VOLUME XII

Senior Class Plans Gala Commencement

geant Will Combine Talent of Entire Graduating Class As Done in Pantomime.

ED CONE IS CHAIRMAN

wentin Dixon, Lile McGinnis, Helen Cook, and Dorothy Hodgin Are Responsible for Presentation on January 20.

Reparations for mid-year graduam continues under the direction of and will be part of the Seniors at a reception in the cafeteria last night. Dancing featured the program.

The Juniors entertained the Seniors at a reception in the cafeteria last night. Dancing featured the program. The fun began with a grand march led by the presidents of the two classes with their escorts.

A song by L. H. Dunivant, a doll dance by Margaret McNelll, a dance and recitation by Dot. Hanes and a tango by J. C. Lane and Miss Addie Brown were featured between dances. A group from Mrs. Oscar White's studio danced a number called "Just about 50 features, some of which are bedde by the home economics dent. The characters studied in tous departments through e years in high school in the pagean ers take cters taken from "Silas Mar-rough "Hamlet" will represent lash department; the Latin deglish department; the Latin de-neut will be represented by char-from each year of Latin. Char-from each period in history will mut the history department and ters from each of the last five music-art will be shown by a terized reproduction of "Sistine na" ast will be composed of the 68 s of the class. All the departwill be given a place in the Nine muses will introduce ious departments.

wing the pageant the diplomas presented and the present se8's will be high school gradu-

December 14 Closes Night School Term

ping, Shorthand, Commercial English, Bookkeeping Most Popular Subjects; Band Will Give Concert in January.

th school, under the supervision

S. Mills, had an enrollment of upils. The most popular studies in and their enrollment were:
By 91, shorthand 42, commercial sh 38, and bookkeeping 28. Earl m directs two classes of band, these classes have the highest intage of attendance, which is term closed Wednesday, Decem-and the second term will open

January 2.

are now being made for a ther meeting the middle of so the band may give a con-

Display Model Planes

orge Wills and Co-workers lan Contest Held at Local irport; Is Subdivision of Air

rge Wills, a student in Senior was chairman of the model aircontest committee. This comhad charge of the model airand Wade Dunn.

and charge of the model adramated harder of the model adramated harder of four members of the commerce Alken Martin, Claude Hardel Howell Overton from Senior of Howell Overton from Senior of Howell Overton from Curry mool.

A skit written by J. H. Johnson Writes Skit For Chapel Period of A skit written by J. H. Johnson for chapel portrays Gilbert and Sullivan Two acts compose the skit. The first one showed the composer and writer in a friendly chat when they receive a mivitation to the dress rehearsal of "The Gondollers." In the second act Sullivan tells of a dream he has had were: 10 years, William Neal; The Gondollers." In the second act Sullivan tells of a dream he has had the Grand Kild.

of these boys were awarded free to the air show and a ride over one the air show and a ride over or in the giant tri-motor ane.

were thirty-four planes enter-need the composer of the statement o ontest held in connection with circus at Greensboro airport. ter four members of the com-mere Alken Martin, Claude Har-

EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

Senior Exams

1 and 2 periods, Jan. 13, Friday.

3-4-5 periods, Jan. 16, Monday.

6 and 7 periods, Jan. 17, Tuesday.

Regular Exams

1 and 2 periods, Jan. 18, Wednesday.

3-4-5 periods, Jan. 18, Wednesday.

6 and 7 periods, Jan. 19, Thursday.

Junior Class Gives Social

eniors Are Entertained With Reception on December 15; Dancing Is the Main Feature of Program.

Mid-Term Brings 150 New Students To Senior High

Only 70 to Graduate; Increase In Enrollment Will be Small Due to Number Stopping School During Fall Semester.

about 80.

There are, however, many who have stopped school this fall for various reasons, so the enrollment will be about the same. The new students' definite schedules will be made out for them during the Christmas holidays.

Stage Hands Work Well

Boys Who Helped With Opera Services Do Fine Job; Chang-ed Settings In Record Time; Ernest Ford Is Director.

The stage crew that worked on the etting for the opera did the job ex-eedingly well, says Mr. Miller. The cenes were changed in record break-ng time, and the stage equipment was

The following boys neighbor on the stage during the opera: Ernest Ford, stage manager; Charles Elder, assist-ant manager; Clyde Wooten, electri-cian; Charles Starmer, assistant elec-trician, and Hobart Stubbins, carpen-

The stage crew follows: Vance Mc-Clintock, Frank Stone, Frank Hudson, and Wade Dunn.

Students Chosen For Triangular Debating Team

Winners In Tryout Held December 3, Were Howard King, Thomas Miller, David Stafford and A. C. Holt.

Saturday morning, December 3, the tryout for the triangular debate was held. The query was' Resolved: "that North Carolina should adopt the sales tax as a feature of its state system of revenue."

School During Fall Semester.

One hundred and fifty new students will enter Senior high at the beginning of the second semester. All of these are from Central junior high and are now engaged in making their tentative schedules.

Seventy students will graduate from the school at mid-term thus making an increase in enrollment of about 80.

There are, however, many who have stopped school this fall for various reasons, so the enrollment will be about the same. The new students about the same. The new students about the same. The new students definite schedules will be made out for them during the Christmas holidays.

Stage Hands Work Well

Boys Who Helped With Opera Services Do Fine Job; Changed Settings In Record Time; Ernest Ford Is Director.

Affirmative Wins

Should Six Week Report Periods
Be Installed Was Query for Discussion; Maurice Polk and David Stafford Speakers.

