

DUEENS BLUES

Vol. 19, No. 25 17

QUEENS COLLEGE, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

May 3, 1940

Brooksie Folger and Margie Poole walk away with the May Day honors

Press Meet Held Here

Hosts to College Publication Heads

Queens and Davidson acted as hostess and host to the annual North recently observed at Queens College. Carolina Collegiate Press Association Convention, held at Hotel Charlotte, April 25, 26 and 27.

Attending the convention for annual, magazine, and paper representatives were delegates from Queens, Davidson, N. C. State, Duke, Wake Forest, University of North Carolina, Flora Macdonald, Peace, St. Mary's, Meredith, East Carolina Teacher's College, Salem, Lenoir-Rhyne, Greensboro College, High Point, and Elon.

At the final meeting Saturday, Fabe Clements of Greensboro from North Carolina State was chosen for next year's president. Other new officers are: first vice-president, Gene Vereen, Moultrie, Ga., Davidson College; second vice-president, Polly Goforth Kings Mountain, Flora Macdonald College; secretary, Frances Staton, Reidsville, Greensboro College; and treasurer, Norvelle Ashburn, Atlanta Ga., Wake Forest College.

Greathouse, Jr., of Duke University, Elizabeth Greene of Charlotte were was accepted, thereby making Dur- in charge of the banquet. ham the convention city for the next meeting of the association.

Action on a resolution to unite North and South Carolina schools in a single body to be known as the Carolina Collegiate Press Association was delayed until the November meeting in order that the South Carolina colleges may vote on the suggestion. This resolution was proposed by Stephen Sailer, executive secretary of the N.C.C.P.A.

Official delegates from Queens were Virginia Smith, Judith Killian, Ann Mauldin, Georgia Hurt, and Elizabeth Imbody, all of Charlotte, and Ann Peyton of Davidson.

Senior Week

Queens and Davidson Are Graduating Class Enjoys The Annual Week of Entertainments

> The annual Senior Week has been The week began Sunday, April 21. morning services at the Myers Park Presbyterian Church.

honored the class Tuesday at a uncheon at their home on the campus.

Wednesday the entire class had a day free of classes. They spent the day at Rozzelle's Ferry, where they divided into groups for discussions on Queens College and formulation of ideas for improvements to be offered to othe administration. Wednesday evening, the college feted the class at a formal banquet held in the college dining room. The program consisted of the reading of the last will and testament by Lucille Gwaltney of Charlotte, class lawyer; the class prophecy by Elaine Suber of Whitmire, S. C., prophet; the class history by Billie Thomas of Charlotte, historian; and the class poem by Henrietta McIver of Gulf, poet The invitation extended by Frank Anne Fuller of Five Points, Ala., and

(Continued on page four)

NEXT WEEK Saturday Spectator Party. Monday

Blues meeting, 2:30. Movie: "Middleton Family at World's Fair.' Tuesday

Mexican travelogue, 8:00. Thursday Pan-Hellenic, 7:30.

Miss Dolan, 5:00-6:00. Sigma Mu, 8:00.

Alpha Kappa

The spring tapping services of Olympian Circle of Alpha Kappa Statue Given The spring tapping services of Gamma, national honorary leadership fraternity, were held at Queens College, Wednesday morning, May 1, at the student government chapel ex-

Three students, Elizabeth Harmes from Charlotte, Virginia Cothran from Timmonsville, S. C., and Scottie McNulty of Pocahontas, Va., were tapped. Members are selected on the basis of leadership, character, scholarship and special talents.

The services were opened by Virginia Smith, president of the chapter. Miss Slaton, Dean of Women, read the Scripture. An explanation of the purpose of Alpha Kappa Gamma, the requirements for membership and the history of the national and local organization was given. The officers are as follows: Virginia Smith, president; Georgia Hurt, vice-president; Lucielle Gwaltney, secretary; and Anne Fuller, treasurer. Other members of the chapter are: Dr. Delano, Miss Robinson, Miss Slaton, Alice Barron, Elizabeth Brammer, Caroline Edwards, Dorothy Longenecker, Maujer Moseley, Frances Riddle, Martha Stoner and Ermine Waddill.

