

HIGH LIFE

From the Gate City of the South and the Birthplace of O. Henry

VOLUME XXXIII

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL, GREENSBORO, N. C. OCT. 19, 1956

NUMBER 3

Senior High Schedules Annual College Day

Representing the many groups which will be in charge of College Day is a planning board consisting of ten members. They are seated, from row, left to right, Kitty Wagener, library; Jean Ogburn, Torchlight; and Ruth McCulloch, D.O.-DE. Standing in the second row left to right are Ronda Lee, Home Economics; Camille Merriman, Student Council; Martha Harris, D.O.-DE; and Linda Meyers, Miss Lucille Browne's secretary. The boys standing left to right are Stratton Eldridge, Library; David Craig, Torchlight; and Bill O'Brien, Student Council. Also on the committee although not pictured is Nancy Brothers from Home Economics.

Merriman Receives Pin At Local DAR Meeting

Camille Merriman, GHS's outstanding citizen last year, received her pin of recognition at the October 12 meeting of the Rachel Caldwell chapter of DAR and made an acceptance speech for herself and the seven other high school DAR-sponsored best citizen who also attended the meeting.

The DAR best citizen will fill out a questionnaire this year, instead of making a scrapbook as in previous years. This questionnaire will consist of various subjects on which the girls' own opinions will be expressed rather than just a compilation of facts and figures. Two state winners will be selected on the basis of the questionnaire, and each will be presented a $100 savings bond. The national organization will give one of the bonds to a winner from each state, while the states themselves will give a bond to the other winner.

DAR best citizens must come from the Senior Class and should be chosen by the following qualifications, as written by the National Society of DAR: dependability, which includes truthfulness, loyalty, and punctuality; service, which includes cooperation, courtesy, and consideration of others; leadership, including personality, self-control, and the ability to assume responsibilities; and patriotism, which covers unselfish interest in the family, school, community, and nation.

Morning Conferences Are Planned For Interested College Applicants

College Day, which is an annual event at Greensboro Senior High, will occur October 24 from 9 a. m. until 3 p. m. with representatives from approximately 75 colleges and universities attending.

This year Guilford College and Curry High School will participate with Senior High in the day's events.

From 9 a. m. until noon all juniors and seniors at Senior who wish will be excused from classes for one hour to consult with the college counselors of their choice. Students will report to their regularly assigned class and get from their subject teacher permission to go to the boys' gymnasium where the conference will be. Possession of a college preference blank stamped "College Day" will be the basis for this preference. Blanks will be given to home room teachers.

Parents are urged to come since the purpose of College Day is to arrange a situation in which high school students and their parents can conveniently confer with the representatives from a number of colleges and learn of the advantages and courses each offers.

Class Sales, Project To Support Whirligig

Senior High School's Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Classes have been conducting sales for the past few weeks to raise money to support the publication of WHIRLIGIG, Senior High School's annual.

Mrs. Martha Hundley and Mrs. Eloise Keefer, members of the commercial department, were the faculty advisers for the Sophomore Class pencil sale. According to Mrs. Hundley, "The Sophomore Class has had a very successful sale of football pencils." After the selling of 1590 pencils, the goal of 100 per cent sales was reached. Leading the project was Mrs. Joann Taylor's home room 304 selling 117 pencils totalling $11.70.

Advising the Junior Class sale was Mrs. Jean Newman. As of the last report, the junior stationery sale has taken in $201. Boxes of monogram stationery were in such demand that an additional order of 300 boxes has been placed. Another project of the Junior Class is the selling of "relax-a-backs" which will be on sale at all future football games for the price of 25 cents.

The Senior Class raised almost all of its money for WHIRLIGIG by the selling of football ribbons.

MISS LUCILLE BROWNE

Miss Lucille Browne, director of the Guidance Service, Greensboro Public Schools, suggests that all students study the college catalogues available in both the library and guidance center and inquire also in the guidance center about the available scholarships.

The things to look for are the required entrance credits, costs, social life, curriculum, extra-curricular activities, when to send in applications, available scholarships or self-help, and the specialization of the college in line with the student's major, such as forestry and business administration.

Working along with the traffic squad on College Day will be 40 hosts and hostesses, who will be selected from Torchlight, the Home Economics Department, Student Council, D.O. office practice classes and library assistants. These are the student groups sponsoring College Day.

(Continued on Page Nine)

Quill And Scroll Invites Students For Membership

Quill and Scroll has issued letters of eligibility to 18 HIGH LIFE and WHIRLIGIG staff members, according to Ann Butler, president.

