The Candles of Christmas

It is the evening of Christmas Day. Discarded wrappings and delightful presents share space beneath the tree. On the dinner table the turkey has shrunk as waistlines have expanded and everyone vows to "never eat another bite."

Upon the mantle, candles have magically melted into unique creations as they burned through several special occasions throughout the holidays...reminders of warm memories of those times when family and friends gathered to celebrate the birth of Christ.

Though the holidays shall end, let us carry a candle for the Christ-Child in each of our hearts throughout the coming year, and may the warmth of His spirit melt each of us into that unique creation that will give joy to everyone we meet.

Worship God each week at your local house of worship.
