

Senior Directory

Many seniors have planned their careers for the future. "The Owl" has made inquiries among the seniors and their plans at the present time are as follows:

Bettie Lou Blackwell, Pat Dickerson, Jackie Shaw, "Doogie" Peele, Billie Blackwell, Bobby Currin, Violette Parham, and Gwen Sherman have chosen East Carolina to prepare themselves for the future.

State has claimed Ronald Sneed, Billy Batts, Warren Stephenson and Leonard Dean.

Many of our girls plan to enter the field of nursing. They are Gerleen Hester, Watts; Dorothy Averett, Daphne Burnette, Jean Burwell, and Ann Rogers, Danville Memorial Hospital; and Jean Sherman, U. N. C. School of Nursing.

Hoke Huss, "Kink" Taylor, Dick Taylor, Woodrow Thomasson, and J. B. Clay plan to enter Carolina.

Wake Forest claims Billy Sneed, Nick Bragg, and Ben Averett.

Those planning to take up some field of business administration are Betty Hilbert, Mattie Ann Gooch, Jean Wheeler, Laura Hunt, Edith Evans, Maynard Averett and Eugenia Brummitt.

E. B. Averett has already joined the U. S. Navy.

Three girls have already taken business courses at Fuller's Secretarial School. They are Rachel Matthews, Barbara Brooks and Willie Bell Boyd. Julia Ellington plans to work at Butner Hospital.

Other students planning to enter college are Edith Newton, Spartanburg Junior College, Spartanburg, S. C.; Bettie Sue Knott, Meredith; Joy Burwell, W. C.; Ellie Mitchell, Greensboro College; Ann Clark, Louisburg College; and Julia Hamme, St. Mary's.

Jimmy Wrenn and James Belcher plan to be tobacconists.

Those who are undecided as to what they will do are Ted Morton, Laura Hunt, Lindsay Currin, Cleveland Connell, Donald Hedgepeth, and Elizabeth Finch.

Julia Brooks is the only member of the Class of '54 who plans to be married in the very near future—June 6.

Charles M. Barker, III

Winners of Band Awards Revealed

Curtis Tillotson became a two-time winner of the Band's most valuable player award, a silver cup awarded annually to a member of the Band by the Woman's Club. The presentation was made at the May Band Concert by Mrs. George Duffy, Club president. Tillotson won the club award in 1951. Should he win again, it will become his permanent property.

Other awards given by the Band Boosters Club were presented by Mr. Somerville to Johnny Welch for musicianship, Dick Taylor for leadership, and Violette Parham for cooperation.

Dick Taylor presented to the Band Boosters Club a check for $18, a gift from the Six Sharps, a dance band composed of six members of the band. The check repre-

Charlie Is Our Guy

Charles Macon Barker, III, known to the Seniors as "Charlie, my boy", was elected class mascot in the fall and has been the perfect fellow for the job! He has visited the Seniors once during the year, and gave everyone a dime to an Easter Treat. As this issue of "The Owl" goes to press on May 21, Charlie has plans for entertaining the Seniors but at the moment, they are a "dee-dyed" secret. The Class of '54 has enjoyed having Charlie as their mascot and wish for him much success and happiness.

sent money earned by the Sharps in their public appearances.

The first number on the program, "Pomp and Chivalry", was dedicated to our former beloved bandmaster, A. J. Wagner of Raleigh, who was in the audience.

CONGRATULATIONS SENIORS From City Sandwich Shop

PENNY Furniture Co. Your FRIGIDAIRE DEALER

Compliments of— Pryor's OXFORD'S BEST IN MEN'S APPAREL

George Currin, Jeweler NATIONALLY ADVERTISED QUALITY JEWELRY — DIAMONDS — WATCHES CHINA EXPERT REPAIRING SILVER Oxford, North Carolina

Messages (Continued)

Handwritten messages including: "Never in the field of human study was so much owed to the teacher of O. H. S. Whole Hearted Farewell, Oxford High, for write in the song row! maynard a unit Good luck Dall I leave behind Saphire Burnette Don't turn the place down; you'll be out before long, anyway! Violette Parham Great, deplacated, beloved That's Oxford High. Billie Blackwell. Double, Double Joy and trouble! Jimmy Wrenn children, watch your steps! Richard Harris Bubble, bubble, tail and trouble! Juniors are happy and seniors are hopeful! Elizabeth Finch Behold, we know not anything. Jackie Shaw Parting is such sweet sorrow. Jean Wheeler So long - Goodby Ted Morton Farewell. So long - Goodby Ted Morton