Alpha Gamma Delta

We were all glad to have Virginia Morrison as a visitor at the feed last Sunday night.

Brooksie Folger attended the Davidson dances last week-end and she is to attend the Clemson mid-winters this coming week-end.

Sybil Eppes had as her guest this week-end her sister, Kathryn Eppes. Elaine Suber plans to spend this week-end at her home in Whitmire, S. C. Isabelle Rogers, Betty Burgess, and Carolyn Williams are going to spend Saturday with friends at Winthrop. Keller Young is looking forward to spending a delightful week-end in town with her aunt.

Mrs. R. L. Miller, Mary Ellen Miller, and Jeanette Hite are coming from Whitmire to spend the week-end with Julia Miller.

Among those who plan to spend a quiet week-end on the campus are Annie Carr Powers, Betty Bloom, Alberta Setzer, Mary Mason, Ann Golden, Frances Truelock, Margaret Glenn, Sarah Holleman, Ann Miller Janes, Billie Pickett, and Kitty Sue Harvin.

Nine Initiated In Alpha Kappa Gamma

The Olympian circle of Alpha Kappa Gamma, honorary leadership fraternity, held initiation services on Friday, February 2, at 4:00 in Pi Hall.

The initiates included those people who were honored at the last tapping service. From the faculty Dean Clara Slaton and Dr. Lucielle Delano were honored. The seven girls chosen from the student body were Frances Riddle of Columbia, S. C., Martha Stoner of Elberton, Ga., Elizabeth Brammer of Christiansburg, Va., Alice Barron of Columbia, S. C., Dorothy Longenecker of Belgian Congo, Maujer Moseley and Caroline Edwards of Charlotte.

Alpha Kappa Gamma, which recognizes outstanding leadership and service on the campus, was first organized at Farmville State Teachers College in Farmville, Va. Other chapters are located at the University of North Carolina, University of South Carolina, and Queens College. Virginia Smith of Charlotte is president of the local chapter.

Propaganda Discussed By I.R.C.

The International Relations Club held its last meeting at 3:30 o'clock on Monday, February 5, in Burwell Hall.

Jean Neu, who had charge of the program, planned a very interesting panel discussion on propaganda. Propaganda in European countries, especially Italy, Germany, and Russia, was discussed. Also discussed, were what place propaganda has in a democracy and how to detect it in America. After the panel had spoken, the discussion was opened to all.

Those taking part on the panel with Jean Neu were Lucielle Gwaltney, Judith Killian, and Helen Cochran.

An important part of the program was the initiation of Julia Edwards, a new member of the club.

A. D. Pi

Exams are at last over and we resolve to study harder this semester. After exams most of us packed up and went home. Nina Brown and Lulu Lowrance had a nice long week-end at home.

Catharine King, of course, went to Winnsboro which she is slowly but surely making her home. Laura Mitchell, Alice Clark, and Betty Elmore had to go see home folks, too. Mary Katherine Martir went home with Yvonne Williams. Snoodie Matheson, Margaret Tucker, Carolyn Robinson, Isabelle McDowell and Gldays Hartzell had fun at home, too.

This week-end Mary Katherine is going to Richburg, S. C. Mary Russell came to see us last week-end. With her she brought Edith Tinsley and other friends. Snoodie Matheson is going to Columbia Thursday. She is taking Mary Jane Goode home with her for the week-end to Bennettsville. Frances Marion O'Hair came to see "GWTW", Saturday, and visited Catharine King.

Alpha Iota Meets

An enjoyable social hour was held by the Alpha Iota sorority at 7:30 Wednesday, February 7, in the Hut. Various games were played, and the Alpha Iota songs were practiced.

The business meeting was led by the president, Ileta Caldwell. Different ways of making money were discussed.

Words of Class Song Presented

There have been many requests for the words of the Sophomore song and so here they are printed below. This song was written by Jane Montgomery and Elizabeth Isaacs in connection with the theme of the Sophomore stunt. The words are as follows:

"Our loyal allegiance, dear Mother Queens, we bring,
And ever our true love, throughout the ages will ring.
Always we honor, protect, and cherish
That which thou standeth for.
Be ever our true guide throughout eternity.
Our steps shall not falter.
All hail, Alma Mater, to thee."

