Awards Given To Athletes

Twenty-One Girls Given Letters By Athletic Council; Practice Begins

Twenty-one girls were awarded Queens-Chicora letters at a special chapel service on Wednesday, April 13.

Harriet Brown, President of Athletic Council, in her speech said that the primary requirement for a letter is a sum of four-hundred points, one hundred points being received for each team, and fifty additional points for captain; and, eighty per cent of the practices must be attended for a girl to qualify for the team. Miss Brown also said, "One of the main aims of the Athletic Association is to promote sportsmanship as well as skill in sports."

Elizabeth Gammon, Vice-President of Athletic Council, presented the Q-C letters to the following girls: Seniors, Louise Crane, Mary Currie, Martha Grey, Sara Paxton, Margaret Register, Lib Calder, Jo McDonald, Ruth Morrison, Harriet Brown, and Alice Crowell; Juniors, Marguerite Craven, Mildred Lowrance, Norma Moore, Cree Roberts, Elizabeth Gammon, Helen Dummock; Sophomores, Dot Alexander, Betsy Springer, Ann Fuller, Martha Stoner, and Madeleine Lotterhos.

Athletic Council composed of Harriet Brown, president; Elizabeth Gammon, vice-president; Madeleine Lotterhos, secretary; Anne Fuller, treasurer and class representative, Alice Crowell, Helen Cumnock, and Martha Stoner were in charge of the program.

Softball teams have begun to practice, and tennis is a current interest.

Honor Students For Senior Class Are Announced

Edith Gallant of Charlotte will be valedictorian for the commencement exercises of Queens-Chicora college, it was announced yesterday. Miss Doris Joines of Mooresville was named salutatorian.

Edith has made an outstanding record. She is a member of Sigma Mu national honorary scholastic fraternity, honorary math club and French club, International Relations club, and the Spectator Literary society. Miss Gallant worked on the senior class stunt night program. Her scholastic average for her four years at Queens-Chicora is 96.

Miss Joines has also accomplished an unusual college record. She is a member of Sigmas Mu national scholastic fraternity and of the honorary math club. Miss Joines is vice-president of the senior class. She has served for two years on the stunt night committee and is now working on the senior class play committee. For her four years of college work, she has attained an average of 95.30.

New Officers To Be Elected

This morning elections will be conducted in chapel for day student council, S.C.A. Cabinet, editorship of the Queens Blues and of the annual, and the business managers of these publications. Day Student Council will be under the supervision of Eleanor Jenkins, who has recently been installed as day student president. Mildred Lowrance will head the Cabinet, which has charge of re-

New Degree Offered Here

B.S. in Business Administration To Be Taught By Inglis And Watkins

Beginning next year, according to present plans, there will be offered to students of Queens-Chicora the privilege of taking a four-year business course to receive a Bachelor of Science degree in business when they are graduated.

The first two years of the course will be similar to those of the Bachelor of Arts student's course. The last two years will be taken up with an intensive business course, including a teacher's course and practice teaching for those who plan to teach commercial subjects. Courses in office management and procedures, secretarial practice, accounting, and advanced shorthand will be offered.

The course will be training for secretaries, who need more than stenographers, in the way of business training.

Miss Mary Inglis, head of the business department, with Dr. James M. Godard, has worked out the plans for this new course. She will be assisted next year by Mrs. Elizabeth Watkins, and one other teacher not yet selected.

Queens Host To Federation Of N. C. Music Clubs

On Saturday, April 17, the Junior Festival of the North Carolina Federation of Music Clubs met on the Queens-Chicora College campus. Two weeks prior to this time contests were held in six parts of the state and superior performers in these contests came to Charlotte for the state contest. Approximately four hundred people from all sections of the state were here Saturday.

The various contests lasted throughout the day and luncheon for the contestants and judges was served in the college dining hall.

Chairman of the Festival was Mrs. H. M. McCalester of Lumberton. N. C. Judges of the contest were: Piano: Miss Mary Wharton of Queens-Chicora College, Dean Hough P. Williamson of Flora McDonald College, and Mr. Powell Everhart of Limestone College. Violin: Mr. Edgar A. Alend of Meredith College. Voice: Mr. Paul Oncley of Woman's College in Greensboro, and organ: Mr. Thane MacDonald of Davidson College.

Part of the morning activities of the festival were broadcast from the College Auditorium in a half-hour program over Radio Station WSOC.

For the past two weeks the Queens-Chicora College programs over radio station WSOC have been presented by the music department. On Wednesday, April 13, Miss Cornelia Truesdale and Miss Claire Wishart gave a joint organ recital. On Wednesday, April 20, Mrs. Mosely's pupils were heard in a recital with two pianos and the organ.

The management of Radio Station WSOC has announced that they expect to broadcast a portion of the Commencement Exercises from the college Auditorium in May.

The college programs from Station WSOC will continue to be presented weekly until the close of school, however, the time of the program will be changed on April 27 from 3:30 to 2:30 on Wednesday afternoons.

