball and kicked out of danger. The ball was played back and forth in the middle of the field in the second period. The locals got a score when Dickerson completed a pass to Stallings, who took the ball over, but were called back because of a 15-yard penalty for roughing. In the last quarter the invaders threatened again when Stallings returned a punt for 60 yards and was headed for a touchdown, but Boren tackled him on the locals' 25-yard line. Reidsville would have scored if they hadn't been penalized 15 yards just before Dickerson completed a pass to H. Stallings.

Pittman and Boren Best Backfield

Pittman and Boren played the best backfield game for the locals. Pittman, local quarterback, was by far the best defensive back on the field; he also played a nice offensive game by featuring in most of the passes, and he punted some also. Boren, a hard running half, did some good playing on the local offensive and featured in some good tackles. Lee and Fields also did some good work. Wrenn was the best lineman on the field and Reidsville put two men on, but at that he gave them plenty of trouble.

Dickerson and Stallings Do Well

For Reidsville Dickerson and Stallings did the best playing in the backfield while Taylor did their best playing on the line. Carroll and Terrell, ends, and Hastings, tackle, also did some nice playing on their line.

Rees, quarterback, and Lee, halfback, weren't expected to get in this game, but both of them were sent in and played a good part in the last quarter. Reidsville used only one substitute, Roberts, who substituted at halfback and at end.
