History Honor Society Organizes; Club Elects Hinshaw Top Officer

Greensboro Senior High's newest organization, the History Honor Society, conducted its first full meeting, Tuesday, April 7, at 7:30, highlighted by the election of officers and a discussion led by a local editor.

Bill Hinshaw, senior, who served as the chairman of the steering committee which established the society, was elected president.

Senior Bob Stanley was chosen vice-president and senior Martha Jordan was elected secretary-treasurer. Mr. Robert Fredrickson was named the adviser.

Holley Mack Bell, associate editor of the Greensboro DAILY NEWS led a discussion on the "Cultures of the World".

Around 30 juniors and seniors were taken into the group after a review of petitions for membership. Membership is open to students who have maintained a 90 average or better in the history courses they have taken high school and evidence an interest in discussing and doing research in history and current affairs.

The club constitution provides that members be inducted twice yearly.

The History Honor Society is scheduled to conduct two meetings each month.

The charter members of the group are seniors Bill Hinshaw, Angie Davis, Bob Stanley, Martha Jordan, and Clyde Wilson, and juniors, Lynn Westmoreland, Sue Wade and Henry Poole.

The History Honor Society plans to conduct meetings twice monthly for which public figures will be secured as speakers and discussion leaders where possible.

Los Condes Will Change Name; Club To Be Called Jr. Jaycees

Los Condes, which affiliates with the Greensboro Junior Chamber of Commerce, will change its name to Junior Jaycees at the beginning of the school year 1959-1960.

Organized four years ago, Los Condes has participated with the Greensboro Jaycees in various activities such as paper drives, soapbox derbies, and the annual Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament.

Plans are being discussed to help Mr. Glenn in his parking lot improvement program. To be continued is the annual $300 Scholarship and the "Athlete of the Week" Bulletin Board, which will be supplemented by "Most Val-able Player" awards for football, basketball, and baseball, and a trophy for the "Athlete of the Year" award.

Included in the club's projects this past year have been the donation of the Whirlie-bird, (which was portrayed by sophomore Bill Good) and the presentation of the bench-warmers for the Whirlie team. The club has also participated in many service projects for the city.

Los Condes meets in the newly remodeled club room of the S&W Cafeteria. Advised by Mr. Phil Magruder, the club's executive committee consists of Hal Greeson, Bennie Team, Bill Banner, Blake Tharin, and Jimmy Harris.

Elections Eminent

Senior High students will ballot Wednesday, April 15, to select student body and class officers for 1959-60; voter registration for the election will be conducted April 13-14.

Candidates were narrowed down to two for each of the major offices and trimmed to just double the number of seats available on the Student Council and Youth Recreation Council by home room primaries, Wednesday, April 8.

Because no more than two candidates filed for any major student body office the election activities do not include the traditional nominating convention.

Candidates were presented to their fellow students in assembly Thursday, April 2, when nominees for the six student body offices and the class presidencies kicked off their campaigns with speeches and skits.

Concert Band To Present Music At New York Clinic

GROUP TO PERFORM AT NEW YORK U.

GHS's Concert Band has been selected to play at a clinic for teachers, student teachers, music majors, and directors, which will be held in New York.

The band will leave Greensboro at 12 noon Thursday, April 30, on three chartered busses. They will spend the night in Delaware, New Jersey, and the next day will continue on the way to New York.

While in New York, the band will stay at the Picadilly Hotel. They will present a concert at the New York University, located in Greenwich Village. Besides playing at the University, they will give a concert at a school on Long Island. At these concerts, the band will play several numbers, among which are: "Italian in Algeria," by Rossini, "Prelude and Love Death" Wagner, "Roman Carnival," Beriloz, and "Zampa Overture" which was written by Herold. On the lighter side the band will entertain with the score some marches. Two numbers fur-some marches. Two numbers further will be "On the Esplanade," by Baron and "Valzer Compestre," by Marinazzi.

The band, however, will have some enjoyment for itself. They are planning to see the Broadway musical, Music Man. Several other plays and musicals will be taken in by various individuals. Among these plays will be West Side Story and the popular hit, My Fair Lady. Some of these tickets have already been received by Mr. Hazleman. Present plans of some band members include their visiting Radio City Music Hall.

The fun and work will terminate early Sunday morning, when the band will begin the long trip back to Greensboro. They expect to arrive home around eight o'clock, Sunday night.

The cost of the trip will run into the thousands of dollars. Last week, the members of the GHS band were raising some money by selling tickets to the annual Barbershop Quartet show at $1.50 each. The quartets sang Saturday, April 14, with a successful attendance. They also sold tickets to the concert recently given by the bands and orchestra. They now are planning to sell tickets to the Air Force Band concert.

HOMESPUN Exact's Praise Of Librarian

GHS's literary publication, HOMESPUN, has received praise from a college professor and a librarian.

The compliments came from Richard Walser, member of the English Department at North Carolina State College and William Powell, Librarian of North Carolina Collection, UNC Library.

Mr. Walser is currently president of the North Carolina Literary and Historical Society. He is also author of two books concerning North Carolina arts; North Carolina Poetry and North Carolina Drama. As Mr. Walser is constantly looking for works of young writers, he commented that he was glad to know of writing talent "up this way."

Mr. Powell expressed praise for the contents of the magazine, noting especially the works of Frank Harmon and Richard Windham.

HOMESPUN's 1959 issue was released for sale to GHS students March 18.
