'Sea Wife' To Show; Also 'Hatful Of Rain'

Starting Sunday and playing through Tuesday at the CAROLINA Theatre is "Sea Wife," starring Richard Burton. Joan Collins, and Basil Sydney.

This is a story of a group of people thrown together by accident and their reactions to their adventures.

Starting Wednesday and playing through Saturday is the Broadway stage hit "A Hatful of Rain." The cast for this includes Eva Marie Saint, Don Murray, Anthony Franciosa, and Lloyd Nolan. "A Hatful of Rain" tells the story of Johnny Pope, a young man who is "hooked" by the narcotics "habit" while being treated for war wounds.

Don Murray, one of Hollywood's fastest rising young actors, portrays Johnny, while Academy Award winner Eva Marie Saint plays his young wife Celia.

Johnny's well-intentioned brother "Polo" is played by Anthony Franciosa, who created this part on the New York stage. —Ad.

New Members

Initiating the seven new sophomores was an exciting task for the ESA members. New initiates are Sandra Ball, Lynn Bowles, Kathy McLeod, Sally Ogburn, Judy Stone, Ann Waters, and Lynn Westmoreland. Being dressed in old clothes and gathering cigarette butts were the main objects of the initiates this year. After completing this, they were accepted as full-fledged club members.

Sub Projects

Now the ESA's are busy making plans for their annual fall dance to be given with the WST's the latter part of this month. The girls will first have a spaghetti dinner at a member's house. After the dance there will be a breakfast followed by a slumber-

DDT's
Marsha Bumpass had all DDT members and dates over for an open house given by the club members September 28. Afterwards, Jane Hinton, sophomore, entertained at a slumber party.

The Plantation Supper Club was the destination of the DDT's and dates just before school when the club had a party celebrating the opening of school.

Lynn Boyce, Lee Groome, Jane Hinton, Kay Lindley, and Dewitt Morrisett are claimed by the DDT's this year as its new members.

Les Soeurs

New members, Blanche Bonner, senior; Linda Suddreth, junior, Judy Andrews, Lacy Coble, Libby Cooke, Barbara Ellis, Elaine Ellis, Ann Glascock, Judy Moring, Patsy Parker, Penny Taliaferro, Mickey Turner, and Martha Watson, sophomores, were initiated into the LES SOEURS at the first football game. Afterwards the members and their dates attended an open house at Blanche Bonner's and a slumber party at the home of Betsy Stevens.

Sub Activities

Last week the club had a Plantation Party, and plans are now being made for a fish fry to be followed by an open house and slumber party.

Pictures were taken of the club members for the annual at their regular club meeting, Wednesday, September 18.

LSP's
Wednesday, September 25, the LSP members had a cook-out at the home of Bonnie Sikes, club social chairman.

Members voted on the club adviser for the school year of 1957-58. They decided to have two ex-saints as advisers, Patty Slade and Betty Kernodle, students at WC.

Syitt Club

Officers of the SYITT Club for this school year are Hugh Blair, president; Wellford Lineweaver, vice-president; Allen Andrew, secretary-treasurer; Jim McGregor, chaplain; and Tommy Kitzmiller, sergeant-at-arms.

October 5 is the date the club has set to have its first party. Members and dates will attend, with several honorary members home from college.

Miss Bobbie Cook

Although she's as pretty as a flower, Bobbie Cook, senior member of the LSP's, JCL Club, and on the HIGH LIFE staff, will never have to worry about being that certain kind of flower when she wears to the coming fall dance this lovely creation from Ellis Stone fashion floor.

Made of nylon tulle and lace, its fashionable bodice is halter style.

Ellis Stone has just received a complete line of evening wear from designers such as Nat Cantor, Cottillion, and Will Steinman. The price range is from $22.95 to $49.95 for the short length and from $25 to $89.95 for the floor length. Fabrics for this year are tulle, laces, iridescent taffeta, satin, velvet, and ponceau crystal, in the new jewel colors.
