

Newly Decorated Pi Hall Is Presented To School

Dean Agnew Accepts Reception Room In Behalf of All Students

The formal presentation of the newly redecorated Pi Hall of Queens-Chicora College was made Friday morning during the chapel hour. Mary Currie, president of the Student Government, and Freddie Ward, president of Boarding Student Body, presented the newly furnished room to Dean Virginia Miller Agnew. In this presentation, they expressed their hopes that it will enrich the environment of the girls of the college.

Mrs. Agnew very graciously accepted the gift with an expression of her gratitude for the work of the students in supporting this project. She praised Mary and Freddie, as well as the head of each organization which supported the project, for their splendid work. She expressed her desire that every girl would enjoy the beauty and comfort of this addition, since every girl gave her full co-operation.

In turn, Mrs. Agnew presented the furniture to Dr. Frazer as a gift for the college parlor. Upon receiving the gift, Dr. Frazer thanked Mrs. Agnew and the students.

At 3:00 o'clock Friday afternoon, the doors of the Hall were formally opened with a tea from 3:00 to 6:00 and from 7:00 to 10:00. Dr. and Mrs. Frazer, Mr. and Mrs. David Ovens, Mrs. Clara Woodruff (Interior Decorator of the room), and Mrs. Agnew, by way of receiving, assisted the presidents of the organizations which contributed to the project.

During the hours of this informal tea, light refreshments were served to students, faculty members, alumnae, and many friends of the college who called.

Sororities Give Radio Programs On Station WBT

Two more sororities have recently presented their programs over the air waves in competition for the loving cup to be presented to the group giving the best fifteen-minute program. Three sororities, Alpha Delta Theta, Alpha Gamma Delta, and Phi Mu have previously been heard.

The fourth program in the series was that of Alpha Delta Pi, presented on March 1. Frances Marian O'Hair was the announcer, and the group started with the singing of the Alpha Delta Pi National Song after which the announcer gave a brief summary of the history of the sorority. The rest of the time was taken up with group singing of sorority songs. These were: "Our Dear Old Alpha Delta Pi," "I Love the Pin," "Alpha Delta Pi Sweetheart," and "It's Just a Tiny Pin."

The Kappa Delta program, presented March 7, with Ashley Dulin announcing, represented a typical night at the sorority house. The first number, "On A K.D. Honey-moon," was sung by a group of seven girls. Following this a conversation similar to that held by most girls was given by members of the organization.

Iota Xi Admits Four New Girls For Memb'ship

Honorary Fraternity Accepts
Hatcher, Raeburn, Lowrance,
and Underwood

Iota Xi, honorary journalistic fraternity on the Queens-Chicora campus, took in four new members during the Chapel program March 5. The girls honored for their outstanding work in the field of journalism were: Georgia Underwood of Charlotte, Helen Hatcher of Winchester, Va., Mildred Lowrance and Martha Raeburn of Charlotte, Lib Gammon, Barbara Shatzer, and Lib Calder all of Charlotte, were given honorable mention.

Mary Currie was in charge of the service and she told of the meaning of the fraternity, while Jo Hackney gave its purposes. It accepts for membership those who have done work of a creditable nature on the college publications and fosters greater interest in this field.

Georgia Underwood is known for her annual work. She is an officer of the State Press Association.

Helen Hatcher is present editor-in-chief of the QUEENS BLUES.

Martha Raeburn is active on both the paper and annual staff.

Mildred Lowrance is business manager of the QUEENS BLUES.

Mrs. Agnew Sets Tentative Date For May Day

Setting May 6 as a tentative date, plans are rapidly being completed for the climax of the spring school year, May Day. This date has also been set aside as High School Hospitality Day, Dean Agnew has announced, and at that time Queens will open its doors to its many high school friends from here and other nearby cities.

Miss Henderson, in charge of the May Day festivities, and the committees are preparing to present the queen, Helen Jenkins, and her court in truly regal style. It is expected that the usual large crowd will arrive at Queens for the event.

Freshmen Active In School

The freshman class, under the guidance of Mildred Sneeden, president, has had a very active year. Many obstacles have been overcome with the help of the junior class.

With Mildred as leader, the girls successfully survived the punishments put on them by the sophomores, with Eleanor Guyton their head, during Rat Week.

Next the freshmen had to make their first attempt at the annual Stunt Night. Mary Payne was chairman of the stunt and Pedie Burke was leader of the gallery. The stunt theme was based on try outs for the part of Scarlet O'Hara in "Gone With the Wind." The class made a favor-

Fraternity Has Tapp'g Service During Chapel

Alpha Kappa Gamma Takes
In Two Queens
Girls

Alpha Kappa Gamma, national leadership fraternity, held its annual spring tapping service on Friday, March 11, during the chapel period. Dr. Frazer opened the service with the devotional, and then the following new members were tapped.

