

Jesus Sanroma To Be Presented By Concert Series November 15

On November 15, the second of the Queens Concert Lecture series will be presented in the Queens Auditorium. It will be a piano recital by Jesus Maria Sanroma.

Sanroma is a Puerto Rican pianist who began his musical career early in life. He received a Puerto Rican scholarship to the New England Conservatory of Music.

Sanroma has played many times with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and has been the only artist to record with that orchestra. He has played in all the capitals in Europe.

Sanroma plays both modern and classical music. He was a good friend of the great George Gershwin and is an admirer of his music. Included on the program of the coming concert is Gershwin's famous "Rhapsody in Blue."

Students and friends of Queens have a treat in store for them with the coming of Sanroma to Queens.

Who's Who Announced For 1944-45

On Tuesday morning, October 24, in chapel, Dr. Blakely announced the Queens girls whose names will appear in the 1944-45 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. The eight students named were, Edna Adams, Betsy Hodges, Marie Sitton, Jane King, Frances Bryan, Annette McCall, Elsa Turner, and Betty Schaaf.

This group consists of juniors, seniors, or advanced students who excel in character, scholarship, leadership in extracurricular activities, and potentialities for future usefulness to business and society. They were chosen by a secret faculty committee.

Jane King is president of Alpha Delta Pi this year. Last year she was editor of the Quill, member of Alpha Iota, S. C. A. Cabinet, Dean's List, and has been active in Choral Club.

Betsy Hodges is a member of Alpha Iota, Alpha Kappa Gamma, and Sigma Mu. She was vice-president of her freshman class, president of her sophomore class, member of the War Service Committee, and Dean's List. She is this year's president of Boarding Student Body and a member of Phi Mu.

Frances Bryan is president of the senior class. While at Queens she has been a member of Valkyrie, Alpha Iota, advertising manager of the Coronet, secretary of Student Government, Dean's List, and treasurer of Phi Mu.

Elsa Turner has been a member of Boarding Student Council her four years at Queens, holding the position of first vice-president this year. She was a member of Valkyrie, vice-president of her junior class, and is a Phi Mu pledge.

Betty Schaaf is president of Alpha Iota, treasurer of the Student Body and a Phi Mu pledge. She is on the Dean's List and a member of S. C. A.

Annette McCall is second vice-president of Boarding Student Council. While at Queens she has been a member of Valkyrie, S. C. A. Cabinet, May Court, Alpha Kappa Gamma, Alpha Gamma Delta, and president of the Athletic Association.

Marie Sitton is president of the Day Student Body. She was treasurer of her freshman, sophomore,

Relations Club Meets Nov. 14 In Auditorium

Queens is very fortunate in having on its campus each month the meetings of the Charlotte Council of International Relations. As the name indicates, this is a group of local citizens which organized last December to study questions arising out of international relationships. Their purpose is to inform themselves with regard to these questions and to do what they can to further the ideal of world organization based on law and justice.

This month's program, which will be held on Nov. 14 at 8:00 in Queens College Auditorium, will consist of an address by President John A. Mackay of Princeton Theological Seminary. His subject will be "The Church in the Post-War World." With Dr. Mackay on the platform will be a panel of Charlotte ministers, consisting of Dr. G. Ray Jordan, First Methodist Church; Dr. John A. Redhead, Jr., Second Presbyterian Church; Dr. George D. Heaton, Myers Park Baptist Church, and Rev. M. George Henry, Christ Episcopal Church.

After Dr. Mackay's address, he and the panel will lead a discussion on the subject and answer questions that the audience may ask. The public is invited to attend and to take part in the discussion.

Judge Parker is chairman of this group, Dr. Hunter B. Blakely and Mr. Frances O. Clarkson are vice-chairmen, and Dr. Gilbert L. Lycan is secretary.

Trustees Meet, Revise Chapter Of College

Last Thursday, October 19, the Board of Trustees met here at the college. They put into effect a reorganization of the board, and a revision of the charter. The present charter now provides for ten trustees to be elected by the Synod of North Carolina, eight trustees to be elected by the Synod of South Carolina, and six trustees to be elected by the Board of Trustees with the approval of the two synods.

The present Board of Trustees is as strong and influential as any college could hope to have.

