

PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENTS

Winston-Salem State Offers Preparatory Courses

Winston-Salem State University is offering a variety of preparatory courses for the SATS from January through May. Participants can enroll for a 40-hour or a 25-hour course, and choose among mathematics and English, math only and English only.

Classes are scheduled for Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays (Section 1); Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays (Section 2) and Saturdays and Sundays (Section 3).

The 40-hour courses for math and English is $300; for math only, $185, and for English only, $140. The 25-hour courses costs, respectively, $200, $130 and $85.

Course Materials are an Additional $15.

Section 1 and 2 meets January 31-March 4; March 21- April 22 and April 25-May 27. Section 3 meets February 5-March 6; March 26-April 24, and April 30-May 29. To register and for additional information, call the Office of Continuing Education, 750-2630

Did You Know That On: Tuesday Jan. 18th

4:00 P.M.

LEADERSHIP WINSTON-SALEM'S 10TH CELEBRATION will be discussed by Annette Scippio of Leadership Winston-Salem

Wednesday Jan. 19th

1:00P.M. "CHILD CARE RESOURCE AND REFERRAL" information will be provided by Denise Battle of the Work/Family Resource Center.

4:00 P.M. "LEARNING AND EARNING OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOUTH" will be discussed by Johnnie Dixon of Job Corps

Thursday Jan. 20th

2:00 P.M. "4-H PROGRAMS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS AGES 6-19" will be presented by Donald Mebane of the Forsyth County Cooperative Extension Services.

3:00 P.M. "CHARACTER BUILDING, CITIZENSHIP TRAINING, PHYSICAL FITNESS AND PATRIOTISM" will be discussed by Carlton Crump of Boy Scouts of America.

Thursday Jan. 27th

3:00 P.M. "CIAA BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT" will be discussed by Clarence "BIGHOUSE" Gaines.

7:00 P.M. "FIRST TIME HOME BUYER'S PROGRAM" will be presented by Jane Bodenhamer of First Union National Bank. All individuals interested in buying a home should attend.

The city of Winston-Salem's Neighborhood Government Services Office at 2301 North Patterson Ave.

LET'S DANCE!

Parents Without Partners Chapter 1086 will hold their university dance on January 22, 1994 at the Elks Club, Silas Creek Parkway, Winston-Salem.

There will be a Social Hour from 8:00-9:00 P.M. with the dance starting at 9:00 P.M. Dress will be Semi-Formal. There will be a cash bar and refreshments. Music will be by Bill Foster, D.J. Admission: $7.00 members--$9.00 non-members.

Contact Person Is: Bob Carduff, (910) 659-267

WHOO! WHOO!

Join Piedmont Environmental Center's Naturalist, Tom Shepherd, as he surveys for owls on PEC's north and south preserves. Participants in the program will learn the techniques of attracting and observing native owls and will have the opportunity to see and hear Great Horned Owls, Barred Owls and Screech Owls. Tom will also interpret owl behavior, nesting strategies, food and habitat preferences.

Owl Howls will begin each night at 10:30 p.m. and conclude at midnight. Participants need to dress for the weather. Fee for the programs is $2.00 for nonmembers and free to PEC members. Reservations are required and can be made by contacting the Center at 910-883-8531.

DEM BONES! DEMBONES!

Have you ever wanted to dig up a fossil? Have you ever held something in your hand that was 40 million years old? Well, dig into fossils with Piedmont Environmental Center.

Join PEC staff and Andy Wood of the Education Department at the North Carolina Aquarium at Fort Fisher February 25-27, 1994 for a three day fossil field study. Fossil formation and collecting, marines fossils, and geologic forces which create fossils and record the past will be examined and interpreted. Additional activities include a sea shell swap, beach combing and birdwatching to round out our activities in this fascinating area.

We will also travel to Wrightsville Beach for a program on the impact of development and offshore activities on the delicate balance of shoreline ecosystems.

Costs range from $110.00 to $130.00 per person and includes transportation, professional fees, guides, accommodations and four meals.

Call Piedmont Environmental Center at 883-8531 for a descriptive brochure.

Program registration limited to 15 participants.

Professional Woman Shaping Our City

Organized Options. Professional Organizing Services for Businesses & Household Event Coordinating. Organizing is more than simply making things appear neat. Organizing is a multi-faceted process which involves knowing what you have, determining what you have that you don't need and establishing a systematic way for handling day-to-day needs.

