

Dear Readers,

Man, my sun tan is really looking great! It should be after all that Hawaiian sunshine at the 1969 Junior-Senior. It was good to see so many faces of Webb students enjoying the "Hawaiian Holiday", however I left early because my date just couldn't keep her eyes off the Variations. Another reason for my early departure was fear of the volcano erupting at any moment.

The Physic's class took a field trip recently. I understand the chemistry classes are planning some trips, also. This summer they plan to go on a big ghost hunt.

Ghosts remind me of white and white reminds me of blond-headed people. Speaking of blonds...Phillip Kearney, why did you rip your toe nail off? Hope it's better now.

Well, it's May. (No kidding!) After May comes June and with June comes G-R-A-D-U-A-T-I-O-N! Sadly I rove the halls of Webb. No more will Barry Johnson be worring the heck out of Mrs. Stovall. No longer will Bill Mitchell be stumbling blindly down the halls. No more will Robbie and Melina be seen leaning on the radiator. Tommy Currin's, Sanne Jones', and Teresa Currin's tutoring services will be out of business. Miss Averett will no longer have Marvel Carter to type. And the first lunch wrestling matches challenging Henry Denny, the Champ will come to an end. None were so fine as sixty-nine...but dry your tears and make Homecoming 1969 the biggest reunion ever!

Have a nice summer and I'll see you next year!

—The Roving Reporter

An elderly minister was walking down the street when he saw a little boy on tiptoe reaching to ring a doorbell, but it was too high for him. So the minister walked over and rang it for him.

"Thanks, mister," replied the little boy, "I hear the lady coming now; let's run!"

- And to Diana Long goes the Three Little Pigs Short Story Award for her fantastic tales.

One small child to another: I have to go to bed at 8 o'clock. My mother is a half an hour meaner than yours.

May Brings Arrival Of 1969 Wildcats; Yearbooks Dedicated To Mrs. Bunn

The 1969 Wildcat which was distributed during sixth period on May 6, was dedicated to Mrs. Elizabeth Bunn. Shown here is Mrs. Bunn accepting a copy of the yearbook from editor Cecelia Pruitt. Filled with snapshots and headlines as well as the usual individual and organization pictures, the annual quickly captured the fancy of all Webbsters. Students could be seen for days afterwards autographing all of their friends' books as souvenirs of Webb-1969. The officers of this year's Wildcat were; in addition to Cecelia: Debra Fox, associate editor; Bryant Haskins, Business Manager; and Dale Williford, Art Editor.

"Just a trim," the teenage boy told the barber. "You can even it up a little around the shoulders."
