Gains Junior Victory Vol. 12, No. 8

Yea, Juniors—give 'em a hand! And do they deserve it. Dot Funderburk, Junior stunt night chairman, Winnie Shealy, gallery chairman and the Junior gallery turned out a very clever skit on the search for a bride for King Arthur, who was portrayed by Flora McDonald. The Knights were: Nancy Gaston, Billie Harmon, Ann Golden, Ruth Edmiston, Jane Montgomery, Cookie Scoggins, and Mary Marshall Jones. Lib Isaacs played the part of Merlin, Ann Mauldin, the bugler, Tena Grainge, Johnson C. Smith, Doris Raley, the Queen, and Mary Lou Wright, St. Mary. The gallery was dressed like troubadors and ladies of the Middle Age and rode broom-stick horses into the auditorium.

The dignified Senior skit, with Lib Brammer as stunt chairman and Mary Payne as gallery chairman, copped second prize. The Will Direct skit was neatly done as an alumnae meeting in 1971. Those at the alumnae table were: Tera Baily, Jennie Lynn Wright, Julia Edwards, Caroline Edwards, Sara Thompson, Jean Ferguson, Anne Harris, Mimi Bradham, Frances Brockington, Maud McClam, and Mary Mason.

Sara Alexander as Diana in the sophomore skit was the hit of the evening. Ann Wiley was stunt night chairman and Sue Crenshaw was gallery chairman. The gallery was dressed like on December 3rd, 4th, and 5th in the Dianas with bows and arrows complete.

Freshmen skit was directed by Idrienne Levy and Margaret Powell, gallery chairman. Freshmen deserve especial mention Martinez Sierra, has received favorfor their smoothness of production and attention to details.

Judges were Miss Mary Louise Green, Miss Matoka Torence and N. G. Sims.

Queens Girls Lead Christmas Pageant

Holiday Season Opens With Parade

The business section of Charlotte glowed' with a profusion of colored lights Thursday night at 6 o'clock as the gala Charlotte Christmas Parade Parlors. officially opened the Christmas shopping season.

shaw, S. C., was selected by a ma-College Auditorium. jority vote of the students of Queens College to reign as queen over the parade.

The Queen and her court, made float in the spectacular parade.

Attending the Queen were: Jean Ferguson of Chicago, Ollie Meadows of New Bern, Lucielle Blackburn of Charlotte, Mildred Taylor of Charlotte, Elizabeth Brammer of Christiansburg, Virginia, Doris Raley of Ruby, S. C., Mary Heilig McDow of Asheville, Marie Pons of Valdese, Alice Clark of Clarkton and Ann Wiley of Charlotte.

More than 300 persons participated there, as he sees it is needed. in the parade which featured men and women dressed in the costumes be used for the scholarship, the bal-dents were asked to sign a pledge of other nations, balloon characters, commercial floats, and the music of stration. Everything collected over give to this worthy cause, and the many bands.

The parade started on South Tryon Street at 6 o'clock and continued on Tryon to Seventh for one block; in Chapel last Friday morning by redecoration of the hut and the sendit proceeded on College Street to Trade Street where it turned right and continued to the post office.

man of the parade. W. W. Kale and a committee including Herbert C Alexander and Mrs. H. C. Dwelle judged the commercial floats.

Things To Come

Thursday, November 28th Thanksgiving holiday.

Friday, November 29th

December 3rd, 5th, 6th Miss Cornelia Truesdale of Ker- Queens Players and Little Theater in Failor, Peggy Sadler, and Margaret

King Authur's Court OUEENS BLUES

QUEENS COLLEGE, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

November 27, 1940

Dramatic Group V Present "Cradle Song"

Humble King

Co-directed by Miss Ethel King and Thomas Humble, the Queens Players, in co-operation with the Charlotte Little Theater, will present the widely acclaimed "Cradle Song" college auditorium.

The play, which was written by able critical comment everywhere it has been produced. It is considered by some authorities the most outstanding play in the last twenty-five years in America.

The plot develops in two acts romantic story of a foundling girl who is reared by the nuns.

Queens girls taking part in the performance are as follows: Jennie Linn Wright of Landis; Anne Harris of Brunswick, Georgia; Frances Trulock of Climax, Georgia; Margaret Powell of Chester, S. C.; Mary Katherine Martin of Richburg, S. C.; Jo-Talk by Mr. Mitchell in College sephine Johnston of Goldston; Frances Prater of Townville, S. C.; and Katherine Langerhans, Martha Irwin, Freshman Leads Presentation of "Cradle Song" by Rebecca Wiley, Cecil Sypher, Dorothy Porter, all of Charlotte.

English And Chinese To up of the ten girls receiving the next highest vote, rode on a special Receive S.C.A. Scholorships

The cabinet decided that this year, giving unselfishly. because of the equal need and inter-

Of the money contributed $150 will ance will be supplied by the admini- specifying the amount they would and above this amount will be given Cabinet is working and praying for to the Chinese.

members of the Cabinet. Dorothy ing of an X-ray machine, bought by Longenecker, president of the asso- Davidson College, to Africa.

presented last Friday, November 22, explained to the student body the their project for giving this year. meaning of this annual custom of her home state.

