HOLIDAY SEASON END-OF-YEAR ISSUE

Cleveland Avenue Spruces Up

EWDCDC believes that human development is a key ingredient for economic development to flourish and seeks to prove it with its rehab efforts on 36 Cleveland Avenue apartments. Page 7.

Fighting Holiday Blues

Not everyone is full of Christmas Spirit this time of the year. Holiday depression can drive some people over the edge, according to Phoenix Managing Editor, Patricia Smith-Deering in Crossroads, page 11.

Reclaiming Our Kids

Educating our children has fallen into the hands of a system that no longer has the Black community's interest at heart, according to Sam Davis, Phoenix General Manager, page 14.

Hitler's Strategy At Work

Phoenix Publisher Rodney Sumler asks, "If racist David Duke can be defeated by a Nazi strategy he admires, why do Blacks believe it's not being used to destroy them?" See page 14.

On The Cover....