February

Optimist

Dainty prints of a rabbits foot in a damp earth.
A cozy chair—a floor lamp.
Byron's "Prisoner of Chillon."
An English tea room.
Valentine chocolates.
A grandfather clock.

Pessimist

Rain.
An automobile that won't start.
Boxing matches.
Galoshes.
More rain.
Which of the two is your calendar?

QUEENS BLUES, '35.

Miss Mary Inglis entertained the majors in the commercial department, who started practice teaching last week, at an informal tea at her home on Saturday, February 3. The tea was given to acquaint the girls with the critic teachers under whom they are working.

Don't worry if you're green; you'll grow. But if you think you are ripe, you'll rot.

Kappa Delta

We are all so excited over the thoughts of our new house that we can't see straight. They started tearing down the old one Monday and it will probably be finished by March in time for our initiation.

Some of our girls went to the Davidson Mid-winters and they reported a wonderful time. The ones who went were Aileen Long, Marie Pons, Jane Kirkpatrick, Lalla Marshall, Nancy Walker, Dutty Jones, and Tiny Waddill. This week-end Aileen is going down to Clemson for their Mid-winters and Ginar Baxter is going to Spartanburg for the Kappa Sig banquet and dance. Here's wishing them luck.

Rita Clary, who went to Queens last year, was here for Davidson Mid-winters and we haven't stopped yet, cause, as usual, Rita got in her little share of jokes.

Last Sunday night, since we couldn't have the feed down at the house, we decided to have a dutch supper at the Tavern. It turned out to be a great success.

Butch Harden went to Columbia last week-end to help the new chapter with second semester rushing and she came back with very pleasant news. Next week, our providence president, Ann Cleveland, is coming here to pay us a visit.

Miss Robinson Entertains Sister

On Tuesday evening at 7:00 the college dining hall was the scene of one of the most delightful social events of the year. The occasion was a dinner party given by Miss Grace Robinson in honor of her sister, Miss Olivia Robinson, of Philadelphia. After dinner coffee was served to the faculty and Miss Robinson's guests in Burwell Hall.

Musical Artists To Appear Soon

On April 24, the Queens Choral Club will sponsor the appearance of Mr. John McCrae, baritone. Mr. McCrae is a student artist at Juilliard School of Music in New York, and a native of Columbia, S. C. It is said that he has remarkable talent for one so young, being only 23 years of age. Last summer he won an appointment to the opera company at Chataqua, New York, where he spent the entire season. After his appearance in "Naughty Marrietta" the following notice appeared:

"His rich baritone voice contributed some of the most enjoyable singing of the evening."

—The Columbia State.

At present Mr. McCrae is on a southern tour. The Queens Choral Club feels that it will be a great privilege to have him at Queens.

Another important musical event of this spring is the visit of Mr. Ralph Dobbs to the campus. Mr. Dobbs, a well known young artist pianist, will appear under the sponsorship of Miss Mary Wharton. He will present three informal programs in Miss Wharton's studio on March 4, 5 and 6. The first of these programs will be one of classical interpretations; the second, romantic; and the third, ultra-modern. Mr. Dobbs is considered one of the most outstanding young American pianists, and it is felt that his appearance here will be of interest and benefit not only to those who are actively engaged in the study of music, but also to all who enjoy really good music.

Chi Omega

Last Sunday at feed the Chi O's had a number of visitors—Jean Dulin, Vibe Daolez, Ferg's sister and Lap-tam—and our pictures were taken by "that man who (finally) comes around." Mary Maynard is already worrying over which dance she will attend the first week-end in March, Bachelors' Club of Davidson. Imagine!

Among those who went to Davidson dances last week-end were Maujer, Dot Brannon, Genny Smith, Winnie, etc. Frannie spent the week-end with Sara Kelly and reports a fine time. Hicky spent the week-end with Dot and says she had as big a time as room-mate, Frannie.

The approaching week-end seems to be a rather quiet one, however, Mary Marshall plans on attending the Duke-Carolina basketball game in Durham. Tabie, between the wedding and "Gone With the Wind", is still in an uproar. Tena took in mid-winters at P. C. and says they were grand. And speaking of fun for all, how about Natalie and Cal's wedding!

