

60% Of Seniors Apply For College

GHS will be well represented at the colleges and universities throughout North Carolina and the United States this fall as approximately 60% of the '54 graduating class are planning to enter these higher institutes of learning.

The majority of graduates are scheduled to attend North Carolina colleges; however, many will travel to various parts of the United States for their first years in college.

Many students plan to enter colleges outside of the state. Among these is Ann Vaden, who will journey down into the deep South to the University of Alabama. Along with Ann will be Susan Rogers, who has applied at Florida Southern.

Scholarship Entrants

Georgia Tech will be invaded by two GHS'ers, Charlie Davis and Burt Ozment, next fall. Charlie is entering on a NROTC scholarship he recently won.

Carol Greenburg and Joy Trollinger have applied for admission to the University of Tennessee in the mountain city of Knoxville.

Numerous GHS graduates will enter North Carolina colleges and universities this fall. Among these is Brevard for which Dale Pearce, Donald Payne, and Joe Kerley have made applications. Another is Davidson, which will be swamped with GHS'ers including Buddy Birgel, Ralph Bright, and Allen Fry. Duval Craven, Fred Wilkenloh, and Phil Crockett have also sent transcripts to this Presbyterian college.

The Duke Blue Devils will have various added attractions this fall as Amanda McConnell, Henrietta Reed, and Nancy Schlag make their grand entrances this September. Other GHS'ers applying at Duke were Carol Greenburg, Ann Inman, Barbara Jamieson, Jane Mulvey, Jan Rankin, Mary Helen Shelburne, Nancy Jo Smith, Mike Temko, Jane Wharton, and Robert Landreth.

Basketball Scholarship

Basketball star, Waddell Solomon, plans to enter East Carolina this fall on a scholarship he won for his outstanding athletic ability. Ernestine Angel has applied at West Carolina.

Fritz Apple, Gwen Christiansen, Cordelia Goodnight, David Sox will invade Lenoir Rhyne as the fall semester rolls around.

GHS gals Jean Robbins, Betty Sawyer, Patty Wolfe, Joyce Owen, Joan Prince, Carolyn Griffin, and Bonnie Gail Wooten plan to study at Mars Hill this fall.

Meredith will be floating with GHS girls next year as Carole Atcheson, Kaye Banner, Bootsie Fowler, Marilyn Park, Frances Stafford, Mary Ann Stamper, Kay White, and Mary Ann Thomas move to Raleigh for a year's stay.

Carolina will receive a large majority of GHS grads next fall as Bob Blanchard, Ken Cates, Joe

Clapp, Stewart Colson, Donnie Evans, Dick Frank, Pete Fry, George Cox, Bob Jackson, Jimmy Jones, Ronald Lamb, David Lambeth, Robert Landreth, Bob Lyons, Kelly Maness, James Maus, Robert Mosely, Thomas Osbourne, Don Patterson, Bill Rightsell, Henry Turner, Bill Turner, Robert Weinstein, John Williams, Van Woltz, Forbes Ramsey, and Ed McDonald plan to study there. In the school of nursing there will be Martha Sue Ray and Jackie Royster. In the dentistry field will be Helen Manger.

Salem Anticipants

Anne Fordham and Lillian Holland leave Senior this year to advance to Salem for their future education.

State College will be overflowing with Senior students next fall, for Tommy Andrews, Jimmy Atwater, Bruce Bryon, Philip Burt, Johnny Carroll, Carole Cofer, Gus Costas, Ryan Crutchfield, Robert Cybrynski, Jerry Eller, Ed Fisher, Dick Fitchett, Herbert Cox, James Franklin, Gordon Gentry, John Hoover, Benton Ham, Jack King, Hal McNeeley, George Makely, Rudy Marshburn, James Maus, Wayne Miller, Harold Nicholson, Dan O'Connor, Burt Ozment, Robert Parker, Archie Redell, Spencer Satterfield, Bob Strandberg, Bill Sullivan, Larry Welker, Dan Wood, and Dick Yow plan to enter the capital school next fall.

Patsy Addison, Nancy Ault, Stewart Cass, Betty Colmer, George Cox, Charles Highfill, Anna Huffine, Jimmy Powell, Nancy Jo Smith, Gary Stevens, Hunter Stone, Perry Teague, Joan Prince, and Edna Freeman have sent applications for admission to Wake Forest.

Stay-At-Homes

At Greensboro College will be Carolyn Boone, Dawn Barbour, Dot Bristol, Ernest Jones, Nancy McGlamery, Jimmy Price, Jerry Sherrill, Burdett Shope, Chester Wood, Eddie Fitchett, Ronald Pleasants, John Taylor, Sammy Walker, and Wollodene Horton have made applications for Guilford College.

Elon College will be invaded by Betty Carson, Greta Lucas, Louise Hughes; while Joyce Steele and Julia Ann Glass will journey to High Point College for their future learning.

