Founder's Day Celebration Held

Eminent Speaker Heard By Girls Here At Queens

President of Goucher, Dr. David A. Robertson, Gave Interesting Lecture

Dr. David A. Robertson, president of Goucher College of Baltimore, spoke at the organization's last meeting, which was held at Woman's Club at eight o'clock last Tuesday evening. Dr. Robertson arrived in the city Tuesday morning and spoke at Central High School. He was entertained at luncheon by Charlotte alumnae of Goucher and was honored at a tea given in the afternoon by Mrs. C. T. Wanzer, president of the Charlotte University of Women and an alumna of Goucher. Members of the Charlotte University Women's organization were invited to attend Mrs. Wanzer's informal tea. The lecture was to have been given in the college auditorium and was to have been followed by a reception with the faculties of Winthrop and Davidson as guests. Plans were changed, because of the illness of Dr. Blair.

It is doubtful if Queens-Chicora Students will have during their stay in college, another opportunity to hear a speaker as forceful as was President Robertson. He represents the culture and poise which an education ought to give and as college women students cannot afford to miss such opportunities as this one to enrich their college experience.

Miss Harriet Elliot, of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, will speak at the March meeting on some questions of international interest.

Tentative plans for the vocational guidance work to be done in the spring were discussed by the American Association of University Women at their meeting held in the S & W Cafeteria. No definite dates for contacting the high school and college students have yet been decided upon.

Kappa Omricon Frat. Ratifies Constitution

For the first time in the history of the organization, Kappa Omricon, honorary English fraternity, has ratified its constitution to provide for Associate Members. It has long been desired by many that this step be taken, but not until this year has Kappa Omricon felt that such a change would be justified.

Margaret Crocker and Jessie Pearson have received the invitation of Kappa Omricon to become the first Associate Members of the honorary fraternity.

Qualifications of Associate Members are (1) member of the Senior Class; (2) recommendation of the sponsor of Kappa Omricon; and (3) unanimous vote of the members.

New Courses To Be Offered Here

A number of new courses for the second semester are being offered by the various departments of the school.

In the psychology department there will be courses in mental hygiene, experimental, and educational psychology, and applications of psychology, as well as a course in classroom management.

In addition there will be classes in bacteriology, local flora, Latin American history, history of chemistry, and methods of teaching science.

Many English majors will be interested in the course in Tennyson and Browning. Others may refer studies in economics, costume designs, or a beginning course in typing.

Schedules are now being arranged, and it is possible that other courses will be added.

Tea Given By Coronet

The Coronet staffs will give a tea in honor of the Alumnae. The tea will be given to introduce The Coronet to all the alumnae and to obtain more subscriptions from that body. This will be the first time that The Coronet has been formerly presented to the Alumnae, though the first copy of the "magazine-annual" was shown at an Alumnae meeting in November.

Junior Class To Sponsor Big Cabaret

First of Its Type To Be Presented at Queens February 15

A cabaret is to be presented at Queens-Chicora College on February 15, under the auspices of the Junior Class. This will be the first entertainment of its type ever to be presented at Queens and promises to be unusual and spectacular.

The dining room in Morrison Hall, where the cabaret is to be given, will be decorated in the colors and motifs of Saint Valentine's Day. Elaborate plans for an attractive floor show of talented dancers and singers are now being perfected. During the evening a Charlotte orchestra will furnish a continuous program of popular dance melodies.

The cabaret will be open not only to the students of the college but also to the people of Charlotte and to the students of Davidson.

Sale of tickets will begin the last of this month. The moderate price of those tickets will entitle the holders to a simple supper and to see the floor show. On the menu there will be numbers of other dishes which may be ordered at an additional cost.

The proceeds are to be used for the Junior-Senior banquet which is to be given this spring.

Carnival To Be Held on Feb. 2

A Carnival will be held February 2, 1935, in the dining room in Morrison Hall. This Carnival, which promises to be unusually attractive, is being planned by the Social Committee of which Vivian Hilton is the chairman. Other members of the committee are Betty Manning, Mary Murray, Margaret Trobaugh, and Frances Smith.

Some of the attractive features of the Carnival will be a cakewalk, a fortune teller, and a "fishing booth." There will also be a booth selling candies, popcorn, and peanuts. The climax of the Carnival will come with the crowning of the King and Queen of Festivity.

A small admission will be charged which will entitle the students to enter many of the booths. There will be a fee at some booths. The entire receipts of the Carnival will be used to improve the furnishings of the reception rooms in Burwell Hall.

Frosh Play Is Delayed

Presentation of a one-act play by the Freshman Class has been delayed until after mid-term examinations, Lucille Dulin, president of the class, has announced.

Those taking part in the play, A Cup of Tea, will be Martha Johnston, Eugenia Lafitte, Frances Bost, and Annabelle Elmore. Serving as directors will be Mary Alice Roebke, and Nancy Phillips.

