

From the Gate City of the South and the Birthplace of O. Henry

VOLUME XXX

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL, GREENSBORO, N. C., MARCH 5, 1954

NUMBER 11

TED

State Music Contests To Be March 6; Choir To Be Represented By Soloists

Ann Dumaresq, a surprised but happy girl, walked off with top honors in the 19th district annual American Legion Oration contest on February 24 in Leaksville, North Carolina, and gained the area elim-inations which were held in Greens-boro last Wednesday.

Ann's only competition in Leaks-ille was Joyce Ewing, of Stone-ille, North Carolina.

Eligibility for the district contest was gained by defeating Barbara Massey, Bill Simpson, and George Cox in the local contest on Feb-

 Cox in the local control
 Selection of the speech of the constitution, and a soloist, and he will sing "When soloist, and he will accompany them.

 Stepech on the Constitution, and a four minute extemporaneous speech ution. Her four minute speech was on the taxing powers of Congress in Greensboro, and trial by jury in Leaksville.
 Selection of the constitution will accompany the beat the beat to be the baritone soloist, and he will sing "When soloist, and he will accompany them.

 Leaksville judges for the con-Leaksville judges for the constitution will accompany them.
 Tenor soloist is Fritz Apple and his selection is "The Jasmine poor." Lisa Anderson will accompany him.

Jury in Leaksville. Leaksville judges for the con-test were Russell Byrd, Willis Thrash, and James Webster. Miss Mozelle Causey, speech and drama coach, and Ann left Greens-boro at 11:30 a. m. on Feb. 24 and arrived in Leaksville at 1

State music contests will be held Dumaresq Takes Honors In Oratorical Competition Ann Dumaresg, a surprised but emsembles.

Representing the choir in the vocal department is June Tew, a soprano, who will sing "The Jas-mine Door." Mary Ann Thomas, mine Door. Mary Ann Thomas, singing in the mezzo-soprano classi-fication will perform Mozart's "La-crymosa" from. the "Requiem." They will be accompanied by Lisa Anderson.

Tony Stone will represent the bass section of the choir with his selection of the famous "Matten-atu" by Leoncavallo. Bill Rightsell won the decision to be the baritone soloist, and he will sing "When Song Is Sweet." George Bartholo-mew will accompany them.

The degree of the performance will be decided by music teachers from different high schools in the state. Emphasis is placed upon the knowledge of the music, interp-(Continued on Page Five)

18 Inducted In Honor Society Tapping

Wood Wins Oration On Patriotic Subject

Un Pairioitc Subject With patrioitsm às a subject. Dan Wood, a senior, was declared the school winner in the annual oration sponsored by the Patrioitc Order of the Sons of America on Thursday, February 25. On March 22 Dan will compete in the county contest. If, however, things happen as they have in past years, Dan can go straight to the state contest due to lack of partici-pation in the county and district. Ann Dumaresq received honorable mention in the oration. When Dan enters the state con-test, he will be competing against students from all over North Caro-lina. The top prize then will be $75

lina. The top prize then will be $75

For the past two years, the winner has been Barbara Massey, but this year she was inelligible. This was due to the recent ruling that past state winners cannot enter. the

Torchlight Schedules Annual Talent Show

New inductees into Torchlight, National Honor Society, were chos-en Tuesday during the spring tap-

New members for Torchlight National Honor Society are pictured here after their induction Tues-day, Kneeling from left to right are: Julie Redhead, Joyce Owens, Delsie Butler, Susan Hege, Pat Helgeson, La Reeta Stanley, Harriett Perkins, and Mary Ann Hill. Standing, left to right are: Phyllis Brooks, Barbara Brown, Jean Griggs, David Sox, Alan Tuttle, Sandra Farmer, Bob Gamble, Charles Woods, Rita Boggs, and Rob Pearce.