Sally McDowell, of Pacolet, S. C., and Sue Mauldin of Charlotte, both members of the Junior class.

Mrs. John H. Redhead, Jr., of Charlotte, and Miss Frances Smith of Greer, S. C., were elected as alumnae members of the fraternity. Mrs. Redhead is an alumna of the Joan of Arc Circle of Alpha Kappa Gamma of State Teacher's College in Farmwell, Virginia. She is author of the song, "Hail To Thee, Alpha Kappa Gamma." Miss Smith is Assistant to the Dean of Instruction at Queens. During her senior year here she was President of the boarding students.

The purpose of the fraternity is to recognize leadership in the student body in scholarship, active leadership, athletics, and social life.

Active members include: Nancy McIver, president, Mary Currie, Josephine Hackney, Lillian Smith, Helen Cumnock, Louise Crane, Elizabeth Calder, Lynch Crockett, Freddie Ward, Helen Jordan, Martha Johnson, Jane Wiley, Eleanor Alexander, Helen Hatcher, and Mildred Lowrance. The faculty members are Dr. Dorisse M. Howe, and Mrs. Virginia Miller Agnew, dean of women.

Program Is Heard Wed.

Two more programs in the regular Wednesday afternoon series of Queens-Chicora College were presented over station WSOC, March 2 and 9.

The first program was announced by Marion McManus. Margaret Flowe, violin pupil of Mr. Don Richardson, accompanied by Jo Hackney, played Handel's "Largo," after which Harriet Truesdale gave a piano selection, "Stardust." A talk, written by Dr. Ethel Abernathy, professor of psychology, was read by Frances Marian O'Hair, a pupil of psychology, and the program was concluded with another rendition by Margaret Flowe.

The program given March 9 was unlike any of the others presented in that it consisted of a tour of the music building by Dr. Godard and Ronald Jenkins, of the announcing staff of station WSOC. They discussed the practicing of the students, and several were heard over the air-waves.

FRESHMAN DAY

The Freshman day student of Queens-Chicora recently elected Caroline Edwards of Charlotte as freshman representative to the Day Students' Council. Caroline has been active in freshman activities and has made exceptional grades in her studies.

Eleanore Eddy of Pinchurst had previously been elected freshman representative to the boarding student council. Eleanor has also been active in school activities and is a member of the Alpha Delta Theta Sorority.

National Sororities Initiate Fifty-Three

State Press Convention In Meet Here

Queens Girls Will Take Active
Part In Press
Meeting

The State Press Association will meet in Charlotte May 5, 6, and 7, with Queens-Chicora College acting as hostess for the occasion.

Georgia Underwood is in charge of local arrangements for the meeting and several entertainments have been planned for those who will attend. A luncheon will be given on the college campus. The May Day festivities will also take place on this day and the group will be among the visitors who will view the event.

Colleges from all over the state, including Davidson, Chapel Hill, North Carolina State College, and Woman's State College will be represented at the convention.

Those from Queens who will attend are: Georgia Underwood, of Charlotte, Lib Calder, Charlotte, Helen Hatcher, Winchester, Va., Mildred Lowrance, Mary Currie, and probably others."

Junior Class To Sponsor Comedy To Obtain Money

The Junior class of Queens-Chicora will present a three-act comedy, "His Father's Son," in the college auditorium, May 15.

This play is being put on by the same company that showed the Tom Thumb Circus, sponsored by the senior class recently.

Helen Cumnock, president of the class, is in charge of the program and tickets are being sold by all members of the class. The money received from the sale of tickets will be used in the annual entertainment of the seniors. This entertainment will be in the form of a banquet to be held at the Charlotte Hotel.

Furman Glee Club To Give Program

On March 24, at 8:00 o'clock, the Furman College Glee Club will present an entertainment in the Queens Auditorium, it was announced this week by Dean Agnew.

Forty young men of that college are making a good-will tour to various southern cities. Their program will consist of familiar and light-classic numbers. Dick Burts, manager of the club, has completed negotiations with Mrs. Agnew.

The day students of Queens will entertain the Furman boys during their visit in Charlotte. Supper, a night's lodging, and breakfast will be furnished for them.

Of the fifty-three girls recently initiated into sororities, thirty-nine were freshmen.

African Project Nearing Goal

Nearing the goal set in the African Project, the Cabinet members are very well pleased with the results of their campaign up to date. However, the money will not be sent until all pledges have been paid.

About two hundred dollars in cash has been received and well over fifty dollars in pledges. The drive to help buy an X-ray machine for the African hospital has been going on for several weeks now and the Queens girls hope to be able to finish this project, started by the Davidson boys, in the near future.