Pan-Hell Meets

The regular meeting of Pan-Hellenic was held in Burwell Hall at 7:30 on Thursday, February 9.

A very interesting program was presented. A member from each sorority told something of the history of her sorority, and of the people in the different chapters who had been outstanding in some field.

New Plans Alter Prayer Meetings

S. C. A. Cabinet has planned a different program for the prayer meetings during the rest of the school year. The Boarding Student body has been divided into groups of two suites with a leader for each group. The theme of this program is based on the verse:

"Where two or three are gathered together in My Name, there am I in the midst of them."

These groups meet with their group leaders on Monday nights, and on Thursday nights there will be a get-together of all of the groups in the "Hut." Special programs will be arranged for the meeting at the "Hut." The cabinet has suggested that on the other days of the week individual devotionals be substituted for the nightly dormitory prayer meetings.

The group leaders are: Irene McCall, Kitty Sue Harvin, Jean Rourk, Cookie Scoggin, Dot Raymond, Julia Miller, Mary Gilmer Richmond, Virginia Cothran, Maurine Latta, Frances Prter, Mary Martha Nixon, Louise Blue, Mary Jean McFadyen, Nancy Houston, Frances Hunter, Sarah Holleman, Carolin Robinson, Ida Mae Walkup, Louise Griffin, Mary Lyon, Mary Gunn, Alberta Stezer, and Ann Golden.

What's In A Name

"What's in a name?" An old wornout phrase, but read these and find out:

Harriet means "mistress of the house."
Laura is a "symbol of victory."
Edith is a "rich gift" or "prospering and happy."
Benjamin signifies "fortunate."
Frank means "free."
Helen is "light."
Katherine is "pure."
Ethel is "noble."
Edna is "pleasure or delight."
Ruth is a "friend or a beauty."
Claude means "lame."
Sarah is a "princess."
Eimly is "industrious."
And good old Martha is a "lady."
—The Johnsonian.

Phi Mu

Exams! What could be a better let-up from them than dancing! At Davidson Mid-winters we were represented by Jane Rankin, Nell Johnson, Jean Neu, and Helen Westfield. Next week-end our No. 1 jitterbug, Billie Harmon, is going to sponsor at Wake Forest Mid-winters. We're proud of you, Billie.

Have you heard all the good music coming from our house lately? We want to thank the pledges for the beautiful turn-table they gave us for Christmas.

Hilda McManus spent the week-end with Libba Harms.

The seniors are coming along just fine with their practice teaching.

Betsy Springer visited Alene Ward in Tryon last week-end. She also went to Columbia recently to attend a wedding.

Visitors at the feed last week were: Mary Virginia Zieverink, Jay Thomas, Mickey Phillips, Sara Pardee, Bobby Jennings, and Jane Hix. We're glad to have Jane back in town again. She's here finishing her laboratory training.

Guests Are Many During Week End

Queens was gay this week-end with many visitors. Mary Martha Nixon had as her guest Margaret Ramsaur from W. C. U. N. C. Miss Robinson's sister was a guest at dinner Sunday. Frances Prater's mother spent the week-end with her. Kay Coan from W. C. U. N. C. visited Virginia Goode. Annie Vivian Jones enjoyed a visit from her sister, Mary, who teaches at Orrum, N. C.

While we were entertaining guests this week-end some of the Queens girls were being guests. Henrietta McIver visited Nancy Raley in Ruby, S. C. Anne Fuller and Marjorie Poole attended a tea given by Miss Inglis for the business students who begin their practice teaching soon. Lib Porter, Marjorie Poole, and Harriett McDowell attended Davidson Mid-winters.

Botany Clubbers Discuss Project

The first meeting of the Linnean Club in the second semester was held Tuesday, February 6, at 3:30.

Sottie McNulty of Pocahontas, Va., president of the organization, presided. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss old and new business, dues, the annual picture, the fall, a picnic, and the project of the year.

Miss Sarah Nooe, advisor for the club, talked.

The largest school in the world is Columbia's American School of the Air. 8,000,000 boys and girls in 200,000 classrooms attend through their radios every week-day in the school year.

The QUEENS BLUES staff and the student body extend their sincere sympathy to Miss Ann Vann and Miss Margaret Flowe in their recent bereavements.