In order to become a member of this organization, a student must be on either the HIGH LIFE or WHIRLIGIG staff, and have a scholastic average of 90 or above. Another requirement for admittance to the club is that the prospective entrant must submit an example of his literary achievement, such as an essay, poem, or short story, to a panel of judges.

Around 12 of the 18 eligible will be taken into Quill and Scroll. Those notified submitted a literary entry Wednesday, October 17, and those accepted will be announced in the next issue of HIGH LIFE.

HIGH LIFE staff members who qualify for admission to the organization are Elwood Hartman, Bonnie Adelstein, Judy Shallant, Frances McCormick, Betty Rose, Jane Parkins, Add Penfield, and Max Snodderly.

Kay Wood, Maranell Pearsall, Angelyn Stokes, Al Hattaway, Ann Wheeler, Katherine Polk, Doris McCraw, Nancy Hewett, Peggy

Sink, and Susan Levine are the WHIRLIGIG staff members invited to submit work for judging.

The chief project of Quill and Scroll is the publishing of HOMESPUN, a literary magazine containing original compositions by GHS students. This magazine will appear sometime next spring.

In addition to Ann the organization consists of Mary Lou Hutton, and Jane McLennon, both seniors. Miss Peggy Ann Joyner, HIGH LIFE adviser, is also adviser to Quill and Scroll.

Five Delegates To Attend State Council Convention

Delegates have been chosen from the Student Council to attend the North Carolina Student Council Association Convention which will take place at New Hanover High School, October 21-23 in Wilmington, North Carolina.

Bill O'Brien, as state president of the association, will head the group which consists of Sandra Holderness, school secretary; Buck Hoyle, vice-president of the school; Bob Baynes, traffic chief; and Jay Diefell, school treasurer.

Sandra, Bob, and Jay will attend as official delegates, each having a vote. Sandra will be nominated by the Greensboro group for the office of state secretary. Bill, as president of the convention, will conduct the business of the convention and has no voting power except in the event of a tie. Buck is planning to attend as a discussion leader. The group will be in Wilmington from Sunday, the 21, to Tuesday, the 23.

Twerp Night At Open House This Eve; Youth Recreation Committee Has Plans

Many plans for programs and activities were arranged by the Youth Recreation Committee for the coming weeks.

Bridge classes are scheduled for each Tuesday afternoon beginning October 23 and continuing through December 4, including instruction for beginning and advanced bridge players. The leader of these classes will be Mrs. William Holderness, an accomplished bridge player. Libby Garvin, chairman of the Youth Recreation Committee says, "Opportunities like this do not come but ever so often, so all of those interested in bridge be sure to give your support to these lessons."

For those who have not yet learned to dance and those who want to improve their technique, dancing lessons will be given Wednesday afternoons in the girls' gym. All types of ballroom dancing will be taught by Mrs. Eleanor Lambert, the girls' physical education teacher.

Every afternoon, Monday through Thursday, from 3:30 through 5, the girls' gym will be open for informal open house. A jukebox with the latest hit tunes was installed in the gym by Fred Ayers. Libby asks for the help of the student body in keeping it nice and in putting it to use. Mr. Ayers has said that if this present juke box is taken care of and there seems to be a need for it, he will see that Senior gets a new and larger model. He also stated that if it is not taken care of, it will be removed.

"There will also be ping-pong tables and other games. All these afternoon classes and activities are still in the trial stage and will be continued as long as there seems to be the interest and cooperation from the students," Libby said.

There will be three more open houses during the football season. Attendance has been exceptionally good thus far. Total profits have reached slightly over $300. This money will be used for the benefit of Senior High Students.

Each remaining open house has a special theme. Tonight, October 19, will be Twerp Night, when the girls escort the boys. The following two open houses will be Halloween and Homecoming. The Homecoming dance is going to be from 10 till 12 and is tentatively scheduled as a Sock Hop.

The folks on the Recreation Committee say "Y'all come" tonight 'cause we're gonna 'giddy-up all night long' but please remember the serules of conduct."

1. All activities are solely for the high school students unless otherwise specified.

2. There will be no smoking in the buildings at any time.

3. Conduct becoming ladies and gentlemen is expected at all times.

4. Membership cards are not transferable, and any violation of this or the above mentioned rules shall result in the removal of privileges for Y. R. C. activities and the removal of membership cards for the remainder of the year.

Coming School Events Shown On Calendar

- October 19—Football, Danville—here. Open house.
- October 22—Report cards.
- October 24—College Day.
- October 26—Football, Salisbury—here. Open house.
- October 30—Assembly, juniors, seniors, one-half sophomores.
- Band Concert