

DRUMMER: A VOICE OF TRUTH AND HOPE

By Mütter D. Evans
Guest Columnist

There is a fresh, new voice in Winston-Salem that speaks truth, relates to the challenges of day-to-day life, offers positive encouragement and hope through his teachings, is good with people and animals, has a sense of humor and is wise beyond his years. He is an only son with five sisters, the father of four, a husband and hails from Cole Water, Mississippi (in northwest Mississippi about 30 miles from Memphis, Tennessee). Who is he and what does he do?

Harvey Drummer

His name is Harvey Drummer, a graduate of Southwestern Christian College in Terrell, Texas and he is the new minister at Carver Road Church of Christ since January 1st. He succeeds Cloys R. Cecil, Sr. who retired from there December 31st

ST. JOHN'S VISIONARY LEADER PREPARES FOR THE FUTURE

By John Raye

This time next month, members of the historic St. John CME church will march into their new 2.5 million dollar, state-of-the art church sanctuary and family life center, a move that could mark a new era in minority church construction activity.

Constructed under the watchful eye of Senior Pastor Bobby Best and the church building committee, St John becomes one of the few churches designed and con-

DENISE HARTSFIELD RUNS FOR DISTRICT COURT JUDGE

Denise Hartsfield

The race is on, and Attorney Denise Hartsfield is in the running. She is campaigning for the seat of District Court Judge in the 21st District. The Honorable Roland Hayes, who presently holds that seat, has held it since 1984, and is the first and still remains as the only African-American

WORKING WITHOUT FEAR

by John Raye

She has a name and a presence that commands attention, and she is a bona fide diva who doesn't act like one. Born, bred and raised in Winston-Salem, Mosé Belton-Brown is your classic mover and shaker; when you say "Mosé", those in the know are already aware that you mean "Mosé' Belton-Brown"!

With due respect, generally speaking, everyone knows who you are talking about the moment you mention their first name, as in Aretha, Luther, Tina, Patty or Whitney.

Though the name, Mosé Belton-Brown is quite familiar around the city and cascades off the tongue like rolling thunder, everyone knows there is only one Mosé! One of the city's best known business entrepreneurs, Brown, a former school teacher is the highly successful owner of her very own Allstate Insurance agency, located at 3911 University Parkway in Winston-Salem.

Well-known for her social and civic involvement, Brown and her agency have been on the receiving end of numerous awards, honors, and citations for public achievement. In fact, she has accumulated so many awards, trophies, plaques
