

Hone Economics Club Holds First Meeting Of Year

The Home Economics Club held its first monthly meeting in Blair Union Friday afternoon, November 5. After a welcome was extended to the new members by the president, Ora Lee Daugherty, the business session was held. Topics of discussion were the plans for the forthcoming year. It was decided that the classes have charges of successive programs. Chairman elected were: Senior, Louise Faircloth; Junior, Kathryn McQueen Martin; Sophomore, to be decided later; Freshmen, Sue McNulty. Agnes Hope Gwaltney was elected news reporter. Carolyn Reynolds, treasurer, presented the financial status and expectations and the meeting was turned over to Louise Faircloth, chairman of the program committee, who introduced contests and an amusing skit. The Seniors served delicious refreshments and the meeting was adjourned.

Advice To The Men . . .

Ask a girl to talk,
 . . . if she's talkative;
 Ask a girl to walk,
 . . . if she's walkative;
 Ask a girl to dance,
 . . . if it's permissible;
 But never ask to kiss her,
 . . . if she's kissable.

Dr. Frazer Grants Petition For A Longer Holiday

Dr. Frazer has announced that he has considered the petition submitted to him recently by the student body and has decided to grant a longer Thanksgiving holiday instead of the one day scheduled in the calendar. The holidays will now begin on Wednesday, November 24, after classes and last until the following Monday at 1:30 P. M. No cuts either before or after this period will be allowed, and students having 1:30 classes on Monday must return by that time.

To One Who Sings

My heart is a dark lake
 Quivering in silence,
 Then comes your voice,
 A mad, melodious moon.
 Leaving in gold
 A trail of notes.

PRECIOUS EYESIGHT?

Nature intended our eyes for outdoor work — where the light is plentiful and the seeing tasks are relatively simple. But instead most of our time is spent indoors doing close work under woefully poor light.

Chi Omega Gives Annual Pledge Tea At Sorority House

The pledges of Theta Gamma Chapter of Chi Omega recently entertained with a tea in honor of the pledges of the five other sororities on the campus. Members of the faculty and representatives of the active members of each group as well as the pledges were invited to call during the afternoon.

A gay autumn motif was carried out in the fall flowers placed about the house. Black cats hung from each window added the Halloween touch. Cakes, sandwiches, and tea were served to the guests.

The pledges of Chi Omega are: Caroline Silbey, Anne Purnell, Grayce Hackney, Bebe McQueen, Sally Crossland, Jean Ferguson, Peggy Williams, Maurjer Moseley, Judith Killian, June Escott, Mary Payne, Marie Roseman, Hulda McNinch, Willeen James, Natalie Nivens, and Caroline Reynolds. Elizabeth Calder, active president, and Eleanor Alexander, pledge instructor, received the guests.

Your Smiles

Your smiles
 Are the little yellow fish
 You toss into the fountain
 Of my heart.
 The sudden flick
 Of twisting tails
 Keep my little silver pool
 Twitching with memories.