"Should the Six Weeks Report Period be Reinstated?" This was the query for the discussion in the debating club, which met during activities period. The main speakers were Maurice Polk for the affirmative, and Dave Stafford for the negative.
Other talks were given by: Talmadge
Smith, Jack Yancey, Bill Murphy, Pete Sacrinty, and Carson Bain. This topic kept every member interested and ready to take part.
The affirmative won.

and ready to take part.
The affirmative won.
"Resolved that the War Debts Should be Canceled," was discussed at a later meeting. Helen Hinson was the main speaker for the affirmative, and Irma Lee Graves spoke for the nega-

SCHOOLS GET SIXTEEN DAYS

Senior Scouts To Give Dance

Gym to Be Located Between Field House and Cafeteria; Mr. Mills Is Designer; Peck School Materials Are Used.

Tableau of Nativity Will Be Presented at Carolina Theater. Stroom materials and the Beabuth of Nativity Will Be Presented at Carolina Theater. Work has begun on the new Sentor high symnastum, which is being built between the Careteria and field house. The plans, drawn by C. S. Mills, of the wood working department, arrange for a frame structure 98 by 60 feet similar to the hangar at the alignor. Above the basketball floor will be a balcony with a seating capacity of 500. The equipment will be sparse because of limited funds.

Although the building will be valued at $10,000 the construction is only orching 33,000. The expense is reduced by using relief labor paid by the government and by using materials salvaged from the Clara J. Peck school, which has recently been torn down. Only a few hundred dollars worth of new materials will be needed.

SENIORS FEATURED IN NEXT HIGH LIFE

The next issue of High Life will be a senior issue. It has been the custom to publish the senior program and their pictures in the issue that comes out just before the graduation program.

This issue will come out Jan. 20 and will feature the seniors and their activities.

Senior Class
Gives Pageant

Semester Seven Presents Annual Christmas Dramatization; Orchestra Plays Selections From 'Messiah.'

The annual Christmas pageant presented every year by Semester 7 is being given this afternoon at activities period. The one this year, 'Lasting Glory," arranged and directed by Misses Mary Ellen Blackmon, Lily Walker, and Mary Harrell pictures the nativity in two scenes.

Prior to the pageant the high school

The Goldollers," under the direction of H. Grady Miller, was presented at two performances December 9 in the high school auditorium by the music department. This is the eighth annual opera and the seventh Gilbert woo selections of the performance would indicate that the offering met with the highest anticiper of the performance would indicate that the hard and saw this brilliant Gilbert and saw this brilliant Gilbert and Sullivan masterpiece.

Prior to the pageant the high school

New Sidewalks

Girl Scouts in the Senior troop are planning a dance to be given Tuesday evening, December 27, at nine o'clock. This dance will be the first social function of the season attended by boys. This happens as the result of a series of talks given by Mrs. Leah Styron, Miss Mary Taylor and Mrs. Oca.

Although the building will be valued at $10,000 the construction is only from, Miss Mary Taylor and Mrs. Oca. Stewart.

On December 19, 20 and 21 a tableau will be presented by the Girl Scouts of Greensboro at the Carolina Theatre.

Carl Jeffress, editor-in-chief of High Mary in the manger. A chorus of three hundred girls will sing Christmas carols.

Mode Of Cinders

To Replace Paths

New cinder sidewalks are now being made to replace the muddy paths on the southeast side of the science building to the students of G. H. S. This is the realization of the southeast side of the students of G. H. S. One building will be valued at $10,000 the construction is only of the subject of the students of G. H. S. One of the student of the students of G. H. S. One of the students of G. H. S. O

Glee Clubs Present Opera Eighth Affair

NUMBER 6

Costumes and Stage Setting Elaborate and Colorful. 'The Gondoliers' Pleases Two Audiences.

200 STUDENTS TAKE PART

Finance Committee, Balance Goes In Class Tensury.

The sophomore class secured $27.00 to a sa result of the magazine subscription contest, sponsored by Curtis Publishing company. Twenty dollars was given to the finance committee, and signed to the same was put in the sophomore treasury.

The class was divided into teams with Marjorie Pye capitain of the gold team and Dorothy Elkins coptain of the gold team and Dorothy Elkins capitain of the gold team and Dorothy Elkins content on the gold team sold 15.

The teams supposedly were on board a ship with David Stafford as Commodore (treasurer). The team supposedly were on board as hip with David Stafford as Commodore (treasurer). The team supposedly were on board as hip with David Stafford as Commodore (treasurer). The team supposedly were on board as hip with David Stafford as Commodore (treasurer). The team stood on the gang plank while the winning team pushed the other team off the plank into the mouth of a shark in the waters below.

Miss Julia Searcy was faculty adviser. Those selling the most subscriptions were: Eleanor Kirchner, Ruby Watson, Sarah Sanford, Elizabeth Burnside and Dorothy Elkins.

The magazines sold were The Country Gondon the program and person whose name has not on the waters below.

On New Gymnasium of the finance committee, and the Ladies Home Journal.

The directors of Stunt Night have said that they are so destrous of given the program and the Ladies Home Journal.

The directors of Stunt Night have said that they are so destrous of given the program and the Ladies Home Journal.

The directors of Stunt Night have said that they are so destrous of given the program and the Ladies Home Journal.

The directors of Stunt Night have said that they are so destrous of given the program and the Ladies Home Journal.

The directors of Stunt Night have said that they are so destrous of given the program that they are so destrous of given the program that they are so destrous of given the program that they are so destrous of given the program that they navians best of all the nationalities she has met.

She declares that music was her first ambition and that she played a harp at the Berlin opera. She married the director of the orchestra, Richard Lert. Deciding that two musicians in the family were too noisy she began to write.

She has two sons, Peter, 15, and Wolfgang, 11, now in Los Angeles, where she expects to make her home. Miss Baum is blond, petite, vivacious, bubbling over with life, possessing polgnant freshness and youth and a fluent command of American slang.