LaTonya Broome, a Winston-Salem based professional organizer and owner of Organized Options, provides hands-on organizing services and practical tips to assist clients with establishing and maintaining order. Organized Options assists clients in three general areas

Business/Office Organizing-streamlining tasks, eliminating excess paper, creating & defining work space and incorporating the latest organizing techniques to make your business day more efficient

Residential Organizing- from closets to attics, photograph to monthly billing statements, There is a practical and efficient way to maintain order and eliminate continuous apologies for the clutter and disorder overtaking your home.

Event Coordinating -whether it's a wedding, party, reunion, or formal dinner, Organized Options is a one-stop source for acquiring photographers, caterers, musicians, etc and we even have a professional service staff available to assist at show time.

LaTonya Broome is a member of the National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO). When you hire a NAPO member you are hiring an organizer who has continuous opportunities to learn state of the art organizing techniques and professional business skills through the publications and activities of a singular national organizing association.

To learn more about your Organized Options at work, home or for that special event, please call LaTonya Broome at 910-659-8745 for a free consultation. (evening and weekend appointments are available.

FEBRUARY/MARCH OPENING RECEPTION: FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 6:00-8:00 P.M.

WSSU DIGGS GALLERY EDUCATIONAL EVENTS

SUNDAY, 6TH 3:00 P.M. EXHIBIT WALK-THRU with NORMAN PENDERGRAFT, director, NCCU Art Museum.

SUNDAY, 27TH 3:00-4:30P.M. "BEARDEN BLOCK PARTY" Come enjoy the Romare Bearden exhibit, music by Raminiscence Jazz Combo and a poetry reading by Dr. Elwanda Ingram. ALTO COMPOSITE, a Bearden collage on loan courtesy of Reynolda House Museum of American Art will also be exhibited.

MARCH

TUESDAY, 8TH 7:30P.M.

"JOY OF LIFE THROUGH ART & ROMARE BEARDEN" Lecture by Dr. David Driskell, artist and art historian, University of Maryland Author of Two Centuries of Black American Art. THURSDAY, 10TH

7:30P.M. "THE MAKING OF THE AFRICAN-AMERICAN MIND AND THE NEED FOR SOUL THERAPY" Lecture by Reverend Nicholas Cooper Lewter, Ph.D. Author of Soul therapy and Soul Theology, Bethel College, St. Paul, Minnesota.

All Exhibitions are on view February 4-April 9, 1994.

All Events Are Free and Open To The Public.

CELEBRATE BLACK HISTORY WITH THE FORSYTH COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

A series of special events will be held at the Forsyth County Public Library during the month of February as part of the Black History Month observance. Scheduled events include guest lecturer,

Dr. Nat Irvin, Vice Chancellor for Development and University Relations at Winston-Salem State University on Tuesday, February 8 from 7:00 to 9:00 P.M.

Dr. Elwanda Ingram, of Winston-Salem State University will lead a "Brown Bag Lunch" book discussion of Waiting to Exhale, the best selling book by Terry McMillan on Tuesday, February 15 from 12:00 to 1:00 P.M.

Storyteller, Pat Stepney will present "In the Tradition", an hour of storytelling, songs, and activities relating the African experience on Thursday, February 17 from 10:00 to 11:00 A.M. for school age children.

The Healing Force will present "The Rhythm of the Drum", a presentation which shares the rich African culture through music, folklore and dance on Thursday, February 24. This event is suited for all ages. All events are free to the public and will take place in the library auditorium. For more information about these events please call 727-2264

A Woman In Banking

Robin J. Paul has been elected data processing officer of Wachovia Operational Services Corporation in Winston-Salem. She is a technical analyst in the Information Services Group. She has been with Wachovia since 1979.

Mrs. Paul and her husband Charles live in Lewisville and have two sons.

A Banker's Man

Kevin B. Berger has been elected Assistant Vice President of Wachovia Operational Services Corporation in Winston-Salem. He is a lead analyst and programmer in the Information Services Group.

Berger has been with Wachovia since 1990. He is a graduate of State University of New York in Farmingdale. He and his Carla live in Winston-Salem and have three children.

