

TWELVE STUDENTS WIN IN BUSINESS CONTEST

Greensboro took four first places, two seconds, and six thirds in the Business Education contest held recently in the North Carolina high schools, while Dunn high received the silver trophy, which was awarded the school that had the most team winners. Of the 8,000 participants, seventy-three won prizes. Each student in typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, commercial law, salesmanship, and general business took the test, and the best papers from each school were sent to Women's College to be judged.

Victors in the state from Greensboro were: typing, class C, Beverly Howerston and L. E. Dempsey; accuracy, L. E. Dempsey; shorthand, class B, Mable Ligon and Marjorie Mumford; bookkeeping, class A, Phillip Levine; commercial law, Margaret Sigmon; salesmanship, Marie Coe; general business, Margaret Sigmon, Marian Gibbs, and Phillip Levine. The school also won the team award in general business.

Contest Winners Announced.

In a contest held recently in Mrs. Peebles' typing 5 classes, the following results were announced: second period, Eugenia Ransey's team lost to Norman Troxler's group; third period, Wileman Ehley's side lost to Jeanne Blackburn's; and seventh period, Beatrice Pearson's group won over Jimmy Boyles' division.

In each class the losing side honored the winners with a popsicle party.

VALUABLE COPIES TO BE PRESERVED

Preparation for further study in the arts next year are being made in the library. A varied and valuable collection of reproductions of famous paintings from primitive art to the most modern type is now being mounted. These will be placed in the files the last of this year and next fall will be ready for use by the student body.
