

MEAC Football Trivia

Answers on page 11

Questions:

1. What Bethune Cookman College quarterback led the MEAC in total offense in 1987?
2. What MEAC team had four of the leagues sixth leading receivers last season?
3. What 1987 MEAC team led the conference in scoring defense?
4. Who was the MEAC's top rated passer in 1987?
5. What Howard University runningback led the conference in TD's scored in 1987?
6. Who led the MEAC in tackles last season?
7. Who led the conference in interception in 1987?
8. Who was the MEAC's first All-Conference QB?
9. What four A&T Aggies made the All-Conference offensive unit in 1975?
10. What MEAC team has placed the most players on the All-Conference Team from 1971-1987?
11. In 1981 who was the MEAC's All-Conference punter?
12. Who was the 1985 All-Conference QB in the MEAC?
13. What MEAC team has the single regular season record for points scored?
14. What is the least amount of points scored for in a season against an MEAC team?
15. What team allowed the most points scored against them in a season?
16. What MEAC team had the most point scored against them in a game?
17. What is the leagues highest scoring conference game?
18. What is the lowest scoring conference game in the MEAC?
19. What MEAC team has the record for the most shut out in a season?
20. What MEAC team has the record for the most passes thrown in a season?

Crown Drugs

"The Prescription People"

Open 365 Days
A Year

Service, Selection & Savings

Collick, Hornets Are MEAC's Sleeper

By Malcolm A. Pharr

After posting a 7-3 mark overall and 4-1 record in the MEAC, the Hornets are prepared to challenge the Howard Bison for the crown in 1988.

Coach William Collick, who has been associated with Hornets football since 1981 returns seven offensive and six defensive starters from 2 years ago. It would be an understatement to say that the Hornets are enthusiastic about the upcoming campaign. They are young enough to avoid serious injury (10 seniors on roster) and experienced enough to win close games.

Always a strong rushing team, the Hornets must balance their attack with the pass in order to seriously challenge Howard University.

A battle is brewing for the quarterback slot in the Hornets camps with senior Mike Walker (6-2, 190) and junior Darren Felton (6-0, 200). Both operate the Delaware State wing-t well, but neither has shown the passing efficiency the Hornets will need in '88.

Senior halfback Reggie Barnes (5-11, 210) burned the opposition for over 600 yards and nine TD's a year ago; junior John Barber and sophomore Robert Bethea will fill the void left by All-MEAC Terrence Hoover.

Junior Tim Egerton (5-11, 165) will share time at wide receiver with 6-4, 215 pounds Mike Riddick. Egerton nabbed 21 passes for 384 yards, while Riddick hauled in eight passes for 152 yards a year ago. Senior tight end Mike Delon (6-4, 220), who caught nine passes for 153 yards last season, returns to the Hornets stable.

The offensive line with 6-3, 270 pound guard Justin Proctor and 6-2, 290 pound tackle Charles Loney will lead the Hornets surge along with Lee Johnson. The center position is presently a "dead heat" between 6-1, 270 pound sophomore Cordie Greenlea and "Little" Bruce Wright. ("Little" Bruce is 6-5, 300 pounds.)

The kicking duties will belong to two-time All-MECA place kicker senior David Parkinson. Parkinson nailed 38 of 40 extra points and hit on 11 of 23 field goal attempts last season. Tim Egerton will handle the kick-off receiving duties for the Hornets along with Bethea and Riddick.

The defense will be anchored by interior lineman Dan Paskins (6-3, 255) and senior Rod Bratcher (6-2, 260). Juniors Corey Felton (6-4, 220) and Mike McCain (6-3, 240) are the likely starters. Ray Knott and Greg Johnson will also give the Hornets the defensive prowess needed for the "bees".

Junior Eric Wainwright is the Hornets most noted linebacker this season. Wainwright averaged seven tackles per game and intercepted five passes (two for TD's). Fellow junior starter Clint Bethea also returns. Andrew Logullo heads the list for the open slot.

The secondary is in great shape this season with senior strong safety Marvin Bright (6-3, 205), Reggie Johnson, Eric Dine, and junior Marc Ware. Bright averaged seven tackles a game and Johnson stole four interceptions in 1987.

The Hornet's Nest is strong enough to prevent the Howard Bison from repeating. The pressure is obviously on the Bison, since no team has repeated in the MEAC in the past five seasons.

895 Peters Creek Pkwy
Winston-Salem, NC
(919) 773-1395

4117 Romaine St.
Greensboro, NC
(919) 299-1395

329 No. Main St.
High Point, NC
(919) 884-8774

DRIVING SCHOOL
FRANK BREWER
Owner, Instructor

State Licensed

in NC

Insured