The members are as follows: H. J. Allison, president, Allison-Erwin Co., Charlotte; J. J. Harris, president, James J. Harris Insurance Co., Charlotte; Luther Snyder, president, Charlotte Coca-Cola Bottling Co., Charlotte; H. L. Dalton, Southern Representative, American Viscose Co., Charlotte; Mr. Rush S. Dickson, president, R. S. Dickson Co., Inc., Charlotte; McAlister Carson, president, Carson Insurance Co., Charlotte; Howard Holderness, vice-president, Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Co., Greensboro; T. L. Wilson, Sec-treas., Ruby Mills, Gastonia; Rev. George Mause, D.D., pastor, First Presbyterian Church, Winston-Salem; David Owens, vice-pres. and gen. manager, J. B. Ivey & Co., Charlotte; Ivey Stewart, president, The Commercial National Bank, Charlotte; Rev. James A. Jones, D.D., pastor, Myers Park Presbyterian Church, Charlotte; Mrs. R. C. Everett, Durham; Mrs. William C. Canner, Concord; Mrs. S. P. Stowe, Belmont; Hunter Marshall, attorney and secretary, North Carolina Cotton Manufacturers Association, Charlotte; Rev. A. W. Service Fund On Part Of S.C.A. Drive

With a goal of $500,000 and a staff of eight traveling secretaries, the 1944-45 campaign of the World Student Service Fund is well under way. "Never have we faced such needs," reports the Fund's office in New York. "Our relief committees overseas could spend ten times as much as we can supply."

News from the China front is serious. Recent cables from Chungking tell of the continuing advance of the Japanese armies in southwest China, the destruction of universities which had already migrated four or five times, and the trek of thousands of students still farther west. Many students were killed or captured in first attacks. One eye witness account says: "At midnight the Japanese came when we were all asleep. In the light of their torches they looked fierce and terrible. Our guide Mr. Chen asked why they had come. This angered them so that they brutally stabbed him to death. None of us dared to say a word. Then those robbers began to open all our trunks and took away the things which they liked. After their departure there was much confusion, mourning for the innocent dead, crying over lost property, hatred, revenge, fear all mingled together."

The task of the World Student Service Fund's administering committee in China is of course greatly increased as they face the emergency needs of thousands of students.

From Europe comes news of the beginnings of the post-war program as the first student services are initiated in liberated countries. A cable just received in the W. S. S. F. office tells of two staff members already in France, opening a rehabilitation home for 100 French students in the Savoie mountains. A representative of the French student resistance movement is already working in the Geneva office. Plans are being made for the first student relief workers from overseas to go to Europe.

The program among prisoners of war keeps its primary place in the European student relief program. Despite disrupted communications in Germany, thousands of books go each month from Geneva to individual prisoners. This work must continue long after V-E day, for the repatriation process will be slow.

The W. S. S. F. reports that its aid to American students of Japanese ancestry continues, with the work soon to enter its third year.

"There is no doubt that American students can raise $500,000 for the relief of their fellow students who are victims of war. They can raise more than that if they set their

The programs are dreams! Yes, it is a card dance and the programs are to be made out in school colors. There will be 18 dance sets on the program, so plan with whom you want to exchange dances.

There will be an intermission of thirty minutes during which refreshments will be served. Yes, all this and food, too!

Let's plan to make this first dance at Queens a memorable one.

Tea Is Held For Granddaughters Of Alumnae

On Wednesday afternoon, October 25, twenty-one daughters of Chicora and Queens alumnae were entertained at an informal tea given in their honor. From 4:30 to 5:30 o'clock guests were received by their hostess, Miss Virginia Smith, Alumnae Secretary, at the home of Mrs. Gayle Rogers at Westminster Place.

The purpose of the tea was to enable the girls to become better acquainted with each other and with the Alumnae Association, and to make plans for assisting at Alumnae functions in the future.

The president of the Alumnae Association, Miss Sarah Locke Blythe, was present; and the following girls were guests:

Misses Helen Fraser, Walterboro, S. C.; Mary Elizabeth Tucker, Waynesboro, Ga.; Ann Laura Abernathy, Lincolnton; Louise Fink, Lincolnton; Mary McKellan, Mooresville; Jo Anne King, McBee, S. C.; Rebecca and Ruth Pressly, Belmont; Betty Howard, Memphis, Tenn.; Mary Brown Craig, Chester, S. C.; Mary Lacy Bost, Harrisburg; Bonnie Caldwell, Concord; Laura Martin, Marion, S. Old Maid: So the waiter says to me, "How would you like your rice?"

Friend: "Yes, yes, go on."

Old Maid: So I says, wistful-like, "Thrown at me, my man, thrown at me."

"Glands to it!" says Briar President Meta Glass of Sweet Briar College, President of the World Student Service Fund.