Good ole Woman's College heads the list with the following girls having sent transcripts: Ann Alexander, Nan Ayers, Raoula Bach, Jean Bateman, Cynthia Bivins, Virginia Brauns, Barbara Connor, Mary Louise Davis, Jalna Eaton, Julia Edwards, Sandra Farmer, Helen Fields, Jane Geringer, Gloria Gilmore, Cordelia Goodnight, Pat Helgesen, Janice Hepler, Mary Ann Hill, Eloise Hughes, Claire Jacoby, Martha Jester, Mary Ellen Kaelin, Barbara Kennerly, Vivian Lindsay, Donna Lineberry, Greta Lucas, Joyce McNamara, Jane Mulvey, Marilyn Neerman, Elizabeth O'Neal, Annette Patton, Nancy Payne, Jan Rankin, Carole Smith, LaReeta Stanley, Lila Ann Tice, Mary Trantham, Dawn Tucker, Betty Upchurch, Rose Wharton, Jean Monnet, Carole Atcheson, aPitie Mumford, Patsy Addison, Mary Ellen Rierson, Frances Strother, and Marian Cornelius.

Temko Undecided

Yale, Harvard, Dartmouth, and the University of Pennsylvania have received transcripts from Mike Temko.

Betty Bell, Barbara Brown, Lucinda Holderness, and Mary Helen Shelburne plan to enter Randolph Macon next fall.

Sullins will receive one GHS'er next fall, Betty Joyner. Barbara Massey has applied for entrance at Northwestern.

Virginia colleges will get several Senior students next fall. Sara Bundy will enter Madison College; Kitten Barringer, Marshall College; and Miranda Godwin, Mary Baldwin.

CARTER'S CLASSES HOLD

During the last six weeks the members of Miss Maude Carter's English six classes held a short story contest of their own. Harvey Knox won first place.

Organizer, City Officials Install Local AY Chapter

Allied Youth presented its first program at assembly on Friday, May 7.

The devotion was given by Terry Garrison. Accompanied by George Bartholemew, Fritz Apple sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Roy Bregg, who came to Greensboro several weeks ago, expressed his appreciation for the interest of the 240 members of GHS. He stressed that Allied Youth was not a "thou shalt not group," but that the purpose of the association was to preserve the American way of life. Mr. Bregg presented GHS's charter of Allied Youth to Donnie DeSanto. Four symbols of Allied Youth were given to the officers. The torch, expressing knowledge, was given to the president. The shield, a symbol of alertness, was given to the vice-president. Elinor Staniford. The wreath a symbol of victory, was given to the secretary, Terry Garrison.

Boyd Morris, mayor pro-tem, stressed the importance of leadership. He stated the necessity of standing up for what one thinks is right.

Mrs. Tom Hoyle, president of the city P. T. A., expressed her joy and happiness for the association of Allied Youth. Mrs. A. K. Maness, GHS's P. T. A. president, Reverend William Curry, and Doctor Joe Garrison all endorsed their hopes of a brilliant future for Allied Youth.

Mr. Herman Davis of the Alcoholic Board of Greensboro, offered his utmost cooperation to the program of Allied Youth.

Mr. Worth Williams, who was once an alcoholic, said that Allied Youth would find the right way of life for many young people.

The last speaker, Mr. Ben L. Smith, superintendent of schools greatly commended the program of Allied Youth. He said that no matter how hard young people find it to make their own decisions, it is urgent that they do so.

Senior Day Planned

(Continued from Page One)

Amanda McConnell playing "The Hot Canary" on the violin, and a duet by Bob Standberg and June Tew.

Proving People Are Funny is a group portraying picture taking time for the Whirligig. Tony Stone is the photographer and Lucille Childress, Mary Ellen Kaelin, Joyce McNamara, Dale Pearce, and Mary Helen Shelburne complete the cast.

Highlighting the program will be the Cavcade of Sports with Kenneth Cates. He will present representative members of the high school sports.

Dorothy Kilgallen's Voice of Broadway will be represented by Gloria McQueen who will give the prophecy. Kitten Barringer has written the last will and testament for the Class—Strike It Rich.

Climaxing the show will be The Toast of the Town, the GHS superlatives of this year's class.

Closing the show will be the choir singing their rendition of "Through the Years" and the farewell speech of the class president, Jimmy Powell.

Bob Standberg is in charge of stage decorations and Kitten Barringer, properties.

Bob's committee consists of Bob Gamble, Tony Stone, Bill Rightsell and members of the stage crew.

THE JEWEL BOX

134 South Elm Street

Greensboro's
Leading Gift Store

For

Over 30 Years

CASS JEWELERS

105 WEST MARKET ST.

PHONE 7347

GREENSBORO N. C.

CONGRATULATIONS, SENIORS

CAROLINA REMNANT SHOP

COME AND SEE US FOR

YOUR NEW SUMMER WARDROBE

2142 Lawndale Drive

Phone 52080

FISHER'S BEAUTY SALON

2162 LAWDALE DRIVE
EXPERT SHAPING AND STYLING
DIAL 4-3346

Welcome, Students

WE FURNISH THE HOME COMPLETE
ON TERMS YOU CAN EASILY MEET!

MILLER FURNITURE CO.
314-316 S. ELM ST.

NEW CAFETERIA

For Downtown
Parking Convenience
and
For Best Service
For Your Car

Glenn Welch's
Gulf
Filling
Station

121 NORTH DAVIE