'Your Show Of Shows' Class Day Theme

Awards Day Honors 75 In Wed. Assembly

Over 75 awards were presented during the annual Awards Day assembly on Wednesday.

Chief speaker for the occasion was Philip Weaver, superintendent of public instruction in the city schools. A former baseball and basketball star at Duke, he said that the awards were to be given to people who did more than their best.

Mr. Routh was in charge of the over-all presentations for the hour and a half program.

Teaching Grant

Miss Mildred Herring, in behalf of the Delta Kappa Gamma teaching sorority, presented a $100 scholarship to Jean Bateman. Miss Mozelle Causey presented to Barbara Massey both the Playmaster and the Debating Cups.

Presenting Forbes Ramsey with his Morehead Scholarship was Mr. L. P. McLendon, Jr., Guilford County alumni representative of the University of North Carolina. Also presented to Ramsey, the student fire chief, by Mr. Hobert Stubbins, were the certificates of merit for the home room fire patrols.

Civitan Awards

Representative of the Civitan Club, Mr. Settle Graham, awarded Kelly Maness the club's annual Good Citizen plaque. For the best

Summer School Session To Begin Wed., June 2

Senior High School summer school will begin Wednesday, June 2, and will continue until Friday, July 9.

School will operate six days per week, and the hours will be from 8 a. m. until 1 p. m. Monday, July 5, will be a holiday.

Fifteen dollars per subject or $25 for two subjects will be the cost. This fee is payable on the day of registration.

Each period will be two and one-half hours long and two subjects will be the maximum allowed any student. The faculty will be chosen from the teachers now at Senior High School.

Students will register by reporting to the auditorium of GHS on Wednesday, June 2, at 9 a. m.

"Bring your tuition fee with you and your schedule will be made at that time. You must register in person," states Mr. A. P. Routh.

Any high school subject for which as many as five students register will be offered.

Any student who successfully passes the work taken will receive credit. No credit will be given on work if a student has more than one unexcused absence, or more than two unexcused tardies.

Haase, Goodman Tie In Sophomore Contest

In the Spring stationery sale, held recently by the Sophomore Class, Joanne Haase and Tim Goodman tied for the first prize of $2.50.

Both students are members of homeroom 4, and each one sold nine boxes of the paper. The first prize of $2.50 and the $1.50 second prize will be divided between them.

Runner-up in the contest were Laura Adams, James King, and Sidney Oliver, who sold eight boxes apiece.

"If Joanne and Tim will come by room 304 they may get the prize money," stated Mrs. Smith.

Dependability and the promise of success for the future are the attributes of a senior which make him the hope for the community, the nation, and for democracy. Looking confidently to the future are senior superlatives Bettie Jane Upchurch, the most dependable girl; and Johnny Carroll, the boy most likely to succeed.—(Photo courtesy of J. ### Dr. Bowen Chooses Baccalaureate Topic

"The Beginning of Wisdom" will be the sermon at the Baccalaureate service to be delivered by Dr. Claud B. Bowen, pastor of the First Baptist Church, on Sunday night, May 23.

Music for the service will be by the Senior High School choir under the direction of Miss Eula Tuttle. The choir will sing "Salvation Is Created" and "Breathe On Me Breath of God."

The public is cordially invited to attend the service which will begin at 8 p. m. at the First Baptist Church. Seats will not be reserved for parents of the graduates, so they are urged to come early for the best seats.

Faculty Chooses Garrett

In a recent Faculty Club election, Mrs. Margaret Garrett was chosen to serve as president for the school year 1954-55.

Also elected were Mr. Lody Glenn, vice-president; and Miss Rowena Montague, secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Garrett is also president of the Greensboro English Council, which is made up of teachers in all the city and county junior and senior high schools, and from colleges in this area.

Voyage

With a shield of faith in the future,
Girded by memory;
With a cloak of lessons taught us
We prepare to cross life's sea.

In a boat of short experience
With joy, heartbreak, and fears;
With a tear for things we are leaving,
We face the coming years.