Pete Munroe presented the side of est, they would choose a double pro- the Chinese refugees by giving the ject, namely: giving a scholarship to viewpoint of a Chinese girl, and Mimi an English refugee girl to come to Bradham, that of the English by Queens College; and sending money playing the part of an English refugee to Mr. Hamilton, a missionary in girl. Ruth Edminston read some China, to use in the refugee work poetry and Margaret Porter played the organ.

> At the end of the service the stua generous response.

The S. C. A. project was presented Previous projects have been the

Day Students and Others on the steps of the Y. M. C. A. and Guests At Formal Dinner

Home Economics Delegates Attend State Convention

22 and 23, at Eastern Carolina Teach- Morrison Dormitory, Doris Raley; Kathreen Massie, Marie Leonard, parts of the Bible have been printed ers College in Greenville, North Caro- from Watkins Dormitory, Harriet Betty Mae Potts, Marguerite Mason, in more than a thousand languages lina. Sue McNulty, Drucilla Ballen- McDowell; from Long Dormitory, Duncan Lebraia Lebr tine, Maud McClam, and Margaret Winfred Pons and Frances Lowrance; Duncan, Johnsie Lee Huneycutt, the European societies have been Kornegay attended as representatives from the day students, Sara Bailey, Norma Humphries, Ruth Kilgo, Mary from Queens.

These girls were elected to go at Kornegay. meeting, too, a report of the fashion which Home Economics students are the freshman class acted as her to the fashion which Home Economics students are the freshman class acted as her to the show was given, and the following urged to attend.

Drucilla Ballentine and Margaret Elva Smith, and Jeanne Love.

nomics club, November 13. At the prepared for the monthly meeting inger, Margaret Powell, Dot Herron, the distribution of the Bible, and that Ownby, of Charlotte. Day students countries have carried on. He point-The State Home Economics club girls were appointed by the presi-included on the guest list were: Mar-ed out that through the combined met Friday and Saturday, November dent to collect the dues: from garet Aldred, Norma Anderson, efforts of these organizations various the freshman class, acted as hostesses. world with the Gospel.

Miss Ethel King, right, and Thomas Humble, left, are co-directors for around life in a convent. It is the the production of the widely-acclaimed play, "Cradle Song,' which' will be presented by the Queens Players and Little Theater, December 3, 5 and 6.

Symphony Orchestra Gives First Concert

School With Five Superior Grades

in the real sense of the word, was born July 28, 1923, in Decatur, Georgia. But although Georgia was her The Student Christian Association ciation, announced the projects and birthplace, she has lived in Florida most of her life and claims it as ments of Queens and Davidson.

> their daughter to school at the customary age of six. When her first report card was sent home, Mildred's parents knew that their little girl had started up the ladder of success. She continued upward until she reached a milestone in her progress, graduation with honors from Landow High School in Jacksonville, Florida.

> On September 10, 1940 Queens College welcomed her as a freshman. ward and at the first report period was awarded with five distinctions.

At present she is taking a straight Godard Speaks To A.B. course, preparing to teach.

Chapel Guest Talks On A.B.S.

Dr. I. A. McIlroy was guest speak-Formal dinner was held Friday, er in chapel on Tuesday, November November 22. The following guests 19th. Dr. McIlroy, speaking on beattended. Dr. and Mrs. Frazier half of the American Bible Society, Hood of Davidson; Dr. and Mrs. H. explained the great work which the P. Harding and Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Bible societies of this and other

Dr. McIlroy concluded his message Marguerite Gillespie, Louisa Mc- with the fact that the American Bible Interesting programs are being Lean, Leakie Wyatt, Betty Ross Del- Society is the only group now for

The Queens-Davidson Symphony Orchestra presented its first concert on the Queens campus this year in the college auditorium, on Friday, November 22.

The orchestra, which is the largest college symphony in the state, played Mildred Pearson, who is a student to an unusually large and receptive audience. The personnel of the orchestra is comprised of sixty advanced students in the music depart-

The following program was pre-Mr. and Mrs. Pearson started sented by the orchestra, under the direction of Professor James Christian Pfohl, head of the Queens-Davidson co-ordinate music depart-> Overture to "Oberon," Weber; Beethoven's First Symphony; "Carmen" suite, Bizet: "Bolero," Ravel.

The next appearance of the orchestra will be when it joins the Central High School Symphony Orchestra in Here she continued her journey up- the presentation of Handel's "Messiah" on December 18.

Ministers' Meeting

Dr. J. M. Godard, Dean of Instruction, addressed the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Ministerial Association at a luncheon meeting on November 18th at Efird's Department Store.

Dr. Godard spoke on the topic, The Psychology of Personal Counsel." He stated that the pastor needs to know the motives behind personal behavior, and how to apply forces of religion to human problems.

Dr. Godard was introduced by Dr. John A. Redhead, Jr., pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. Bill Mitchell of the Observer Printing House will talk informally on "Commercial Advertising" in the college parlors on Friday evening, November 29 at 7:30. All students interested in any phase of advertising are cordially invited.