

THE ORPHANS' FRIEND

Monday, July 19, 1875.

THE X.—We adopt the usual custom of notifying subscribers of the expiration of their subscription...

We hope none will be offended at having the paper stopped when they fail to pay...

COMMITTEES ON THE ORPHAN ASYLUM.—We presume the various Masonic Lodges of the State have, in obedience to the resolution...

Mr. S. S. Burton of the Mt. Airy Watchmen, while passing through Oxford this week, gave us a call...

EDITORIAL CHANGE.—With the last issue of the Raleigh Sentinel Mr. Turner's connection with the paper ceases...

An Intelligent Dog.—Mr. Barnard of Hartford, Conn. has a remarkably intelligent dog...

The papers of the State have heretofore been rather tender-footed in regard to the orphan work as a State charge...

We have no doubt that the poor, helpless orphans of the State will be taken in among the other helpless classes...

AGRICULTURAL JOURNAL.—This excellent North Carolina publication is out in a new and improved form...

THE GENEROUS HEARTED MAN.

BY JAMES A. DAVIS.

He is a man with an honest face, a smiling countenance, a heart full of charity, and a hand ever ready to help...

True, he sees and knows of the close fastness of the world; but it affects him not. He is content to move along in the sunlight that has been chucked out for him by a providential hand...

Men whom Providence has prospered often drop back into that state of forgetfulness of God's goodness...

A little charitable outlay here, or a kind word spoken there, from pure and religious motives, often endears a person to the hearts of men...

An Intelligent Dog.

Mr. Barnard of Hartford, Conn. has a remarkably intelligent dog. His performances, indeed, seem almost incredible; but, after all, we little know what dogs are really capable of.

Mr. Barnard—the owner—will hold up one finger, and ask the dog, "How many?" Answer by the dog, "Bow!" Then Barnard holds up two, four, or three...

Ask the dog how many thousand dollars he is worth, and he responds with five barks. He will also tell how many commandments there are; and when asked how many words there are in the eighth commandment, he responds with four bow wows.

Insults, says a modern philosopher, are like counterfeit money; we cannot hinder them from being offered, but we are not compelled to take them.

From the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge.

"The design of the orphan Asylum shall be to protect, train and educate indigent and promising orphan children to be received between the age of six and twelve, who have no parents, nor property nor near relatives able to assist them. They shall not be received for a shorter time than two years. In extraordinary cases the Superintendent may receive children outside the ages specified."

Resolutions of the Grand Lodge.

Adopted Dec 3d, 1872.

Resolved, 1. That St. John's College shall be made an asylum for the protection, training and education of indigent orphan children.

2. That this Grand Lodge will appropriate $— annually for the support of the institution; but will not assume any additional pecuniary responsibility.

3. That this Grand Lodge elect a Superintendent who shall control the institution and solicit contributions for its support from all classes of our people.

4. That orphan children in the said Asylum shall be fed and clothed, and shall receive such preparatory training and education as will prepare them for useful occupations and for the usual business transactions of life.

Adopted Dec 5th 1872:

Resolved, That the Superintendent of the said Orphan Asylum shall report each at Annual Communication an account of his official acts, receipts, disbursements, number of pupils, &c., together with such suggestions as he may see fit to offer.

Resolved, That the Master of each subordinate Lodge appoint a Standing Committee of three members for the Orphan Asylum; and require said committee to report in writing each month and that said reports and the funds received be forwarded monthly to the Superintendent of the Asylum...

All churches and benevolent organizations are requested to cooperate with us in the orphan work and to collect and forward contributions through their own proper officers. Here are the resolutions:

Resolved, That the sincere thanks of this Grand Lodge are hereby tendered to all benevolent ladies and gentlemen, to the ministers of the gospel, to churches of various denominations, to Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Good Templars, Friends of Temperance, and other benevolent societies, whose hearty cooperation and liberal contributions have rendered timely and valuable assistance in the great work of ameliorating the condition of the orphan children of the State.

Resolved, That all benevolent societies and individuals are hereby cordially invited and requested to cooperate with us in providing funds and supplies for feeding clothing, and educating indigent and promising orphan children, at the Asylum in Oxford.

THE TORCH-LIGHT.

OXFORD, N. C. ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER YEAR. W. A. DAVIS, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

OUR Paper is devoted to the best interests of Granville County, and is published at the expense that is spared to make it a paper suitable to all classes.

JOB PRINTING. We are prepared to execute both neatly, cheaply and quickly all kinds of plain and fancy printing as cheap as any establishment in North Carolina. Give us your orders.

TO ADVERTISERS. THE Torch-Light has a large circulation than any other newspaper in Granville county, besides its circulation in the surrounding counties is quite flattering, and it is undoubtedly the best advertising medium. Terms the most liberal.

KIND WORDS. Below we reproduce a few of the many favorable notices given us by our readers of the "Torch-Light." "The Torch-Light is the best paper in the South."—Waterloo (N. Y.) Daily Register.

"The Torch-Light has a large circulation than any other newspaper in Granville county, besides its circulation in the surrounding counties is quite flattering, and it is undoubtedly the best advertising medium. Terms the most liberal."

"It is well printed, well edited and is a first class weekly newspaper."—Little Jewel.

"It is low, well gotten up and valuable paper."—Danville (Va.) Times.

"It is well conducted, respectful in its tone and filled with interesting reading matter."—Washington Echo.

"It is one of the newsiest and most spicy weeklies to be found and we wish its clever young editor the rich success which his industry and talents merit."—Washington (N. C.) Gazette. We could fill columns with such notices, but it is useless. Those patronizing us are not satisfied can get their money returned.