SCHOLARSHIP ENDERSHIP TORCHLIGHT SERVICE

ping. President of the local chapter, Joyce Steele, challenged the 31 present members to select those deemed worthy for membership on the basis of their scholarship, lead-ership, character, and service. Joyce stated that no one truly achieves these four ideals but that it is the goal of Torchlight to de-velop a unified character and per-sonality.

sonality. "Scholarship is the goal toward which every high school student has been striving for four years," stated Rose Wharton, who explain-ed that her gold stole stood for the wealth of scholarship. Royal purple, the color of royal-ty, was worn by Ralph Bright who told the qualifications of a leader. Mary Helen Shelburne, wearing the blue scarf, the emblem of a noble character, defined service as the object of all. White, the color of purity, was as the object of all. White, the color of purity, was worn by Joe Clapp who mentioned the worth of a pure character. Mrs. Edna Earle Randolph, Bible instructor, led the traditional Torchlight devotional, and Susan Leonard, Ann Cole, and Janet Loops provided the musical ac-companiment for the program.

D. O.-D. E. Banquet Set For March 25

Wishing Can Make It So. If .

"Wishing Can Make It So, If . . ." is the theme that was chosen for the eleventh annual D.O.-D.E. Bosses' Banquet which is to be held on March 25 at the Moose Lodge. The banquet, which is designed to promote better relationships be-tween the employer and the em-ployee, will be one of the largest of the 10 previous ones, with more than 300 people attending, includ-ing approximately 95 employers. Besides the employers and the students, representatives of Greens-boro Senior High School, the City School Administrative unit, the Chamber of Commerce, the State Department of Education, the Greensboro Merchants' Associa-tion, the Greensboro Industries Inc., and the press will attend. The decorations will follow the wishing theme, with wishing wells the predominate feature. The pro-gram colors will be white, yellow, and green. Annual Talent Show March 17 has been set as try-out day for the acts which will be presented in the annual Torch-light Talent Show on March 23. Forbes Ramgey, treasurer of the society and chairman of the pro-gram, has issued invitations to par-ticipate to the various organiza-tions and to individual students suggested by the student body. Proceeds from the talent show will be used by the society for the amount of student support will determine the size of th grants. Approximately 30 acts were sug-gested by the students and puint the suggestion box in the front-hall of the main building. Besides the employers and the students, representatives of Greens-boro Senior High School, the City School Administrative unit, the Chamber of Commerce, the State State are the co-ordinate are Jerny Var-ner, Carol Apple, Burt Ozment, Ster are the co-ordinators of the D.O.-D.E, classes.

Planned By Staffers

Planning to embark March 10 on an excursion to New York are six members of the High Life six staff.

staff. Staffers who are going to attend the annual Columbia Scholastic Press Association Convention at Columbia University are Martha Jester, editor; Nancy McGlamery, feature editor; Martha Ann Burnet, proofreader; Martiyn Neerman, ex-change editor; Lynn Cochrane, headline writer; and Miss Paula Abernethy, adviser. Mrs. Arthur Burnet will also accompany the group. They will register at 9 a. m.

group. They will register at 9 a. m. on Thursday and attend several of the sectional meetings, clinics, and lectures offered at the convention. The grand finale of the meeting will be the convention luncheon at 12:45 p. m. on Saturday to be held in the Grand Ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. Time spent in the "wonderful town" will be used in seeing sev-eral broadway plays including "Me and Juliet," "Solid Gold Cadillac," Cinerama, Radio City Music Hall, and television shows. Sight-seeing, shopping, and a little sleeping at the Hotel Taft are also on the agenda.

agenda. On Sunday at 6 p. m., the happy High Lifers will board a south-bound train for home. They will arrive here in time for two or three hours of sleep before they present bright and shining faces in homeroom at 8:45 Monday morn-ing.

