

WOLVES IN SHEEP CLOTHING

by: LeRoy C. Richardson, Jr.

The election race for the prestigious title, "President of The United States" is once again upon us. Bill Clinton and Bob Dole are campaigning throughout the United States, in their Brooks Brother suits, dazzling the American people with promises of hope for a brighter day. Both candidates share opposing views of how one is more qualified than the other and who possesses the best strategy for making life better for the common people. While listening to them, you notice both candidates share a common interest. That interest: War on crimes, cutting taxes, education and welfare, which is top of the list. My focus is the "War on Crimes". Now, I ask you - who is this war really against?

I strongly advise all readers to pay close attention to this quote taken from an article published by the Wall Street Journal in April of 1988. The writer expressed his viewpoints concerning where society is headed in the future, which reads in part: Within our nation, it has well been established that America is becoming a great melting pot of ethnic groups. Most of these "minorities" are quickly gaining in numbers, all except the Caucasians. It has well been noticed that by the year "2010", the white race as we know it today will become the "minority". To circumvent this, eventually mechanisms for the next decade will be put into place to make sure that the power structure is not passed from their hands to the more populous minority group. The white race is intent on maintaining a society where they, although in the minority, will still be the governing authority. The key word in this quote is "Mechanism", which is defined as: a process or technique for achieving a result. Doesn't this sound as if history is repeating itself?

EXODUS 1:9-10 -

"Look, he said to his people, the Israelites have become much too numerous for us. Come, we must deal shrewdly with them or they will become even more numerous and, if war breaks out, will join our enemies, fight against us and leave the country". Some of these mechanisms used to suppress the black nation are crimes, diseases, poverty, lack of political and economical power, just to name a few. Has it occurred to you, that those in authority are making billions of dollars a year off crimes alone?

Think about this; if crimes didn't exist, thousands of people would be without jobs. The sell and distribution of illegal drugs in our communities is a major problem. America controls the air; the government has satellites that detect activities taking place in neighboring countries. The oceans are crawling with coast guards and submarines; yet, the drug business is booming. My question - how are the drugs getting here and who is responsible?

William Cooper gives an in-depth view into this subject in his book "Behold A Pale Horse". Here's a brief summary: In 1963 a young, aggressive member of the Council on Foreign Relations was approached. This man was George Bush. Surprised?? Bush, who at the time was the President and CEO of the offshore division of Zapata Oil, located in Texas, agreed to help organize the operation in association with the CIA.

Zapata Oil was experimenting with new technology offshore drilling. The plan was brilliant; the drugs would be shipped from South America to offshore platforms by rising boats, then brought to the shores of the United States by normal transportation used for supplies and personnel. All under watchful eye of the CIA. By this method, no customs or law enforcement agency would subject the cargo to be searched. Think about it!! Would you suspect a boat load of drugs to be covered with lobsters and shrimp, approved by a branch of the government.

Let's go a step "deeper". Ronald Reagan declared the war on drugs. Who was Reagan's Vice-President? You got it! - George Bush!!

Ronald Reagan acted as President; but George Bush called the shots. Is the picture becoming clear? Monika Jensen, ex-producer of 60 minutes, uncovered how our intelligence community used the apparatus of the POW/MIA government agencies as a cover-up for the trafficking of opiates from the "Golden Triangle", in her book "Kiss The Boys Goodbye".

President Reagan appointed Ross Perot to the President's Advisory Council on cont'd. to pg. 5
