Dr. W. J. House Talks To Local A. A. U. W.

Dr. W. J. House, former O.H.S. principal and now associate as superintendent in the Greensboro system, was guest speaker for the local chapter of A.A.U.W. November 23 in the main building at Oxford Orphanage.

Dr. House talked on "Education in Russia and in the U.S.". Mrs. House came with him.

O.H.S. teachers who are members of A.A.U.W. are Miss Evelyn Breedlove, president, Mrs. Mac Satterwhite, Miss Mattie Mae Lyon, Mrs. Tom Speed, Miss Mildred Bullock, and Miss Lois Waller.

Several visitors were invited to hear Dr. House. After the program, he and Mrs. House were honored with an informal reception with Orphanage A.A.U.W. members as joint-hostesses.

Student Council Works On Honor Code

The Student Council is working on honor code cards for the high school. The program committee is working on movies, to be shown probably before Christmas and in February.

The Student Council voted for Student of the Month from the following candidates: Peggy Averett, Wiley Emmett, Harry Williams, Robert Powell, Anna Peed, Roy Dean, Ray Williford, and David Norris.

A Thanksgiving program was sponsored by the Council Nov. 20. Shirley Tippett led the devotional, and the high school chorus, directed by Mr. Scoggins, sang "Thanks Be To God." Annette Culbreth spoke on the "Origin of Thanksgiving" and Roy Dean on "Thanksgiving 1959". A skit entitled "Thanksgiving Day is for Thanksgiving" was given by Billy Frazier, Mary Campbell, Nancy Hogan, Betty Howard, Joe Currin, Robert Powell, Jimmy Frazier, and Annie Laura Dixon.

Mr. Scoggins led the assembly group in three Thanksgiving songs.

Harrell Attends 4-H Congress

Howard Harrell, president of the Oxford Senior 4-H Club, attended the 13th Annual N. C. 4-H Club Farm and Home Electric Congress in Asheville, October 29-30.

The Congress was under the leadership of L. R. Harrill, State 4-H Leader.

Other officers of the club are as follows: Richard Brooks, vice-president; Gussie Currin, secretary-treasurer; and Sylvia Clark, devotional chairman.

F. H. A. Banquet Dec. 4

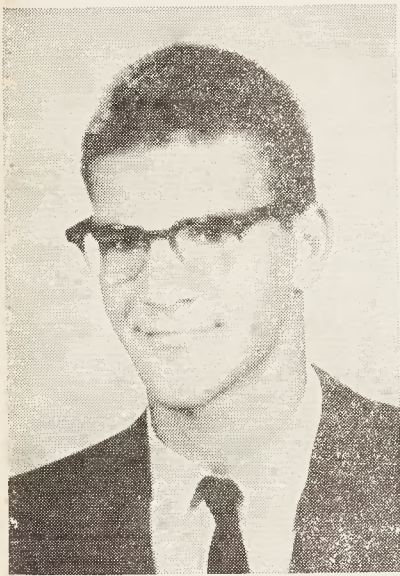

Mrs. Peggy Mann is to be guest speaker for the Mother-Daughter Banquet of the Future Homemakers of America to be held at the C. G. Credle School December 4.

To Language Day at Woman's College

Mrs. Satterwhite and four of her students, Pat Leveque, Lea Le Hall, Barbara Rogers, and Brenda Gupton, attended Language Day at Woman's College, October 29.

The program included folk songs of various countries in their native languages, a report from natives of or visitors to foreign countries, skits related to several languages, and foreign movies.

The hundred visitors at Language Day were guests of Woman's College for lunch.

David Norris Student of Month

David Norris, a Senior, was announced Student of the Month by Betty Lou Rawls in assembly November 13.

"David, who has played football four years, and has played basketball part of the time, is an active member of the Monogram Club, she explained.

"David, a member of the Oxford Baptist Church, exemplifies qualities of leadership and good citizenship that recommend him for this honor," she added.

His brother John and sister Victoria have graduated here. John is in the military service after three years at the University. Victoria is now working in Oxford, after two years at Mars Hill. He has a sister, Sue, in the ninth grade, and a brother Matt in the fourth grade.

Thanksgiving Recess

School will recess for a long Thanksgiving weekend after classes end Wednesday.

Christmas holidays are Dec. 23-Jan. 3, inclusive.

G.A.A. Places First Again In Annual Stunt Night

Girls' Athletic Association again, as last year, won first prize ($10.00) in the annual Stunt Night sponsored by the local chapter of The National Honor Society Friday night.

Mrs. Satterwhite's homeroom won second prize ($7.50), and Mr. Scoggins' High School Chorus won third ($5.00). In the talent division Diane Saunders won the prize of $5.00 for her ballet dance.

In the winning stunt Bonnie Lou Currin and Julia Ruth Carrington starred in an "operatic" version of "La Prunia".

Emceeding for the whole program of 21 students were Julia Ruth Carrington, honor society president, and Ray Williford, senior class president. Judges were Mrs. B. F. Sloan, Mrs. James Dunn, and Mr. Hart Curl. Miss Eugenia Boyd is faculty sponsor of the honor society.

This year stunts were given by the high school only. In previous years the nine Junior High grades on O.H.S. campus also participated, but it was decided by the honor society not to include the younger students in order to make the program shorter. Even so, the program, which started exactly on the dot at 8 o'clock, lasted until after 10:30.

During intermission home-made candy and fountain cokes were on sale.

This is the honor society's money-making project during the school year.

Shirley Tippett D. A. R. Winner

The Seniors voted Shirley Tippett as winner of the D.A.R. Citizenship award. For the award a senior girl is picked as exemplifying qualities of service, leadership, and patriotism. The vote is taken by written ballot.

Shirley was a member of the Bible Club as a Freshman. As a Sophomore she was a member of the Owl Staff, Latin Club, and Bible Club.

As a Junior, Shirley was in the Bible Club, Owl Staff, Debating Club, for which she was treasurer, National Honor Society, and was a marshal.

This year she is a member of the Bible Club, Circulation Manager for Owl staff, secretary of the Student Council, National Honor Society, marshal, treasurer of F.T.A., and a Class Night speaker. She is also a Senior superlative (most intellectual).

Betty L. Rawls Heads Bus Drivers

Elected officers of the Bus Drivers Club, are Betty Lou Rawls, president; Judith K. Currin, secretary-treasurer, and Bill Dickerson, reporter.

The club tries to have a supper or some other social activity once a month. A barbeque supper was held November 19, in Louisburg.
