

School Year Closes As Seniors Present Class Play

End of the year school activities are all either in the final stages of planning or already have been completed.

Class Day, the day of extra-special privileges for and an assembly by, the senior class, took place last period. The theme of the assembly centered around the idea of a model school exhibit at the World's Fair.

Whit Payne starred as guide to show the audience around the school. He introduced Mr. Goof, the principal ("Moon" Mullins), Jolly Grin, assistant principal (Bob Millikan), and Miss Plywood, dean of women (Jeanne Bunton), in the office, and in the music department Miss Tootle (Gail Walters) and Mr. Hazelnut (Marty Goldfarb). Bill Tucker was stationed in the audience to offer wisecracks. Students selected for superlatives were presented to the student body.

Over one hundred seniors, approximately one-fifth of the entire Senior class, were involved in Class Day preparations. Parker Norman was general chairman and director. Miss Peggy Ann Joyner served as faculty advisor for Class Day, and Miss Jeanne Meredith was senior class advisor.

Keith Gullede, president of the Senior class, attended all meetings for Class Day, which plans were begun in September.

Script committee meetings were held on Friday afternoons from October to late this school year. Carolyn Rich was chairman of this committee with help from Randy Miller and Charlie Perry.

Committee Heads

In addition to many technical workers, there were committees for scenery and props. Alice Crutchfield headed the prop committee. Ann Jamieson was in charge of scenery, and Ann Lashley and John Brennan worked as her sub-chairmen.

A tea was held for the Seniors last Wednesday afternoon at the Alumni House at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. The seniors came dressed in the traditional hats and glove for the girls and suits for the boys. The Grimsley High Faculty was on hand to serve punch, and provide small talk, and otherwise keep things running smoothly. Members from the Grimsley High orchestra provided soft music for the event.

Awards Day

This year Awards Day became Awards Day when two assemblies were held to honor outstanding students. Scholastic awards were presented Tuesday, May 19, and athletic awards followed on the next day, May 20.

Many students were honored on these days. The purpose of Awards who have been academically, and Day is to give homage to students otherwise outstanding in their school years at Grimsley High School. The school feels that those students who have so served the school ought to be done a service by being given recognition for their deeds.

Wearing traditional caps and gowns, seniors will take their final steps as part of Grimsley High Life Thursday night, June 4, at 8:00. The Reverend Allen C. McSweeney will speak to the class and their guests at graduation. Following the exercises volunteers from the Future Teachers of America (FTA) chapter at Grimsley will fold robes as a service to the teachers.

Sub-Juniors Present Check To Library

Shiela Knedlic, President of the Sub-Junior Woman's Club, presented a check for one hundred dollars to Miss Herring, Grimsley High School librarian at the Awards Day assembly on Tuesday, May 18.

Shiela served as president of the club during the past school year. The money is to be used for new magazine covers to protect invaluable reference materials, the club members raised the money through a candy sale, their annual money-making project.

Miss Herring, for several years, has been interested in procuring covers for the magazines.

Officers Elected

Newly elected Sub-junior officers for the year 1964-1965 are Ellen Huffines, President; Susan Stansbury, Vice President; Marion Stubbins, Secretary; and Pat Osborne Treasurer. Various committee chairmen are Mary Dee Wingate and Cathy Lilburn, Projects chairmen; Barbara Allen and Susan Thorpe, Communications chairmen; Jane Dowman, Programs chairman; Becky Armstrong, Points chairman; Alice Easterling, Courtesy chairman; Dottie Best, Chaplain; Lynn Wentworth, Membership chairman; and Jane Turpin, Historian.

The club has also made many more contributions to the school and community through its worthwhile projects. Representatives from the club have collected money for just about every drive held in the city. Last Saturday they participated in the annual Poppy Sale.

Plans For Another Exchange Student Made

Grimsley's chapter of the Interact Club has decided to try to make the sponsorship of an exchange student an annual project. In connection with this aim, the Rotary Club here in Greensboro along with the Interact Club at GHS have sent letters to Rotary Clubs in Europe and South America.

In order for arrangements to be made for the arrival of the new student, basic plans, such as transportation, where the person will stay, and part of his activities, are being made.

Omission

HIGH LIFE regrets that the name which should have appeared with one of the letters in the last issue was missing. Our apologies go to Candy Sauer.
