

DO YOU KNOW THAT?

Probably no new book has sold a million copies in as short a time as Margaret Mitchell's "Gone With The Wind".

The beautiful Sonja Heinie of ice-skating fame has foot trouble.

The Duke of Windsor is still agitating his much-worked-on plan for the unemployed.

It is said by publishers that every copy of a book sold means, on the average, five readers.

Katherine Cornell usually reads a novel by "Stanislawski" or somebody like that, just before an interview so she can remember enough to sound clever.

The "Publisher's Weekly" records the fact that more new books were published in 1936 than in any previous year according to their files.

General Chiang Kai-Shek and his Wellesley-educated wife have started a clean-up campaign in China. That, according to the Literary Digest, however, many of the more knowing regard the plan as a cover-up for the general's activities.

By adding caraway seed to Limburger cheese, scientists of the dairy division of the University of California are removing, to some extent this cheese's strongest quality.

WHITE HANDS

Elizabeth Arden

White hands . . . smooth hands . . . hands that may well belong to a busy woman, yet preserve their air of leisured elegance. To insure smooth, exquisitely soft, white hands, Miss Arden recommends her Hand-O-Tonik, a marvelous recipe against redness and roughness, in two sizes, $1.00 and $1.75 . . . For smooth, beautifully shaped nails, she advises Nail-O-Tonik Oil and Paste. The Oil not only prevents brittle nails but also softens the cuticle . . . The Paste polishes the nails and keeps them pliant and brilliant. Nail-O-Tonik Oil and Paste, 50c ea.