This fraternity was founded at Farmville State Teachers' College on Teacher's College, the University of North Carolina, the University of South Carolina and Queens College.

There are two tapping services-

Juniors Fete Senior Class

The Senior class of Queens College when all the Seniors attended the was honored by the Junior class at a banquet Saturday evening at the Charlotte Hotel. Jean Ferguson, Dr. and Mrs. Hunter B. Blakely chairman of the banquet committee, acted as toastmistress.

> Receiving the guests as they arrived were Jean Ferguson and the officers of the Junior class: Elizabeth Brammer of Christiansburg, Va., Raymond of Lakeland, Fla., secretary 4 to 5:30 o'clock in Burwell Hall. and treasurer.

The programs, done in light and dark in order that they may have an opporblue, the college colors, were entitled tunity to look over the grounds. "Pot of Gold." Adding to the at- buildings, and some of the college life. mosphere of the cabaret idea was a chorus of dancers from the Henderson school of dance who presented a floor show. Tebee Hawkins and his M. Godard, dean of education and Clemson Jungaleers furnished the Frances Riddle of Columbia, S. C. ing Her Now," and a trio composed of Christiansburg, Va., Mildred Tavof Frances Stough of Cornelius, Mary Payne, and Maujer Moseley, both of Charlotte, sang "Last Night," 'Does Your Heart Beat For Me," and a proposed new Queens Alma Mater.

During the evening, Elizabeth Brammer, president of the Junior class, made the announcement of the election of Jean Ferguson to be president of the Senior Class for next year.

Invited guests to the banquet which is an annual spring function, included Dr. and Mrs. Hunter B. Blakely, Miss Clara B. Slaton, Miss Shirley Black, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Godard, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mac-Gregor, Mrs. Estelle Rawls Porter, and Miss Elizabeth Williams.

Annual May Day Exercises To Gamma Honors Be Observed On Campus Today

To College The annual May Day festival of can he made to move it from Mrs. derson. Huntington's country place at Haverstraw, N. Y.

Queens feels very fortunate in owning one of Mrs. Huntington's works, said Dr. Blakely. The Young Diana is in several other places thorughout the country: New Orleans, La.; Austin, Texas; Cambridge, Mass.; Brookgreen, S. C.; San Diego, Calif.; and in Europe at Blois, France.

Mrs. Huntingdon is one of America's leading sculptresses. A native of Cambridge, Mass., she attended the Art Student's League in New Yorl and was a pupil of H. A. McNeil and Gutzen Borglum; she was also a student at Syracuse University.

Joan of Arc is one of the most famous of the artist's works, being located in New York City; San Francisco; Blois, France; Seville, May 12, 1928. There are now four Spain; and Buenos Aires, Argentina chapters, located at Farmville State Many of her smaller bronzes are at the Metropolitan, Carnegie, Cleveland, San Francisco, San Diego, Luxem bourg, and Edinburgh museums.

Celebrated There are two tapping services— Among her many honors are honone in the spring and one in the fall. orable mention at the Paris Salon, 1910; a silver medal at the San Fran cisco Exposition, 1915; purple rosette from the French government, 1915: Chevalier Legion of Honor of France 1922; the Grand Cross of Alphonse XII of Spain, 1929, and others. Mrs. Huntington is now living in New York City. In private life she is Mrs Archer M. Huntington.

Tea Is Given For Central Hi Girls

Members of the faculty and students of Queens College entertained president; Caroline Edwards of Char- the Central High School senior girls lotte, vice-president; and Dorothy at a tea Wednesday afternoon from

Each year the college is hostess to A cabaret theme was carried out. the high school girls for an afternoon Receiving were Miss Clara B. Slaton, dean of women; Miss Shirley Black, assistant dean of women; Dr. James members of the Queens executive committee, Caroline Edwards of Charlotte, Virginia Cothran of Timsang a solo, "I Wonder Who's Kiss- monsville, S. C., Elizabeth Brammer lor of Stanley, and Dorothy Longernecker of Belgian Congo, Africa.