On last Monday evening the concluding program in a series of Queens-Chicora College radio programs was broadcast over Radio Sta-

Davidson Is Host To Queens

Anniversary of Brother School Made Gala Occasion For Queens Girls

On Tuesday, April 12, nearly two-hundred Queens-Chicora girls were guests at Davidson College at the annual Queens-Davidson day. This day was also Davidson's one hundred and first anniversary.

The six special busses left Charlotte at 1:45 P. M. and arrived in Davidson about 2:30. The girls were met by their dates at the six dating bureaus and these escorted to the athletic field where a baseball game was played between Davidson and Lenoir Rhyne College.

After the game the Davidson men escorted their dates to various social centers on the campus for entertainment until 6:30. Then the girls separated from their dates to be served supper by the college in the banquet hall of Chambers along with members of O. D. K.

At 8 o'clock the boys escorted their dates to the performance of Colin the Magician in Chambers Auditorium; at the conclusion of this show punch was served in front of Chambers Building and informal singing was enjoyed by all. The busses brought the Queens-Chicora girls to Charlotte about 11 o'clock P. M. at the close of a very enjoyable day of entertainment.

Spring Speaker Sponsored Here By S. C. A. Cabinet

Spring services of the Student Christian Association were held on April 14 and 15, with Rev. Carl R. Pritchett of Smithfield, North Carolina, speaking.

Rev. Pritchett spoke to the Bible Classes on Thursday, April 14. That night he spoke in the auditorium of Queens on "Religion of Power," after which discussion groups met in the S.C.A. hut on the campus to discuss any problems.

Friday morning, at 7:00 o'clock, the Easter sunrise service was held on the steps of Morrison Hall. Later, Rev. Pritchett spoke to the student body in chapel on "How a Christian Lives." Discussion groups met Friday afternoon. Friday night, Rev. Pritchett made his final talk on the "Crucifixion," asking that we rededicate ourselves to Christ at Easter and begin anew.

Rev. Pritchett was graduated from the Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Virginia, after having been voted the most outstanding man at the Seminary for the last ten years. He is pastor of the Smithfield Presbyterian Church.

Mildred Lowrance, newly-elected president of S.C.A., presided over the services.

The program consisted of the presentation of the play The House on Halsted Street which was given by the dramatic department under the direction of Miss Eythel King. This radio play dealt with the life of Jane Addams, the noted welfare worker, and her work at the Hall House in Chicago.

On the previous Monday night the WBT program consisted of a talk by Dr. Frazer and a group of Easter songs sung by the small Choral Club.

On Tuesday, April 26, at 3:15 and 8:00 P. M. in the auditorium of Central High School, the French department of that school will present a picture, the "Lives and Loves of Beethoven."

Queens Girls Attend Meet

Currie, Cumnock, McDowell Represent College; Mrs. Agnew Speaks

The twenty-third annual conference of the Southern Inter-Collegiate Association of Student Government was held on April 14, 15, and 16, at The College of William and Mary at Williamsburg, Virginia. Mary Currie, Helen Cumnock, and Sally McDowell attended from Queens-Chicora College with Mrs. Virginia Miller Agnew, dean of women at Queens.

The program opened Thursday with greetings from Jane Speakman, president of the student body of the hostess college, and from Dr. Grace Warren Landrum, dean of women at the College of William and Mary. After dinner, the various delegates were welcomed by Dr. John Stewart Bryan, president of the college, after which discussion groups were led by Mary Dyer Teague, of the Mississippi State College for Women, on the subject, "Systems of Student Government."

On Friday, a discussion group met, led by Alma Pack, of Brenau College to discuss "The Technique of Presidency." At 10:30, Mrs. Agnew spoke on "Student Government Paralleled With Society." Mary Calvert Dey of Randolph-Macon Women's College led a discussion following that on "Honor System." After lunch a discussion on "Orientation" was led by Laura Coit, of Agnes Scott College.

From three until six o'clock the visitors enjoyed a tour of the Restoration in Williamsburg. Dean Landrum spoke Friday night at the formal banquet, after which Louise Gehan of Florida State College for Women led a discussion on "Student Government in its Broader Aspects." An open forum was led by Betty Jean Brown of Duke University until ten-thirty o'clock.

On Saturday, Dr. J. E. Walmsley, of Farmville State Teachers' College made an address. Following this, the business meeting of the conference was held, at which time the question was brought up as to whether the S.I.A.S.G. should join in the Southern Regional Conference of the National Student Federation of America, but it was decided that it should not. The conference concluded with luncheon Saturday in Trinkle Hall at the College.

Outgoing officers of the Association are Mary Curry, Queens-Chicora, president; Jane Speakman, William and Mary, vice-president; Nancy Peery, Hollins, secretary; Elizabeth Morris, Farmville, treasurer. Incoming officers are Betty Jean Brown, Duke, president; Patricia Woodworth, Sophie Newcombe College, secretary; Tommy Walker, Mississippi State College for Women, treasurer; and Mary Currie, Queens-Chicora, graduate adviser.

It is the custom for the outgoing and incoming presidents of the student body and of the boarding student body to attend this conference each year.

The music for this feature was prepared in the Conservatory of Paris. It is said to be a splendid opportunity for local students. There is an accompanying English explanation.

Louise Crane has charge of the tickets for Queens. Admission is twenty-five cents.