We now approach the parting,
And never again shall meet.
But in our hearts our memories
Shall keep the parting sweet.

There are things we shall always remember,
And others we shall forget.
But tomorrow we shall realize
"We are part of all we have met."
M. J.

Library Books Due

All library books are due on Wednesday, May 19, by 4 p. m. A charge of 25 cents per book per day will be charged for those which are overdue. Report cards will not be issued to students who have not cleared with the library. Books from the library will not be available after May 19.

Faculty Fete Seniors With Graduation Tea

The annual tea given by the faculty for the Senior Class is being held this year in the Alumnae House at Woman's College from 5 o'clock to 6 o'clock on Monday, May 17.

According to tradition, the junior homeroom teachers are in charge of the tea, with Miss Estelle Mitchell heading the group and Mrs. Jean Newman in charge of refreshments.

Punch and cakes will be served in a gold and blue motif, and the entertainment will be music provided by some of the junior members of Mr. Harriman's orchestra.

Swofford Wins Contest For N. C. Math Students

Doyle Swofford, GHS senior, learned last week that he had won the State Mathematics Contest, sponsored by the mathematics department of the University of North Carolina.

Doyle competed against 1160 other students from throughout the state, representing 76 high schools.

Any student is eligible for the contest, but only eight students entered from GHS. One exam is given to each student and is graded on neatness and correctness.

Betty Bell Chairman Planning Committee

"Your Show of Shows" has been selected for the theme of the annual Class Day program scheduled for May 20 in the school auditorium.

The show, which is based on popular television programs, has Betty Bell as its chairman. Her committee consists of Cordelia Goodnight, Martha Jester, Bettie Jane Upchurch, Joe Clapp, Kitten Barringer, Gloria McQueen, Gloria Gilmore, Dawn Barbour, Joyce Steele, and Jimmy Powell.

Forbes Ramsey will be the announcer for the hour and a half program. Featured will be the history of the Seniors' three years at high school.

Face the Place, an episode of the sophomore years at high school, will be announced by Buddy Birgl. Chosen as the typical sophomore was Jack King. Mike Temko will portray a senior squad. As T. V. is not T. V. without commercials, the Class Day committee chose Joe Clapp as the announcer.

Featured on the Talent Scout program with Kelly Maness substituting as Arthur Godfrey, will be three acts; The Queen's Men.

Literary Book Published After 21 Year Absence

HOMESPUN, a literary magazine, made its first appearance in 21 years last Monday.

The book, composed of poetry, short stories, essays, and sketches, was made up entirely of students' work.

Editor of the book was Cordelia Goodnight, while Martha Jester was the business manager. Marilyn Neerman held the position of associate-editor. Amanda McConnell was associate business manager.

Art work was done by Jean Monnett. Adviser for the book was Miss Paula Abernethy. Mr. A. P. Routh served as financial adviser. The editorial staff, composed of Quill and Scroll members included Bettie Jane Upchurch, Martha Burnett, Joe Clapp, Nancy Jo Smith, Nancy McGlamery, Joyce McNamara, Stewart Colson, Kitten Barringer, Dava Cashwell, and Holly Deifell.

Typists for the book were Nancy Parker, Rose Edwards, Charles Whedbee, and Betty McDaniels. Typing advisers were Miss Penelope Bogart and Miss Betty Matthews.

HOMESPUN was last published in 1933 by members of a separate staff, but was discontinued during the following years.

Council Committee Makes Prom Plans

Next Friday night, May 21, is the date set for the annual GHS Senior Prom sponsored by the Student Council for juniors, seniors, and sophomores, and their dates to be held at the Youth Center from 9 p. m. 'til midnight.

The prom is to be a semi-formal affair with dancing to the music of Bob Hill's orchestra. The senior homeroom presidents and Senior Class officers will compose the figure.

Student Council members composing the committee making the prom plans are Frances Strother, chairman, Becky Schweistris, Margie Boren, and Lynn Boren.