Bible Club Hears Flora At Monthly Supper Meet

Over 100 members of the GHS Bible classes heard Mr. Joe Flora, minister of youth at the First Presbyterian Church, speak at their monthly supper held at the Mayfair Cafeteria on Tuesday. Mr. Flora spoke on future voca-tions and the importance of young people's choosing their professions carefully. He cited several inci-dents where people were unhappy in their work because of lack of satisfaction. Miss Lucille Browne, director of satisfaction. Miss Lucille Browne, director of guidance, was present to answer questions concerning scholarships and jobs available to students. Allen Fry has been elected vice-president and is therefore in charge of planning the programs. Presi-dent of the club is Bootsie Fowler. Club adviser is Mrs. Edna Earle Randolph.

Gloria Gilmore Chosen Queen

To Reign Over May Festivities

Queen Gloria Gilmore

Queen Gloria Gilmore fine, Barbara Kennerly, Martha Leonard, Donna Lineberry, Gloria McQueen, Mecia Marsh, Pattie Ann Mumford, Doris Oldham, Nancy Payne, Harriett Perkins, Martha Sue Ray, Henrietta Reed, Beckie Schweistris, Carolyn Staley, Mary Ann Stamper, Joyce Steele, Fran-ces Strothers, June Tew, Lila Ann Tice, Rose Wharton, Kay White, and Patty Wolfe. Those who ran for Sophomore

n for Sophomore were: Jessie Al-

Brooks, Leslie Brown, Ginger

Cole, Shelba Creed, Nancy Dale, Peggy Durham, Mich-ael Gardner, Durham, Mich-ael Gardner, Bobbie Jean Emma Garvin, Bobbie Jean Emma Garvin, Williams Sydna Hall, Diana Harmon, Penny Hines, Nancy Hodgin. Madeline Holley, Hilda Holt, Sally Jordan, Gail Kirkman, Sonya Ledbetter, Jean Loverne, Louise McGhee, Bunnye Marshall, Barbara Mon-nett, Joan Moring, Shelvie Oakes, Carolyn Paschal, Peggy Phillips, Ann Poole, Ann Rountree, Betty Sapp, Caroline Sikes, Shirley Smith, Vicki Steward, Joanne Stone, Nancy Turner, Zade Turner, Becky Walters, Fran Welch, Bob-bie Williams, and Jackie Williams. Candidates for junior attendants were: Margie Boren, Lynn Boren, (Continued on Page Siz)

Building Clark girl receiving the most votes in the Sophomore and Juliana Clark girl receiving the most votes in the Sophomore and Julior Clarkses automatically became the maid of honor. The queen, however was selected by the student body from a ballot composed of the eight highest sensior girls. The runner-up became senior maid of honor.

Marian Cornelius with Jim Jones, and Patty Wolfe with Wayne Wyrick. Juniors—Susan Hege with Buddy Birgil, Sue Simmons with Charles Woods, Kay Wrenn with Tommy Kirkman, and Paddy Sue Wall with Phil Crockett. Sopho-mores—Madeline Holley with Tony Schiffman, Joan Moring with Don-nie Evans, Ann Poole with Jerry Varner, and Zade Turner with Bill Williamson.

he May Court was elected by student body. Three girls were selected from each home room

Williamson.

The

senior maid of honor. Nominees for senior attendants were: Ann Alexander, Kaye Ban-ner, Betty Bell, Barbara Brown, Jo Frances Bullard, Betty Carson, Tini Rae Chambers. Mary Frances Colvert, Marian Cornelius, Rose Edwards, Bootsie Fowler. Edna Freeman, Gloria Gilmore, Pat Har-rison, Pat Helgesen, Mary Ann Hill, Lillian Holland, Anna Huf-

4.16

Whirligig Officials For '55 Announced ping. For SS Announced Editor and Business Manager for the 1954-55 WHIRLIGIG have been announced by Miss Virginia Powell, book adviser. Juniors Susan Graham and Sally Durham, respectively, will fill the top positions. Other members of the literary and business staffs will be announced later in the spring. Plans for the new book are already under way, and Susan is supervising the making of pictures and making a tentative layout Sally is planning the financing o next year's annual. Susan came to GHS last fall from Curry High School and is at pres-ent assistant copy editor of the WHIRLIGIG. Sally was a member of this year's business staff.