Serving and directing the high school girls over the campus were members of both the day student and boarding councils. Day student council members are Miss Edwards, president; Mary Payne, vice-president; Nancy Jane Dandridge, secretary; Mary Jane Hart, treasurer; Tera Bailey, senior representative; Nancy Query, junior representative; and Gail Griffith, sophomore representa-

Members of the boarding council are Ellen Hardee of Graham, first vice-president; Boots Bowen of Tazewell, Va., second vice-president; (Continued on page four)

Brooksie Folger Is To Be Crowned May Queen At Festival

Queens College will be held this after-Dr. Hunter B. Blakely announced noon at 4:00 when the queen, Mary today that Mrs. Anna Hyatt Hunt- Brocks Folger of Charlotte will be ington, noted American sculptress, crowned by her maid of honor, Marhas presented the college with a jorie Poole of Mullins, S. C. The replica of one of her statues, the program is sponsored by the Depart-Young Diana. The statue will be sent ment of Physical Education under to the school as soon as arrangements the direction of Miss Cordelia Hen-

> The traditional march, "Pomp and Circumtance," will he used for the maids of the court to assemble. Two little pages, Jerry Godard, son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Godard of Wellesley Avenue, and Milton Barber, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Barber of Hopedale Avenue, will vie for the favor of the little flower girl, Sally MacGregor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard MacGregor, of Wellesley Avenue. Those furnishing the music in the Queens stringed ensemble are: Margaret Springer, Jean Love, Mary Elva Smith, Ruth Kilgo, all of Charlotte, Anne Barrier of Concord, and Frances Pierce of Mount Holly. After the assembling of the court, a number of little piccaninnies, Old Uncle Ned, and a Mammy will furnish gaiety to the tune of Stephen Foster's "Old Suzanna" and similar plantation music.

Marie Roseman of Charlotte as the hostess of the garden fete presides, as the southern girls in hoopskirts and ruffles waltz to Strauss's "Blue Danube." Margaret Flowe of Derita plays the part of a little colored boy who entertains with stunts and tumbling. The winding of the May Pole climaxes the Pageant which is ended by the recessional of the Queen and her court.

Those taking parts of men are: Marion Miller of Charlotte, Peggy Thompson of Highlands, Renette Israel of Lumberton, and Billie Harmon of Concord.

Martha Erwin of Charlotte is chairman of the property committee and Maud McClam of Scranton, S. C., heads the sewing committee. In connection with the sewing, Miss Henderson is offering a prize for the most attractive costume representing the period of 1860. The judges will be Mrs. Hunter Blakely, Mrs. Frank Brandon Smith, and Mrs. E. McA.

Maids in the court will be Elizabeth Brammer of Christiansburg, Va.; Sue McNulty of Pocahontas, Va.; Mildred Wagoner of Shelby; Cornelia Trues-(Continued on page four)

Dramatic Doings

Miss Ethel M. King is conducting class in Diction for the Little Theatre group. This class meets each Monday night from 7:30 to 9 P. M. Many Little Theatre members are taking advantage of the opportunity in speech training-actors, teachers, and even those who have a foreign

A recent recital given by the dramatic students included this program: From "The Flight of the Herons" by Anne Pease, "A Northern Girl's Idea of a Southern Girl," by Peggy Sadler, "First Wife to Second Wife," by Anne Harris, from "Comedy and Tragedy" by Claire Wishart, a group of songs sung by Sarah Holman, 'Prodigy-Monologue" by Anne Harris, "Dairy," by Martha Irwin, "Maria Rosa" by Mary Katherine Martin, "Rosaline" by Elaine Suber.