Seniors, Sophs Sponsor Party

On Wednesday night, February seventeenth, the Sophomore and Senior classes entertained at a Valentine party from eight thirty o'clock until midnight. The guests were received at the main entrance to Burwell Hall by Mrs. Virginia Miller Agnew, Frances Smith, Jimmy Wagoner, Helen Cumnock, Jean Orr, Jane Ellen Taylor, Martha Wise Alexander, and Frances Ehrhardt.

The early part of the evening was spent in the auditorium, where Dr. William H. Frazer welcomed the guests and presented Mr. Bunker, a professional magician who gave a delightful performance which included a company of rabbits, pigeons, ducks, and goldfish—caught in mid-air. After the magician's program, the party progressed to Morrison Dining Hall which was gaily decorated with red and silver balloons and hearts. Here refreshments were served consisting of red and white ice cream and individual Angel Food Cakes.

After refreshments, the Boston University Seminary Singers presented an impromptu program of songs, dances, and imitations. The party ended with the entire group singing favorite college and popular songs.

Jimmy Wagoner and Helen Cumnock, presidents of the senior and sophomore classes were in charge of plans for the party. Mrs. Agnew and Miss Ruth Grover assisted as faculty members. Committees included the following: Miss John Wright, chairman of refreshment committee, assisted by Miss Caroline Wearn and Miss Sally McDowell; and Miss Louise Thompson, chairman of the decoration committee, assisted by Misses Mildred Lowrance, Sally McDowell and Mary Wilson.
