A LIFE OF RISING, SHARING AND GIVING

By Donald B. Lowery, Sr.

That was the theme of the 114th Session of the Western North Carolina Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. The theme is a testament to the quest of the presiding prelate, Bishop Cecil C. Bishop. After 25 years of service as Bishop, in August, the man affectionately known as the "The Bishop" will retire as bishop of the Piedmont Episcopal District. This year's conference was hosted by the Goler Metropolitan A.M.E.

IT'S TIME TO DO THE STUFF

By Dr. Patricia Bailey

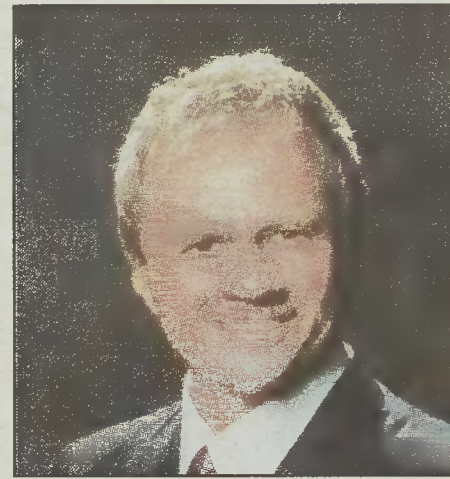

It's soooooo amazing how much we in the Body of Christ continue to major on the minors. When one considers the amount of energy and time spent on our concentrated efforts of austerity. As time continues to be the chief custodian to the overall plan and destiny of God, so much hinges upon our willingness to yield to the Master's sovereign plan.

The greatest battle of the enemy is to war and contend for our self-willed ambitions. When we bow our will to His will, we find in that place of surrendered serenity, the Master skillfully orchestrates our lives into His Master plan.

omnipotent one, and you will never be able to improve on God. He is perfect in all His ways.

Once we ever come to comprehend the revelation that if we do things God's way, we will reap God's results. You just simply cannot exalt your way or philosophy, or traditions or ideas above the original counsel of God.