Dr. J. M. Ariail To Deliver The Main Address

Many Other Outstanding Events To Be On Program

TO BE IN AUDITORIUM

Dr. J. M. Ariail of Columbia College in Columbia, South Carolina, will deliver the main address on Founders' Day, held January 19th at 11:30 o'clock in the College Auditorium, it was announced by Mrs. H. Malloy Evans, of Greenville, South Carolina, president of the General Alumnae Association, and Miss Rebecca Cleveland of Columbia, vice president and in charge of the program.

Dr. Ariail, who is now head of the English Department of Columbia College, formerly held the fellowship of the American Society for Research. He studied under the late Dr. Edwin Greenlaw and received his doctorate at the University of North Carolina in 1925. With the degree he was awarded the Smith Foundation Research Prize. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa fraternity.

In addition to the address, other interesting features have been planned. Mrs. M. A. Bland, Mrs. I. W. Faison, and Miss Alice Springs will talk on the subject, "College Days Fifty Years Ago." Miss Nell Cameron, teacher of music in the public schools of Columbia and soloist in the First Presbyterian Church there, will sing a solo, accompanied by Miss Henrietta Cleveland, public school music teacher in Columbia and a graduate of Chicora.

HEARST'S REPLY TO COLLEGE EDITORS

In an effort to stimulate discussion and to crystallize opinions among the students on the controversy of "Internationalism vs. Nationalism," the Queens Blues carried in a recent issue a copy of the Open Letter from the Associate of College Editors to William Randolph Hearst. That letter carried nine significant questions which had been prepared in England by Sir Norman Angell, the pacifist author and "probable winner of the Nobel Peace Prize for this year," to be answered by Lord Beaverbrook, owner of the London Daily Express.

Because of the laborious nature of the questions, Lord Beaverbrook declined to answer them.

Following is the answer of William Randolph Hearst, the personification of arrogant nationalism, to Mr. F. G. Smith, Jr., President of the A. C. E.

Mr. Francis G. Smith, Jr., President, the Association of College Editors, 354 Fourth Ave., New York.

My Dear Sir:

I am happy to learn that Mr. Norman Angell is a "probable Nobel Prize winner," but I have not been overwhelmingly impressed by actual prize winners—as far as their political sagacity is concerned.

Because of which (and irrespective of which), I do not feel obligated to answer categorically disingenuous, spacious questions propounded on the recognized "Have you stopped beating your wife,—answer yes or no" basis.

Nevertheless, I have no objection to stating clearly and comprehensively my beliefs as to what constitutes visionary and what practical and patriotic internationalism.

I personally believe in nationalism and internationalism, each in its proper place.

* * * *

I BELIEVE in benefiting all the people of the earth, whenever and wherever we can do so WITHOUT SACRIFICING THE INTERESTS OF OUR OWN PEOPLE.

I believe in promoting the public welfare, but I do not believe it necessary in doing so to be entirely indifferent to the needs of my own family and associates.

I believe in loving my neighbor as myself, but I have not yet reached the point where I am ready to sell all I have and give every precious personal and national possession to covetous neighboring nations who desire them but do not reserve them.

* * * *

I BELIEVE in good faith and common honesty among individuals and also among nations.

I believe in honor among thieves.

I believe that honest debts should be paid and a word of honor respected among peoples and politicians, even when dishonesty and dishonor are momentarily profitable.

Pledges must not be given unless they are to be observed; obligations cannot be contracted unless they are to be discharged.

Business cannot be conducted unless the names on notes and bonds are valid and honored.

International relations can never be maintained on a friendly basis or even on a business basis if all men are liars and all nations repudiators of debts and duty.

I believe in peace and in all sane measures to promote peace at home and abroad and among nations—BUT PARTICULARLY AT HOME.

* * * *

I BELIEVE that the best way to insure peace at home is to keep out of wars abroad and out of unnecessary international complications which may lead to war.

I believe in disarmament when nations are willing to disarm.

I believe in sustained efforts to persuade nations to disarm.

But I do not believe that a rich and envied country like our own should place itself in the position of a shortsighted and misguided

Sophomore Class To Edit Issue of Queens Blues

In accord with the annual custom of having the Sophomore Class publish one issue of the Queens Blues with no assistance from the Junior Class, publishers of the paper, the February 2 issue of the Queens Blues will be written and published by members of the Sophomore Class.

Under the leadership of Betty Manning, editor of the Queens Blues, the Sophomore class has elected its editor and business manager for their issue of the paper. Martha Ware Pitts was unanimously elected editor, and Catherine Jordan was elected business manager.

Martha Ware Pitts has worked on the paper both years she has been here and was very active on the staff of the paper of the Central High School. This year Martha Ware is the News Editor on the regular staff. Martha Ware was editor of the Freshman edition of the paper last year.
