

Greene Installed As Sophomore President COUNCIL COMMITTEEMEN GIVE REPORTS

Seven Sophomore Representatives Elected to Office for Present Year

During a regular assembly, Tuesday, October 10, Bill Greene was given the oath of office as the newly elected president of the sophomore class, by Jerry Bryan, president of the student body.

After the installation of the sophomore president, Peggy Welch was recognized as secretary of the sophomore cabinet, and George Ferguson as vice-president, and treasurer, Rooney Boone.

Seven Representatives Elected

The seven new sophomore representatives to the student council are: Bob Bell, Ann Carlson, Dottie Crews, Bobbie Holler, Pat Joyce, Joyce Lee, and Chris Velonis. The number of sophomore representatives elected was based on one representative for every seventy-five students.

The president and the seven representatives will become members of the student council. The other three class officers will be members of the sophomore cabinet.

Bill Greene is the past president of Lindley Junior High School. Running against him for the office of sophomore president was Eddie Yost, past president of Central Junior High School. Both have received the Civitan Award for Citizenship. In competition with Peggy Welch as sophomore class secretary were John Edwards and Julia Ann Hollowel. Frances Hosle, Pat Apple, and John Osborne ran against George Ferguson as vice-president. Jimmie Armstrong ran for treasurer with Rooney Boone.

Election Held October 3

Polls were opened from 8:15 to 8:45, during fourth and fifth lunch periods, and for fifteen minutes after school for the sophomores to vote.

Over 69 per cent of the sophomore class registered and 84 per cent of the registered voters voted. This year's voting was not as good as the voting of last years when 90 per cent of those registered voted.

Councilmen Give Reports

After the installation of the sophomore officers, Anne Wrenn, student council secretary, gave the secretary's report followed by Jimmy Bett's report on the finances. Norman Schollser, senior class president, gave his report on the election committee. Reporting on duties of the welcome committee which is mainly the reception of guests.

Elizabeth McPheeters spoke for herself and Bill Michael as co-chairmen of the recreation committee. She related their future plans for a council party in honor of the new council members, the Christmas dance, the annual square dance given by the council, the spring council party, and the prom.

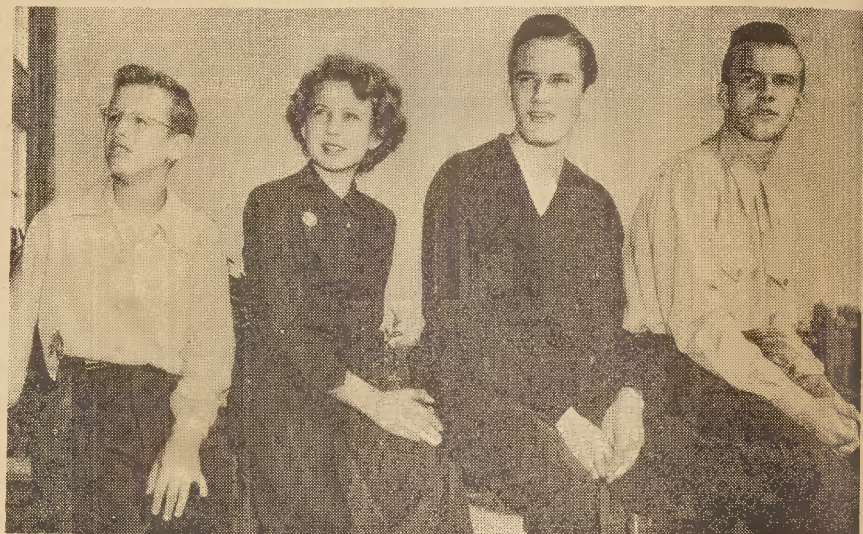

Connie Mack Butler gave the duties of the archives and publicity committee. Eli Attayek and Lane McGregor are also on this committee. Marie Sizemore gave a report of the inter-school relations work, and Nancy Beeson brought up to date the details of the constitution committee. The Greensboro Senior High Constitution will be revised as deemed necessary.

Other Reports Given

Betty Jo Benfield, vice-president, who is in charge of all the assembly programs, requested that all students inform her of their preferences for the future assemblies.

President of the Junior class, Bobby Clark, reminded the students and teachers of Clean-up day, October 11. The duties of the traffic squad are to help all students to and from classes quickly, was reported by Bill Sartin, chief of the traffic squad.

Henrietta Bell and Jimmy Betts revealed to the student body plans for Social Standards day, which will be held this year on November 16. As in past years, there will be no regular classes on this day. The purpose of this Social Standards day is to further interest in some chosen field. There will be separate classes of the students choice and assemblies with guest speakers. A student-faculty softball game will be held during the lunch periods.

CLASSIDITY

High Life nominates as the most patriotic G.H.S.'er, MIKE FLOYD. In a recent History class (301), Mike stood at full attention after he had heard faint strains of "The Star Spangled Banner" coming from the radio room. Mike filled with honest patriotism, was fully unaware of the class or teacher!
